YOUR 4-H YEAR AGREEMENT

At the beginning of each year, leaders, members, and parents should agree on expectations for member participation in the club.

We suggest the following:

- Attend a certain number of club meetings.
- Attend a certain number of project meetings.
- Serve as a committee member or officer.
- Do a public presentation.
- Keep a record book.
- Learn some new skills and knowledge.
- Have an exhibit. Work on a community service project.
- Do leadership activities.
- Participate in an out-of-club activity such as camp or conference.
- Be creative. (This is the leader's and member's opportunity to think of other things that could contribute to the 4-H experience.)

What are some expectations you would like? List them below.

Write your story for the year in the narrative form. Write as though you are actually talking to the reader. Your story should have four parts. The four parts need to include Introduction of yourself, your project, 4-H club experience including how you were involved in your community and school, and how you have grown through the 4-H experience.
