Subject: horse council items from Ponderosa

Hi Michelle,

Catie is home today with the flu and I am not comfortable leaving her alone in her current condition. So, here are the topics Ponderosa members were interested in bringing to council.

1) Went to the website during Monday's meeting to see upcoming show dates, site isn't current. Any thoughts of when that will be updated?

2) We have ALOT of new, young members who are really only ready to show on the ground (or maybe the leadline class). Is it possible to add In Hand Trail. This would give our kids something they can work towards, it would be social for them, and my guess is they will quickly set their sites of mounted events. Most of my parents are new to this also, and keeping everyone involved is going to mean accommodating their level of comfort. Now can I guarantee they will show up for the show, no. But if not just cancel the class.

3) Two of my members are 7th Day Adventists. Showing on Saturday is pretty much not an option. Are there some Sunday shows this year? I see these two and Mom in it for the long haul.

I do have some club question for you Michelle, but I will call or stop by soon.

Thanks,
Donna
