

Welcome 2015!

1/7/2015

We have lots of planning to do for this year!

- 1 Pledges
- 2 Introductions
- 3 Our current funds are approximately $2000.
- 4 Review of previous meeting minutes and discuss old yet current business

- 5 Reducing the vet check time on Monday to 1-4 (4-7 works better)
- 6 Selecting a different judge and looking for a scribe. Nothing has been set as of yet.
- 7 Showworks and striving to keep everyone 100% entered
- 8 Trying to fix floor of stalls to place rubber mats to avoid colic. Shannon is in contact with the fairgrounds on this issue.
- 9 We want to meet in the spring as a group to address any safety concerns for horse areas.
- 10 Shannon is in contact with fairgrounds to have hooks added in wash rack and/or rubber mats.

Larie Taylor has been recommended for the judge

11 Lynette, Jenny and Shannon need to meet this month to place ribbon order.

Planning on meeting on a

24 Are there any volunteers who are not signed up as a leader, but do wish to help?

Need to complete a back ground check and put the child first. Horse Committee as a group.

25 The Gymkana on the weekend before fair, removing rescue race from events in fair book. (Date Concern)

26 From the Livestock committee meeting November Round Robin Coordinator: Looking for someone to Organize, score, get back #'s, talk with the judges, and check with the superintendents on who will show and if they have 2 GC animals what species they are showing so the RGC can be prepared to show. Discussed the 4-H & FFA awards being changed back to Thur night after Round Robin. This would allow Grandparents and family who are there to watch and see the winners.

Double check with Beth Yonko

27 Sue Dilman and the Ghost Gamers would like to hold a hipology Clinic on February 21st.

Hipology kids to judge 4H participants

Each participant to receive an award

4 kids per class/ age division

Fitting/showing, Western Equitation, Bareback, English and possibly halter)

28 The state fair guide list their classes differently then ours. Can we match our fair book.
example - Western Equiation (stock seat)

29 Peewee's can not compete in a 4H event, even. It has to be done with fairgrounds/superintendants approval
