Pierce County 4-H
Fun Virtual Fair – May 1-31, 2020

- There is no entry fee for exhibiting in the Virtual Fun Fee.
- This is a fun fair with only virtual ribbons given for entries.
- Judging will be based on photo(s) of the project. Some classes will have 1-4 chances to upload a photo. Upload as many photos to give the judge the best views of your project. Close up photos of detail may help the judge seeing details of your project.
- The exhibits for this Fun Virtual Fair should have been produced since March 1, 2020.
- Entries can be submitted May 1 - 31, 2020 and will be judged as they are submitted.
- Results can be viewed at the link that was sent to all members. The link can also be found your family 4HOnline home page with the newsletters. YMCA and military members can get the results link from your organization’s staff. For youth protection we are not publishing this link to the public. Feel free to share this link with family and friends.
- Submitted projects may be shared with the general public. Exhibitor names will not be used for exhibits shared with the public.
- Project enrollment will not be checked in 4-H classes, so feel free to enter as many items as allowed in all classes and lots.
- Feedback may be provided by e-mail.
