Previous meeting minutes:

- They were read by Tayler Hunt. Scott Howe moved to approve minutes as read with a correction of NSF check from schooling show to gymkhana. Sue Dillmon seconded the motion. And motion was passed.

Treasurer's Report:

- There was no new treasurer's report at the time.

Old Business:

- Horse judging clinic is Feb 23rd in the Harwood pavilion/ starts at 10 am. Liz Dickinson is still looking for horses and riders.
- The schooling show dates are
 - June 22nd is performance
 - June 23rd is gaming
 - July 20th is gaming
 - July 21st is performance
- The Fringe motor cycle fund raiser is March 16th-17th and they are still looking for more clubs to volunteer. Need to know if anybody is interested?

New Business:

- Jeanie Kiehn has closed the applications for horse superintendent. Interviews for horse superintendent are February 14th at 1pm at Jeanie's office.
- Horse certificates are due to the extension office by April 1st. Leaders need to make sure to keep a copy. We are going back to individual club binders to make it easier to keep track of the certificates.
- We are looking for a new treasurer. Scott nominated Sue Dillman. Sue Dillman accepted the nomination. We will post the position on the 4-H Facebook page for others to consider the position as treasurer.

- Mason county is having the 4-H camp on June 22nd- 27th. You can register thru 4-H online profile. The camp director is Melissa Seals. Her number is (360)280-5458. Needing to find out is kids can come late if they are going to the schooling show as well.
- The gaming judges for the schooling shows are
 - James Vidrine for June 23rd
 - Chris and Glenna for July 20th
- Sue is needing to get ahold of the performance judges to confirm the dates they want.
- Sue also has a $300 sponsorship chick that is waiting, she just needs a sponsorship letter with the tax id number.
- Dawn is going to ask Shawn from SNR Panels about the 4-H gate.
