

Youth Education Programs

School enrichment, after school and summer programs help youth develop an appreciation for good food. The six-week series of classes include a presentation and discussion, hands on activity and a food experience.

Special Focus: Emphasis is given to both the Native American and Spanish-speaking cultures. Literacy and reading is emphasized at the primary grade level.

