Historically, the people involved in Agricultural Fairs have possessed traditional values and honor. At the Pierce County Fair, that tradition continues. However, the Pierce County Fair is open to the public and those entering the fairgrounds may not necessarily possess the same values. Thus, we would like to take a moment to remind you, the fair exhibitor and guest, to take precautions against those who are looking to take advantage of others.

The best way to avoid problems is to provide good customer service, greeting and making eye contact with those in your exhibit area.

- * Be attentive to those approaching/entering your exhibit area.
- * Keep personal items out of sight. Cameras, cell phones and other electronic devices are easily concealed.
- * At night, secure your exhibit as best as possible. Cover items with sheets or tarps. If in a building, please lock, but only use a lock that has been approved by Fair Management.

Other tips...

- * Should you notice any safety issue or concern, don't hesitate to call the Fair office at 253-847-4754. Security will be dispatched to your location.
- * Medical aid is on site during fair hours. Should you need medical aid, dial 9-1-1, and then contact the Fair office at 253-847-4754. Our team will arrive and direct aid to your location.
- * Maintenance can be contacted through the Fair office 253-847-4754.

Pierce County Fair Exhibitor Rules

These fair rules pertain to all exhibitors during the Pierce County Fair as well as any other Pierce County Fair event for which premium points, ribbons and awards are allowed. The Pierce County Fair Rules are in effect during Fair Week, from Saturday August 6th to Sunday August 14th.

This fair is for all enrolled 4-H and FFA members in Pierce County and those showing in Open Class as described in the rules under each Open Class section.

All exhibits are judged by the Danish System. Each entry is judged on its own merit taking into consideration the age of the youth, the degree of difficulty of the project and the number of years in the project. All entries receive a ribbon unless the exhibit is disqualified. Some classes have additional ribbons/placings for outstanding or overall excellence.

Discount admission may be purchased for the Exhibitor, their parent/guardian(s), leaders, and eligible family members after the exhibitor has entered their project(s) in FairEntry online. Registration will open in FairEntry June 1st. Individual Exhibitor tickets may be purchased in person at the Fair office starting Saturday, August 6th at 9am through Thursday, August 11th at 10am. NATIONAL SCRAPIE ERADICATION PROGRAM

The USDA, APHIS National Scrapie Eradication Program went into effect on November 19, 2001. The identification requirements of this program will enable the tracking of scrapie-infected animals to the flock of origin.

Scrapie is a fatal, degenerative disease affecting the central nervous system of sheep and goats. Scrapie is classified as a transmissible spongiform encephalopathy (TSE). Other TSE's include bovine spongiform encephalopathy (BSE; a.k.a., "Mad Cow Disease") and Chronic Wasting Disease in deer and elk.

After November 19, 2001, the following categories of sheep and goats must have identification in order to move in interstate commerce (this includes sales, exhibitions, shows or slaughter) or to move in livestock markets in Washington (Shows/exhibitions are considered interstate commerce if any out of state animals attend).

- All sheep over 18 months of age (ewes, rams, and wethers).
- All sheep and registered goats that are sold for breeding purposes regardless of age (including sheep less than 18 months of age).
- All sexually intact sheep (rams and ewes) and all sexually intact goats (bucks and does) going to a show, demonstration, or exhibition.
- All goats that are sold and used primarily for milk production.
- All scrapie exposed, suspect, high risk, and test positive sheep and goats.

How to speak Fair

Fairs are a very traditional and unique industry. Each Fair may be similar in goals but may vary on how they deliver their message. Also unique is the terminology. We hope this guide will offer some explanation to the world of Fair participation.

County Fair: a fair usually held annually at a set location in a county specially to exhibit local agricultural products and livestock. There are 37 County Fairs in Washington.

4-H: One of the nation's largest youth organizations with the motto "To Make the Best Better". The 4 "H's" stand for Head, Heart, Hands and Health. Members are mentored by volunteer leaders using approved curriculum-based material.

Cloverbud: Enrolled 4-H members ages 5 to 7 as October 1st.

Junior: Enrolled 4-H members ages 8 to 10. as October 1st

Intermediate: Enrolled 4-H members ages 11 to 13 as of October 1st.

Senior: Enrolled 4-H members ages 14 to 18 as of October 1st.

FFA: The National FFA Organization whose motto is: "Learning to Do, Doing to Learn, Earning to Live, Living to Serve" is a Youth leadership organization. FFA stands for "Future Farmers of America". Students are enrolled through school-based programs.

Open Class: Anyone can enter. Often, but not always, divided into adult and youth categories.

Exhibitor: A person who enters displays or items into a Fair.

Vendor: A person or company that rents space at the Fair in order to showcase new and exciting products or services or old family favorites.

Vendors may be professional fair circuit providers or just local businesses expanding your awareness. While you may not be able purchase some products or services at the Fair, many will offer business cards or catalogs for post Fair use.

Superintendent: A person who is charged to organize and manage a project, display area or contest. At most Fairs, including the Pierce County Fair, superintendents are volunteers with years of experience in that project area.

Director: A member of the Fair Board that organizes and operates the Fair. At the Pierce County Fair, Directors are all volunteers from the community.

4-H Educator (Agent): A paid member of the Washington State University Extension that leads the 4-H Youth Development Program for a county.

Danish System: No, not a breakfast item. Each item at the Fair is eligible to receive a ribbon based on the Danish System. The Pierce County Fair uses a Modified Danish System in which exhibitors receiving a blue ribbon award may also receive (as warranted) a Grand Champion, Reserve Champion, Best in Show, Best in Class, Outstanding Exhibit, or other similar awards.

Excellent or Blue: A blue is given to those entries or members who most nearly meet the standards established for the particular class or level of performance. Excellent does not indicate perfection but is a wide grouping indicating a high degree of achievement toward the elements in the standards for the exhibit.

Good or Red: The second or red grouping indicates those exhibits or individuals who rank good in relation to the particular standards or expected achievement of the class or contest. Either the general level of the accomplishment is less than excellent or enough specific shortcomings are found to cause the placing to drop from excellent to good.

Fair or White: The white grouping contains those exhibits or contestants who upon evaluation are found lacking and rate only average, acceptable, or satisfactory rating for the standards established.

Herdsmanship: Term mostly used in 4-H and FFA, the exhibitor has the responsibility to take care of their exhibit and the exhibit area.

Vet Check: All animals for exhibit must pass an on-site veterinary inspection prior to being allowed into a barn or display area. Fair Book: Publication that lists the opportunities to participate in the Fair. Also often called a Premium Book or Exhibitor Guide.

Division: The general category of exhibits. Divisions at the Pierce County Fair include 4-H, FFA and Open Class. Divisions are then subdivided

Department: A subdivision which groups like project areas. Example: In the Open Class Division, there is the Special Contest Department.

Class: A defined area of display or competition. Example: In the Open Class Division, there is the Special Contest Department which has the class for the chocolate contest.

Lot: The lot is a very specific sub-section. Example: In the Open Class Division, there is the Special Contest Department which has the class for the chocolate contest and is divided into lots. One lot would be for cookies and another would be cakes.

Judging Contests: Individuals and teams evaluate classes of animals or project items in a competition. Participants place the class, answer questions and give a set of oral reasons.

Fashion Revue/Creative Consumers of Fashion: Clothing project members model outfits sewn and/or purchased through their Clothing project experience. Outfit must include garment(s), sewn and/or purchased and selected accessories for a Total Look Outfit.

Premiums/Premium Points: Most Fair entries are eligible to receive premium payments based on their award level. Each exhibitor that enters premium classes will receive a payment or "premium" based on their point total.

Points Allowed: Each class or lot will indicate how many points are accumulated according to the judge's award. Grange: The Grange provides opportunities for individuals and families to develop to their highest potential in order to build stronger communities and states, as well as a stronger nation.

Fitting & Showmanship: Term used in animal classes that not only judges the exhibitor's ability to show their project, but the ability to have properly prepared the project for the show.

Still Life Exhibits: These are project or exhibit areas that do not involve an animal. Arts and photography are good examples of still life exhibits.

4-H In Action: 4-H members work within their project's area of curriculum to provide the Fair public with interactive demonstrations. You may see 4-H In Action presentations all over the Fairgrounds at various times.

Public Presentation: 4-H and FFA members provide a presentation based on their project knowledge. Example: A 4-H Dog Project member may provide a presentation on how to groom a dog for show. The presentations are judged by strict criteria. And premium points are awarded.

Round Robin: A contest to promote fellowship, sportsmanship, and cooperation among the different 4-H project areas. Round Robin is divided into Senior and Intermediate Divisions with Grand and Reserve Grand Champions of Fitting & Showmanship competing from each project area. A Trophy/plaque is awarded to the winner in each age division.
