Cougar Youth Weekend

Greetings from Washington State University and the WSU Dairy Club! The weekend event is designed for youth ages 8-18 (3rd-12th Grade) to learn about care and handling of dairy animals through hands-on activities.

Workshops taught by WSU faculty and volunteers will address key points of your 4-H dairy projects. We will also be providing the opportunity for youth and family to tour one or more of the following facilities: the University of Idaho dairy, the WSU Creamery, and/or the WSU School of Veterinary Medicine.

Visit the website for Event Flyer and Registration.

Shooting Sports Leader Training Offered

Receive certification for two disciplines in a single weekend at the Northwest 4-H Shooting Sports “Double Discipline” Leader Training. Both events will be held the weekend of April 25-26 at the Kootenai County Fairgrounds in Coeur d’Alene, with registrations due by Friday, April 3, 2015. A brief description of each program along with the link to the respective registration packet can be found below:

Women in Ag Conference

WSU Extension is sponsoring a Women in Agriculture Conference on Saturday, February 21 in 28 locations in Washington, Idaho, Oregon, and Alaska.

Through a partnership with CHS Foundation scholarship money is available for both 4-H and FFA students to attend. Do you know any high school students in your 4-H program who are interested in an agriculture-related career? For $5 they can attend this conference and learn about marketing, as well as meet other women producers for a day of inspiration and networking. This is a great opportunity to meet women in a variety of ag-related fields and hear first-hand about their careers and passion for agriculture.

Visit the website at www.womeninag.wsu.edu/ and use the Scholarship link on the left side to find out more information. Questions can also be answered by contacting Margaret Viebrock, mviebrock@wsu.edu. Please publicize this conference for aspiring agriculture students in your counties
