Washington State University Extension 4-H Youth Development Volunteer Expectations of Behavior

The primary purpose of these Expectations of Behavior is to insure the safety and well-being of all 4-H participants (i.e., members, their parents and families, staff and volunteers).

These expectations will guide volunteer behavior during involvement in the Washington State University Extension 4-H Youth Development Program. Just as it is a privilege for Washington State University to work with individuals who volunteer their time and energies to 4-H, a volunteer's involvement in 4-H is a privilege and a responsibility, not a right.

As a 4-H Volunteers I will:

- Treat others in a courteous, respectful manner and serve as a positive role model for youth.
- Accept supervision and work collaboratively with county 4-H staff while involved in the program.
- Abide by policies and guidelines of WSU Extension state and county 4-H programs.
- Make all reasonable effort to assure that 4-H youth programs are accessible to youth without regard to race, color, gender, national origin, religion, disability, or sexual orientation.
- Uphold an individual's right to dignity, self-development, and self-direction, will not abuse any 4-H participant by physical or verbal means, and will report such abuse, if observed.
