

Washington State University Extension is offering the ServSafe Manager Certification training for food service managers, teachers, culinary instructors, and other individuals who have responsibility for teaching, learning or implementing food preparation and food safety policies. Food safety training is a commitment and a smart business practice for everyone involved in food service. Listed below are 4 options for taking the course:

Wednesday, October 12 OR Monday, October 17
Monday, November 7 OR Monday, November 14

More opportunities coming in December

Location: Confluence Technology Center - 2856 Technology Center Way - Wenatchee

Time: 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. (includes testing time)

ServSafe is a nationally recognized food safety training and certification program for anyone involved in the food service industry. The training includes the latest updates in food safety. ServSafe is an opportunity to obtain nationally accredited food safety certification from the National Restaurant Association.

The cost is $130 and includes the textbook and test. Each participant needs his/her own textbook. Pre-study is highly recommended. Upon receipt of registration money or a plan for payment, a textbook will be mailed to you. Successful completion of the course includes a ServSafe certificate for 5 years. The class is taught in English but a Spanish language textbook and test are available upon request.

Please fill out the registration form below and mail to WSU Extension with your payment. Registration should be received 10 days prior to the class date to assure a textbook and ample study time. Each class size is limited to 35 people.

If you have questions about the class, contact Margaret at 509.745.8531 or viebrock@wsu.edu.
