

2020 GPSA Research Exposition Poster Grading Rubric

Criteria category	Description/subcategory
Background and Objectives	Topic is introduced in a manner that is appropriate for non-experts.
	Provide context for work.
	Research questions or objectives are clearly communicated.
Methods/Medium and Results	Methods are logically presented.
	Rationale for each technique.
	Clear relationship between objectives and results.
Impacts	Work is novel or impactful.
	Implications and applications of the work.
	Future avenues of investigation are identified.
Visual Presentation	Figures and images are visually engaging.
	Poster lay-out flows logically.
	Poster's content is error-free.
Communication Skills	Presenter speaks clearly, naturally, and with enthusiasm.
	Makes frequent eye contact.
	Presentation is well-paced and appropriate length.
Questions	Answers questions clearly, thoroughly, and succinctly.
	Understands and addresses audience's questions.
	Can integrate knowledge to answer questions.
Overall Impression	Evaluate overall Poster/Presentation