SPOKANE COUNTY 4-H LARGE ANIMAL COMMITTEE

The Spokane County Livestock Committee Support Application Tips.

Write the committee a letter and tell us how you meet the requirements. Be ready to deliver on the action items. Understand the support policy before you begin. Here are some more tips:

Part 1 For all applications:

Please write us a letter and answer these six questions:

- 1) Are you currently a member of Spokane County 4-H?
- 2) Are you current on YQCA certification?
- 3) What was your 4-H Livestock project over the last year.
- 4) Did you turn in a livestock record book to the Spokane County Livestock Committee for grading within the last year?
- 5) Have you received support for us in the past? If so, how did you use it?
- 6) In what ways have you been involved in leadership (school, family, 4-H)

Part 2: Are you applying for an event or college scholarship?

- For Event Scholarship please also tell us the type of event and what this experience means to you.
- For College Scholarships Have you been involved with Spokane County 4-H livestock for three years? Please also tell us what school you plan to attend and what you think your major will be.

Part 3: Submit
