ANNOUNCEMENT OF PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION

CANDIDATE: Cheyenne Rose Foster
FOR THE DEGREE: Doctor of Philosophy (CRM J)
DEGREE PROGRAM: Criminal Justice

DATE: 1/7/2021
PLACE: Via Zoom

TIME: 1-3 pm

The recommendation that Cheyenne Rose Foster be permitted to take the preliminary examination for the doctoral degree with a major in Criminal Justice has been approved.

The Oral Exam will be at 1-3 pm, 1/7/2021 in Via Zoom. All members of the Doctoral Committee are required to attend and vote. Individual programs determine in their bylaws which faculty can participate in the graduate program and thus are eligible to vote. In all cases, any eligible faculty wishing to vote must be in attendance during all of the examination and must have participated in the assessment of the student’s examination work. At the discretion of the major program (department) chair, members of the WSU faculty from other graduate programs may be present and may ask questions. However, these faculty are not eligible to vote. If it is impossible for any member of the doctoral/ examination committee to attend as scheduled, the Graduate School must be notified, as early as possible, before the examination is conducted, (telephone 335-1218).
