

GENERAL SHOW RULES

1. Learn, have fun, be a good person and role model for others!
2. All animals must be show broke.
3. All animals must be in good health. No warts, lice, ring worm, pinkeye, etc.
4. All animals will be vet checked at weigh-in.
5. All exhibitors will be required to remove animal blankets, sleeves, tubes, wraps or any covering before vet check and weigh-in.
6. All sheep must be sheared before vet check.
7. NEW... for 2024! ALL Washington swine must be tagged with a USDA-approved ID Tag compliant with the June 2023 WSDA Swine ID disease traceability requirement.
8. Out of state exhibitors should expect to have health papers available and inspected.
9. LCSS reserves the right to refuse animals upon arrival based on observation alone.
10. After weigh-in exhibitors need to bring their weight cards to the registration desk to complete check-in.
11. Animals will not be stalled at the fairgrounds. Animals need to be maintained and cared for at/in your stock trailer or truck.
12. Ethical care and treatment of animals will be required.
13. Each exhibitor will be responsible for cleaning up after their animals including all bedding, feed, and manure.
14. Please check-in with each species supervisor on arrival and check-out before leaving.
15. By entering, each exhibitor agrees that he/she is responsible for any loss, injury, or damage that results to the exhibitor, family member, friends, and/or animals.
16. By entering each exhibitor or parent/guardian gives LCSS permission to use all photos taken during the livestock show for promotional purposes.
17. There are NO Refunds for any entry fees or merchandise.
18. The Lincoln County Spring Showcase (LCSS) Committee reserves the final and absolute right to interpret all rules and regulations, arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions, and differences regarding or arising out of or connected with the LCSS, and the right to amend or to add to these rules as it is determined necessary. An exhibitor who violates any of the rules will forfeit all privileges and payouts.

