ANNOUNCEMENT OF PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION

CANDIDATE:  So Hee Kim

FOR THE DEGREE:  Doctor of Philosophy in Criminal Justice and Criminology

DEGREE PROGRAM:  Criminal Justice And Criminology

DATE:  11/2/2020

PLACE:  Via Zoom in Pullman, WA; Spokane, WA and Tensed, ID

TIME:  1:00-2:30 pm

The recommendation that So Hee Kim be permitted to take the preliminary examination for the doctoral degree with a major in Criminal Justice and Criminology has been approved.

The Oral Exam will be at 1:00-2:30 pm, 11/2/2020 in Via Zoom in Pullman, WA; Spokane, WA and Tensed, ID. All members of the Doctoral Committee are required to attend and vote. Individual programs determine in their bylaws which faculty can participate in the graduate program and thus are eligible to vote. In all cases, any eligible faculty wishing to vote must be in attendance during all of the examination and must have participated in the assessment of the student’s examination work. At the discretion of the major program (department) chair, members of the WSU faculty from other graduate programs may be present and may ask questions. However, these faculty are not eligible to vote. If it is impossible for any member of the doctoral/ examination committee to attend as scheduled, the Graduate School must be notified, as early as possible, before the examination is conducted, (telephone 335-1218).

PERSONS NOTIFIED:  M. Rebeca Orozco, Acad/Grad Coord 4880
Melanie Neuilly Wolf, Chair, Major Department

Willits, Dale, Graduate School Liaison

DOCTORAL COMMITTEE

Dale Willits, Chair
Craig Hemmens
Faith E Lutze

NOTE:  Melanie Neuilly Wolf, Department Chair, Please remind department faculty of preliminary examination by posting announcement.