Such certifications and financial reports include invoices, cost share reports, effort report certifications, property reports, patent certifications, invention certifications, close-out documents, confirmatory instruments, minor award adjustments, audit certifications, termination notices on federal grants, and similar or related certifications.

- The submission and administration of sponsored project proposals and related assurances related to research, extension, public service or instruction, including patent and invention reports, budget revisions and no-cost time extensions subsequent to initial award, fellowship activation notices, gifts and bequests, and various assurances and certifications, including those for export licenses, authorizations and reporting.

The following conditions and limitations apply to this delegation:

- You are not authorized to execute contracts not specified above. By way of example and not limitation, you are not authorized to execute contracts that involve an interest in real property or personal service agreements.

- You may not exercise this contracting authority unless you have attended all training required by the University and the Washington Department of Enterprise Services, including periodic refresher trainings.
• You must follow all University policies and procedures and applicable laws pertinent to the exercise of this contracting authority.

• You must seek assistance from Finance and Administration on agreements that involve the receipt, transmission, back-up, or storage of legally protected data, or that involve the security of data.

• You must seek assistance from Finance and Administration on agreements that involve the obligation, on the part of either party, to hold harmless or indemnify the other party, to be liable for any claim or damages, or to waive any legal claim.

• You are required to seek guidance on any particularly sensitive or difficult matters as appropriate.

• This delegation of authority includes the obligation to manage the contracts in accordance with the terms therein after execution.

• This delegation will remain in effect until the earlier of (a) your transition from the position specified above, or (b) my revocation of this delegated authority.

This delegation of authority is effective immediately. By exercising this authority you acknowledge that you understand the scope, limitations, and conditions of your delegation. I know you will use sound judgment in the execution of these responsibilities.

Sincerely,

Kirk H. Schulz
