Happy Friday!

Did you enjoy the light show last night? I'm hoping there was no damage or fires from the storm that passed through. Remember to check on your livestock and outdoor pets during thunder storm weather. Thunderstorms can cause great anxiety in animals.

I have to turn in a list of 4-H superintendents, judges and volunteers to the fair office by June 1. Please consider volunteering to help at fair to make it a positive experience for our youth. Without volunteers to help in these areas, youth will receive participation ribbons only. We need you! Anyone can volunteer, such as grandparents, community members, friends...! Please call or email me ASAP to let me know when you can help. Thank you!

Have a great week!

4-H 101 Leader Training in Ritzville Canceled

The 4-H 101 Leader Training tentatively set for Monday, May 21, 2018 in Ritzville has been canceled due to not enough RSVP's to warrant the training at this time. If you are a volunteer leader who has not yet taken the required 4-H 101 Leader Training, you will not be accepted as a 4-H volunteer leader this year.

Free : Young Farmers Movie in the Park this Summer

The Quincy Farmers Market and Quincy Recreation Department are teaming up to bring a documentary movie to Lauzier Park on the east side of Quincy on June 2. This movie "Farmers for America" which is narrated by Mike Rowe from the show Dirty Jobs, tells us about the life of farmers and how farming impacts our world. Quincy Recreation Director, Russ Harrington, is hoping that area youth will benefit from what this documentary shows us. It begins at dusk; approximately 9:00 pm. There is no cost and you can bring lawn chairs or blankets. June 2 is also the opening day of the 2018 Farmers Market which runs from 8:00 am – 1:00 pm.
