

Adult Education Programs

Series classes offer experiential learning with adult participants in food preparation, diet quality and food safety through discussion, cooking, take home assignments and supermarket tours.

Special Focus: Classes are taught in both English and Spanish.