

WSU PIERCE COUNTY EXTENSION MASTER GARDENER PROGRAM

2019 PUYALLUP FREE GARDENING TALKS

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC NO REGISTRATION REQUIRED

Saturdays 10:00 - 11:00 am

Demonstration Garden at Puyallup
2607 W. Pioneer, Where Fruitland meets Pioneer

- March 16: Starting with Seeds: Learn the basics of growing your plants from seed.
- March 23: Tomato and Vegetable Seed Selection. How to select seeds that are best for our PNW climate.
- April 6: Container Gardening: So many things you can grow in containers, best practices.
- April 13: Flowering Shrubs: Wonderful flowering shrubs, how to care for them and encourage blooming.
- April 20: Earth Day-Drought Tolerant Landscaping: Best practices for conserving water in your garden.
- April 27: Pollinators: Attract beneficial pollinators to your garden, what plants, what insects.
- May 4: Dahlias: So many different types, learn how to grow and care for dahlias.
- May 11: Clematis: Clematis identification, pruning techniques for best bloom and general care.
- June 8: Vine Pruning: Pruning vines for the best fruit production and health.
- July 20: All Succulents—Indoors and Out: Succulents in the garden, making a wall hanging, and how to care for indoor succulents.
- August 3: All About the Master Gardener Program: Do you want to become a master Gardener?
- August 17: Greenhouse Gardening: Caring for your greenhouse throughout the year.
- September 7: From Garden to Table: We look at when its time to plant and harvest. In addition, recipes are shared for each month ...including some tasting.
- September 14: Fall Gardening To Do List: Learn what you need to do to get your garden ready for fall and winter.

Pierce County

Master Gardener Program

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
EXTENSION

Pierce County
Community Connections

