

2023 GPSA Research Exposition Poster Grading Rubric

Criteria category	Description/subcategory	Points (out of 5)
Background and Objectives	Topic is introduced in a manner that is appropriate for non-experts
	Provide context for work
	Research questions or objectives are clearly communicated
Methods/Medium and Results	Methods are logically presented
	Rationale for each technique
	Clear relationship between objectives and results
Impacts	Work is novel or impactful
	Implications and applications of the work
	Future avenues of investigation are identified
Visual Presentation	Figures and images are visually engaging
	Poster lay-out flows logically
	Poster's content is error-free
Communication Skills	Presenter speaks clearly, naturally, and with enthusiasm
	Makes frequent eye contact
	Presentation is well-paced and appropriate length
Questions	Answers questions clearly, thoroughly, and succinctly
	Understands and addresses audience's questions
	Can integrate knowledge to answer questions.
Overall Impression	Evaluate overall Poster/Presentation

