Section 1 | To the WSU Community

Return to Table of Contents

KIRK SCHULZ, WSU PRESIDENT

Ensuring the safety of the entire University community—students, faculty, staff, and visitors across our statewide system—is one of our highest institutional priorities.

How do we support this priority? We have made two major commitments: 1) to regularly update and improve our campus safety plans and 2) to engage the entire Cougar family in participating in safety initiatives.

Dedicated safety personnel on each campus have collaborated to create plans for maintaining a secure, supportive community. They foster a culture that treats each individual with dignity and respect. They build upon resources that deliver care and assistance to each individual with whom they interact.

Simultaneously, we place a premium on educating our community members to take responsibility for their own personal safety. Each of us has an important role to play in creating a safe environment. Our choices can impact those around us.

The University is well-prepared to help you make choices that are thoughtful and informed. Our safety resources are among the most comprehensive offered by any college or university in the nation.

I encourage you to review this report. It provides important details about the safety resources available to you. Working together, WSU's campuses will continue to be among the safest and most welcoming in the United States.

Go Cougs!

BILL GARDNER, WSU DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC SAFETY

It is a pleasure to welcome you to Washington State University. Our Public Safety mission is to maintain a secure environment for students, employees, and campus visitors. This brochure, prepared in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Act of 1990, contains helpful information about a number of safety related issues. We hope that as you become familiar with the contents of this publication you'll feel comfortable with the safety resources available to you on campus, that you'll know how to report a crime or suspicious behavior, and that you'll be prepared to respond successfully to an emergency. While following prescribed safety tips and procedures is important, the best safety is a result of your willingness to help another- "Cougs helping Cougs" describes a longstanding tradition at WSU, and we urge you to be a part of it.

Go Cougs!

WSU'S NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

WSU is an equal opportunity employer and committed to providing an environment free from harassment, including sexual violence, and discrimination based on race, color, sex/gender, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, religion, age, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, marital status, genetic information, status as an honorably discharged veteran or member of the military, physical, mental, or sensory disability, including disability requiring the use of a trained service animal, and immigration or citizenship status, except as authorized by federal or state law, regulation, or government contract. Please direct any inquiries regarding WSU's non-discrimination policy or procedures to WSU Compliance and Civil Rights at ccr@wsu.edu (ccr@wsu.edu), via telephone at 509-335-8288, or in person at French Administration Building, Room 225. For more information on WSU's policies, please visit: the WSU Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action Policy \(Executive Policy 12\) or the WSU Policy Prohibiting Discrimination and Harassment \(Executive Policy 15\) \(ccr.wsu.edu/executive-policy15/\).

Section 2 | Support Resources On and Off Campus

Return to Table of Contents

Washington State University students and employees have access to a number of support and reporting options. The below list includes a brief description of the relevant offices and agencies.

WSU Compliance and Civil Rights \(CCR\)

Complaint Investigation, Executive Policy #15, Civil Rights Consultation and Technical Guidance, Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Compliance, Title IX Compliance, Clery Compliance, ADA Compliance, and Education and Training. CCR is WSU's central intake and referral office for reports or formal complaints of discrimination, discriminatory harassment, sexual harassment, and sexual misconduct from students, staff, faculty, and visitors or guests. CCR is a resource for the university community for questions relating to civil rights compliance, requirements, and obligations.

The Center for Community Standards \(CCS\)

The Center for Community Standards contributes to a community which encourages and educates everyone to make positive choices and share messages of our values. Occasionally students make choices that put those values at risk. The community standards process is designed to support those students, uphold their rights and responsibilities, and hold them accountable for behaviors that conflict with our community standards.

Student Affairs Office

The Student Affairs Office is your partners in navigating the WSU experience. This might include working through a complex process, answering questions, or connecting students to a much-needed resource.

Student Care Network

WSU's Student Care Network is dedicated to supporting student success across the system through early intervention.

Human Resource Services (HRS)

Human Resource Services is committed to providing effective, high quality human resource management to the University community. Working collaboratively, Human Resource Services provides expertise and best practices in all areas of human resource management including recruitment and retention, employee relations, training, benefits management, labor relations, disability services, records administration, and employee recognition.

WSU Employee Assistance Program – Employees

WSU EAP provides confidential and private counseling to WSU employees and can provide information about referrals and service provider options in the local community.

WSU Office of the Ombudsman

The primary purpose of the office is to protect the interests, rights, and privileges of students, staff, and faculty at all levels of university operations and programs. The ombudsman is designated by the university to function as an impartial and neutral resource to assist all members of the university community. The ombudsman provides information relating to university policies and procedures and facilitates the resolution of problems and grievances through informal investigation and mediation.

Office of Emergency Management (OEM)

Develops and administers a comprehensive emergency management program to encompass the main WSU campus, as well as regional campuses, research stations and sites throughout the state. This program works in partnership with academic colleges and departments, operating divisions and units, and the staff, faculty and students of WSU in conjunction with federal, state and local jurisdictions to protect lives and safety of students, faculty staff, visitors & animals; safeguard critical infrastructure, facilities, environment, essential records & research; and resume operations as soon as practicable.

POLICE RESOURCES:

WSU Everett has contracted with Everett Community College Safety and Security (EvCC Security) to provide Security on our Everett Campus. EvCC Security can request information from those agencies related to police investigations that impact WSU Everett. Law enforcement agencies may share information with WSU where it is legally permissible to do so.

Section 3 | Preparation of the Annual Security Report

Return to Table of Contents

Washington State University (WSU) prepares this report in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act), as well as the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA) amendments to the Clery Act, using information obtained by the WSU Clery Compliance Committee comprised of representatives from various WSU offices including, but not limited to, the WSU Police Department (WSU PD), Compliance and Civil Rights (CCR), the Center for Community Standards (CCS), and the Office of Emergency Management.

Additionally, information is gathered from Campus Security Authorities, local law enforcement agencies including the Everett Police Department (Everett PD) and the Snohomish County Sheriff's Office, and information provided by other surrounding law enforcement agencies.

The report also includes statistics for the previous three calendar years (2019, 2020, and 2021) concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus, and in certain off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by WSU. In accordance with the Clery Act, the statistics contained in this report are limited to specific crimes occurring within a designated geographic area.

The statistics in this report may vary from statistics maintained within other WSU offices authorized to receive reports of incidents implicating laws and WSU policies, such as the Everett Police Department, EvCC Safety and Security Office, WSU Compliance and Civil Rights, and the Center for Community Standards.

The Clery Act promotes campus safety by providing information to students, parents, employees, and the WSU community about public safety, crime prevention, and response efforts by WSU. It also promotes transparency about crimes that occur on campus and other threats to health and safety. To further those efforts, this report provides information on education, prevention, and awareness efforts by WSU to empower the WSU community to take a more active role in their personal safety and security.

Section 4 | Reporting Crimes and Other Emergencies

Return to Table of Contents

WSU encourages accurate and prompt reporting of all crimes to campus public safety officials and the appropriate police agencies, when the victim of a crime elects to, or is unable to, make such a report. Additionally, there are various ways for students, faculty, staff, and WSU Everett community members to report crimes, incidents, and other emergencies to appropriate WSU officials. Individuals can report crimes and other emergencies to the EvCC Security Department at 425-388-9998 or by dialing 911. This allows the Everett Police Department to take action to address the concern and consider issuing a Timely Warning or Emergency Notification if there is an ongoing threat to the safety of the campus community or an immediate threat occurring on campus. Sections 10-11 of this report include additional information on specific reporting and services available to victims of sexual violence, including sexual assault, intimate partner violence, or stalking.

VOLUNTARY, CONFIDENTIAL REPORTING

WSU provides a number of ways individuals can report crimes, serious incidents, and other emergencies. However, in the event that you or someone you know, decides not to report the incident to the university or law enforcement for investigation they still have the option of filing a voluntary, confidential report. Reporting anonymously allows WSU to include the record of the report in the annual disclosure of crime statistics included in this report.

Reporting anonymously also allows victims to gather information and learn about options available to them, before deciding on an appropriate option. Individuals may contact the relevant local agency (e.g. Everett Police Department at 425-247-8400, or EvCC Security at 425-388-9998) to determine the level of anonymity available prior to reporting a crime. Please note that some limitations may exist depending upon the circumstances of the crime. Reports of sexual assault may be anonymously reported to the Everett Police Department; for more information, visit: police.wsu.edu/sexual-assault-investigations. Additionally, individuals may report discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual misconduct, as defined by the WSU Policy Prohibiting Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, and Sexual Misconduct, Executive Policy 15 (EP 15), anonymously to the WSU Compliance and Civil Rights in person, via phone (509-335-8288), or via the online complaint form (CCR.wsu.edu/file-a-complaint/) for services and options, as well as inclusion in the annual disclosure of crime statistics.

CAMPUS LAW ENFORCEMENT

WSU Everett has contracted with Everett Community College Safety and Security (EvCC Security) to provide Security on our Everett Campus. EvCC Security can request information from those agencies related to police investigations that impact WSU Everett. Law enforcement agencies may share information with WSU where it is legally permissible to do so.

ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY AND JURISDICTION OF SECURITY

PERSONNEL

EvCC security personnel do not have authority to make arrests. The WSU Everett campus property represents the primary jurisdiction of EvCC security personnel. Including the WSU Everett parking lot, parking lot K. EvCC security personnel handles all patrol, investigation, crime prevention education, and related law enforcement duties for the campus community. EvCC security operates 24 hours a day, seven days a week and provides service by vehicle, bicycle, and on foot.

REPORTING TO LAW ENFORCEMENT

For incidents that are currently occurring, recently occurred, or need immediate assistance, please dial 911. For incidents of a non-emergency nature, please dial the Everett PD at 425-257-8400. A dispatcher will collect your information and determine the appropriate police, fire, and/or medical aid required.

Northwest Psychological Consulting, WSU Everett's mental health counselor, Chett Hill, located at 2722 Colby Ave., Suite 720, Everett, WA 98290 - chett.hill@comcast.net | 206-650-5910. For a list of state-wide advocacy groups, visit: wcsap.org/help/csap-by-city).

Reporting a Property Crime

1. Report your loss or damages to the police department as soon as possible - Report to law enforcement by calling 425-257-8400.
2. Don't touch anything until police are able to examine the area.

3. Be prepared to provide serial numbers or identifying marks or characteristics of the items taken.
4. Be alert for more damage or items missing that may come to your attention.
5. Itemize your valuables and write down serial numbers.
6. Mark your items for identification with your driver's license number.
7. If you have unique or valuable items, photograph them and keep the pictures or video with your list of serial numbers.

Reporting an Assault (Physical and/or Sexual)

1. Report the assault to police as soon as possible — dial 911. You may also report to the university and/or seek confidential services through WSU Everett's Counselor, Chett Hill, of Northwest Psychological Counseling. He can be contacted at 206-650-5910, and is located at 2722 Colby Ave. Suite 720, Everett, WA 98290.
2. If you've been injured, seek medical attention. When you call to report, tell the communications center you've been hurt. They will assist you in getting aid.
3. If it is a sexual assault, refrain from showering, washing your hands, or washing your clothes. This will help preserve evidence that may be necessary to prove a criminal offense.

REPORTING TO CAMPUS SECURITY AUTHORITIES

Community members, students, faculty, and staff are strongly encouraged to promptly report all crimes and other emergencies occurring on-campus directly to EvCC Security at 425-388-9998, or by dialing 911. Additionally, in accordance with the Clery Act, WSU has identified several Campus Security Authorities (CSAs) to whom campus community members can provide information for reporting purposes. The Clery Act recognizes certain WSU officials and offices as CSAs, who are an "official of an institution who has significant responsibility for student and campus activities, including, but not limited to, student housing, student discipline, and campus judicial disciplinary proceedings." A pastoral or professional counselor within the institution is not considered a campus security authority when "acting as a pastoral or professional counselor," and is not required to report crimes for inclusion into the annual disclosure of crime statistics.

The CSAs report incidents for the purpose of inclusion in the statistics provided in this report to the EvCC Security office directly or online at ccr.wsu.edu/using the CSA Reporting Form. Although there are many CSAs; WSU Everett officially designates the following key departments and/or titles as locations where individuals should report crimes for the purpose of making timely warning reports and the annual statistical disclosure. For additional information regarding CSAs and additional WSU administrators recognized as CSAs, please visit CCR.wsu.edu/csa.

In addition, consistent with WSU's Policy Prohibiting Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, and Sexual Misconduct, Executive Policy 15 (EP 15), all WSU employees, with limited exceptions, are required to report an incident or situation involving sexual harassment or sexual misconduct to WSU Compliance and Civil Rights or to one of the designated Title IX Coordinators. Similarly, individuals with supervisory responsibilities are required to report incidents or situations involving discrimination to WSU Compliance and Civil Rights. Additional information on reporting requirements, including information on those exempt from reporting under EP 15, can be found at CCR.wsu.edu/reporting-requirements-2/.

General Tips for Staying Safe

Most crime is committed as a result of opportunity. The best prevention is to eliminate opportunities.

1. Lock up electronics and other valuables.
2. Report suspicious persons or activities.
3. Report safety hazards, unsafe lighting, and defective equipment.
4. Avoid walking alone at night. Let people know where you are going.
5. Plan your walk by choosing a safe, well-lighted, and populated route.
6. Be aware of your surroundings. Know where you are and where you are going. Know what to expect.
7. Get to know your roommates and neighbors. Encourage checking on each other often.
8. If consuming alcohol or other substances, do so safely. Pour your own drinks and use the buddy system when going out with friends.
9. Learn non-violent intervention techniques to help your fellow Cougs. Learn more about our Count on Cougs Bystander Prevention Program from Cougar Health Services.

Section 5 | Walking Escort and Transportation Services

Return to Table of Contents

WSU Everett offers a variety of transportation options for students, faculty, staff, and WSU community members. In addition to purchasing a parking permit, individuals may also consider other parking options and resources including, but not limited to, the following:

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

The City of Everett provides public transportation throughout the city. The scheduled times vary. Routes and schedules can be found on their website: everett-transit.org

Community Transit provides public transportation throughout Snohomish County. The scheduled times vary. Their schedule can be found here: communitytransit.org/busservice/schedules

DIAL-A-RIDE: Designed for people whose disability or health condition prevents them from using regular fixed-route bus service. 425-347-5912

dial-a-ride.org

WALKING ESCORT

In the evenings, EvCC Campus Security provides a limited escort program for WSU Everett students walking to or from the parking lot or bus stop. Students are asked to walk with others when possible and to choose paths that are well lit. EvCC Campus Security can also help students who have locked their keys in their car or need to jump start their car battery. Please contact 425-388-9998.

Section 6 | About the Everett Community

College Security Officers

Return to Table of Contents

WSU Everett contracts security through Everett Community College. EvCC security personnel do not have authority to make arrests. The WSU Everett campus property represents the primary jurisdiction of EvCC security personnel. Including the WSU Everett parking lot, parking lot K. EvCC security personnel handles all patrol, investigation, crime prevention education, and related law enforcement duties for the campus community. EvCC security operates 24 hours a day, seven days a week and provides service by vehicle, bicycle, and on foot.

EvCC Security Department maintains a collaborative and close relationship with the City of Everett Police Department, especially when addressing matters that impact the WSU Everett campus and community. EvCC security officers do not have the authority to make arrests.

Section 7 | Timely Warnings

Return to Table of Contents

The Clery Act requires that “institutions must issue a timely warning for any Clery Act crime that occurs within Clery geography that is: (i) reported to campus security authorities; and (ii) is considered by the institution to represent a serious or continuing threat to students and employees.” For the definitions of Clery Act crimes, please see Section 13 (definitions under state law are also included in Section 21 and Section 22). For the definition of Clery geography, please see Section 23.

According to the Clery Act, the timely warning must be issued in a timely manner and will withhold the names and personally identifying information about the victims as defined within Section 40002(a) (20) of the Violence Against Women Act of 1994.

The timely warning will aid in the prevention of similar crimes, which may include incidents where the EvCC Campus Security has identified a pattern of risk. A timely warning with respect to crimes reported to a pastoral or professional counselor is not required by WSU.

A timely warning may be issued for a crime or incident as deemed necessary or appropriate by the EvCC Campus Security. Taking into account the safety of the community, the officer-in-charge, or the above level, will assume the primary responsibility to determine the content, issue a timely warning notification, and initiate the appropriate elements of the notification system. In instances where there is a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health and safety of students or employees occurring on the campus, WSU Everett will follow its emergency notification procedures (see Section 8). EvCC Security along with WSU Everett Administrators makes determinations as to when a timely warning may be issued, which may vary on a case-by-case basis. Some examples of matters requiring timely warnings include, but are not limited to:

- Investigations of a series of car thefts in one particular area
- Unsolved burglaries
- A pattern of drug dealings or activities that puts students at risk

Dissemination of a Timely Warning

EvCC Security uses RAVE as the primary method of distributing notification of a timely warning. Register for Rave, EvCC's free emergency communications and other important information (campus closures, active intruder, fire and etc.) via text message and email here: getrave.com/login/everettcc. Rave does not charge subscribers to send or receive text messages. Standard or other messaging charges may apply depending upon your wireless provider and/or plan. Once registered, you can opt out at any time by texting "STOP" to 67283 or 226787.

WSU Everett uses Informacast to make an emergency broadcast only inside of our building, through the building's telephone system. The broadcast will reach everywhere there is a Cisco phone (classrooms, conference rooms and office space).

Section 8 | Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

Return to Table of Contents

In the event of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health and safety of students or employees occurring on the campus, EvCC Security and WSU Everett officials will determine and employ communication methods appropriate to the situation to notify the affected university community without delay. Confirmation of significant emergencies will require direct investigation by appropriate WSU personnel. For all campus law enforcement issues, EvCC Security will be primarily responsible for confirming a significant emergency or dangerous public safety situation on campus through victim, witness, or officer observations. Taking into account the safety of the community, the officer-in-charge, or the above level, will assume the primary responsibility to determine the content, issue campus emergency notifications, and initiate the appropriate elements of the emergency notification system unless the notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible authorities, compromise efforts assist victims or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency. Additional information about WSU Everett's policies and procedures in place to respond to emergencies can be found here:

everett.wsu.edu/campus-emergency-procedures/ Other non-law enforcement emergencies such as hazardous materials releases, utility failures, computer systems/telecommunications failures, hazardous weather, infectious disease or public hazards, etc., may affect the WSU Everett campus. Whether the emergency is a law enforcement or non-law enforcement issue, those authorized to issue emergency notifications will be responsible for determining the appropriate segment or segments of the campus community to notify. Incident circumstances may require only a floor, building, facility, area, etc. to be notified as compared to the entire campus. Examples of situations that could require immediate emergency notifications could include:

- A dangerous assailant for aggravated assault, robbery, arson, rape, murder (even if a suspect is in custody), etc.
- An occurring or impending natural disaster, or an occurring or impending man-made disaster.

An emergency notification will include information that would enable members of the university community to take actions to protect themselves, including information about the type of incident, location and instructions on what actions to take, and other safety tips.

DISSEMINATION OF AN EMERGENCY NOTIFICATION WSU

Everett uses RAVE to provide warning and notification of emergency situations affecting the campus. These alerts cover emergency situations at EvCC, WSU Everett and public areas adjacent to these neighboring campuses. WSU Everett uses Informacast to make an emergency broadcast only inside of the building, through the building's telephone system. The broadcast will reach everywhere there is a Cisco phone (classrooms, conference rooms and office space).

To address the recent disturbing trends of violence on campuses for K-12 and higher education, the WSU security community has developed a number of prevention and protection measures for mitigating such a threat. This includes the ability of WSU Everett Facilities Administrator to lock any and all WSU Everett building doors remotely through an automated system. Studies compiled by the FBI indicate the importance of active access control in buildings and the ability to lock down the campus entry doors and allow occupants to secure themselves within their surroundings. This function provides safety to the occupants of the building and allows for transit time for police to respond and address the incident. For example, should an active shooter situation occur, individuals would be made aware of the incident through RAVE. Individuals could then assess their response to the situation based on the location and resources available and then choose the best action to ensure their safety. All WSU students, staff and faculty can subscribe for RAVE here: getrave.com/login/everettcc

DRILLS, EXERCISES AND TRAINING

Drills and exercises are used to test and validate plans and training. Normally, the conduct of drills and exercises for emergency management plans and training is done by the EvCC Emergency Management with participation from WSU Everett as well as external stakeholders and observers. EvCC Security holds an emergency communications systems test once a semester. These tests ensure the operation of the system and raise community awareness of the system. These tests may be previously scheduled and announced to the community or may be unannounced. Whenever possible, emergency responders from local agencies participate in these exercises or drills. WSU Everett publishes a summary of its emergency response and evacuation procedures in conjunction with at least one drill or exercise each calendar year. Fire drills are conducted yearly. These drills provide students and employees with a chance to familiarize themselves with evacuation routes and meeting points.

The WSU Fire and Safety Compliance Officer will be responsible for maintaining records of each of these evacuation drills for seven years as required by the Clery Act. The Office of Emergency Management maintains records of all drills and exercises established for campus emergency responders as well as for emergency communications systems tests. The Office of Emergency Management annually publishes information on emergency response and evacuation procedures in conjunction with the test and maintains the records for seven years as required by the Clery Act. The records include, for each test, a description of the exercise, the date, the time, and whether it was announced or unannounced. EvCC Security provides active shooter training, safety consultations, and can share information about online trainings and resources. Individuals interested in additional information should contact EvCC Security at 425-388-9998.

Section 9 | Security of and Access to WSU

Facilities

Return to Table of Contents

Campus Security

WSU Everett, in partnership with EvCC Security strives to cultivate an atmosphere which supports the educational process and promotes academic and personal achievement and community prosperity. Although WSU Everett and EvCC Security takes many steps to educate and maintain safety on campus, each individual within the campus community plays a role and it is important to be aware of surroundings and use reasonable judgement when living, working or visiting campus. Please report suspicious or criminal activities to EvCC Security at 425-388-9998 or 911.

Campus Housing Safety

WSU Everett does not have on-campus housing.

Safety Considerations in the Maintenance of Campus Facilities

WSU Everett devotes time from various campus resources including Facilities Services and Environmental Health and Safety to address the safety and security of the campus. The key distribution for academic buildings is controlled by the Building Manager. The building is opened in the mornings and secured in the evening by EvCC Security. EvCC Security officers patrol inside and outside of the building regularly.

Student Events and Organizations

Groups or individuals may use the university's limited public forum areas for those activities protected by the first amendment to the Constitution of the United States, subject to the requirements set forth in chapter WAC 504-33. University groups or individuals are requested to provide notice of the intended use of the desired WSU Everett Campus limited public forum area to EvCC Security. Non-university groups and individuals must provide notice five business days prior to the intended use of the desired limited public forum area, in accordance with WAC 504-33-025. Registered Student Organizations and enrolled WSU students may contact the WSU Everett Student Affairs office at 425-405-1744 for more information about campus events.

Elevator Telephones

Emergency telephones are located in the elevators. If you are stuck in the elevator, simply push the red button with the telephone receiver. Every telephone call placed by an elevator telephone is responded to as quickly as possible by the Otis elevator company. If you are stuck, remain calm and stay inside the elevator. Only trained elevator personnel are authorized to remove trapped occupants. No one else should attempt to release them or to force elevator doors open. The elevator telephone is for emergencies ONLY; please refrain from using the telephone unless it is an emergency.

Blue Light Phones

Should you need immediate assistance in an emergency, you can look for a blue light. The blue light identifies the location of an emergency telephone. Simply press the emergency telephone button (no dialing is necessary) to be connected to the Everett Police Department 911 Center. Describe your emergency to the dispatcher. Every call placed from a blue light phone is responded to by a police officer. WSU Everett has one Blue Light Phone located directly outside of the South entrance.

Student Care Network

The Student Care Network is an online resource that includes a Student Care Reporting Form that allows individuals to share concerns about a student's emotional or psychological well-being, physical health, or academic performance with university administrators who can help. Anyone can submit a Student Care report including students, faculty, staff, family members, and community members. Information submitted through the AWARE network will be reviewed by the Office of the Dean of Students team for appropriate follow up. WSU Everett also maintains a daily crime log through our security team at EvCC.

Student Care Team

The Student Care Team responds to reports about students who are exhibiting behavior of concern and/or have received a Student Care or other report of a concern for a student. The multi-disciplinary Student Care team intervenes with care and support to protect the safety and well-being of the involved student, as well as the WSU community, by working directly with the student, and /or connecting students with others with appropriate resources and services.

Section 10 | Sex and Gender Violence

Education and Prevention Efforts

Return to Table of Contents

WSU Everett is committed to fostering a safe and secure environment for students, staff, faculty, and visitors, free of all forms of discrimination, which includes sex and gender-based violence, including those crimes defined in Section 13. WSU demonstrates its commitment to these principles by equipping our community with the knowledge, skills, and resources to maintain a safe and welcoming environment for everyone. WSU has adopted policies and procedures to address incidents of sexual violence, which includes sexual assault, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. WSU policies apply to all students, staff, faculty, contracted employees, and visitors. The processes in place allow WSU to address conduct that occurs on and off campus and serves as a separate and distinct process from the criminal process. For additional information, see Section 11 and Section 12 or visit the WSU Compliance and Civil Rights website at CCR.wsu.edu.

WSU has an obligation to address concerns related to sexual violence upon learning of an incident.

All employees of WSU, with limited exceptions, are required to report any information relating to allegations of sexual harassment, including sexual violence, to the WSU Title IX Coordinator. Reports can be made in a variety of ways, including online, in person, by phone, or through staff or employees of WSU. For more information on this requirement, including the limited exceptions, please visit WSU Compliance and Civil Rights (CCR) website at ccr.wsu.edu/, or contact the office by telephone at 509-335-8288.

After CCR becomes aware of a concern, the WSU Title IX Coordinator or a representative from CCR will contact the individual who experienced the conduct to provide information on WSU policy, reporting options, and resources available on campus and within the community. The victim/survivor is not obligated to report the incident to WSU or law enforcement. WSU will not provide the information to law enforcement, unless the victim/survivor would like assistance in doing so or under limited exceptions as required to do so by state or federal law, such as the victim/survivor being a minor.

Any person who experiences sexual violence may report to WSU Everett campus Title IX Coordinator – Dr. Mark Beattie, 425-405-1751 as well as WSU Compliance and Civil Rights at 509-335-8288, French Administration Room 225, Pullman, Washington 99164, by email at CCR@wsu.edu, or online at CCR.wsu.edu/file-a-complaint/.

PREVENTION AND EDUCATION PROGRAMS REGARDING SEXUAL ASSAULT, SEXUAL EXPLOITATION, DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND STALKING:

WSU provides a range of education and prevention programs to strengthen prevention efforts, further develop campus-wide understanding of policy and processes, and enhance accessibility to services for victim/survivors of such violence. WSU regularly provides all students with information about reporting options via email messages, as well as through in-person trainings specifically designed to explain available processes. WSU also produces an array of online and printed materials for students and employees about accessing support services and making complaints regarding sexual violence, including sexual assault, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking.

Bystander Intervention

WSU understands that keeping our community safe requires everyone on campus to be proactive. To that end, all WSU students on the Everett campus receive training on the role bystanders play in reducing risk on campus. Often when bystanders see situations that could lead to violence, our tendency is to walk away. We may feel unsure about our role in the situation or may be concerned for our physical safety. Even so, there are safe and positive options available to intervene in situations that may lead to acts of violence. These options include:

- Being direct. If you see someone doing something that is making another person uncomfortable, speak up.
- Getting someone else involved. If you feel like you can't handle the situation on your own, ask a group of friends to help you, or talk to a supervisor, faculty member, administrative staff, or other person of authority. If the situation is making you feel unsafe, contact the police.
- Creating a distraction. Sometimes the best way to get someone out of a potentially dangerous situation is to divert attention elsewhere.

- If a situation is making you uncomfortable, chances are other people are uncomfortable too. By standing up and being a proactive bystander, you give other people encouragement to do the same.
- Being proactive. There are small and simple actions that Cougs can take every day to create a safe and supportive campus.

RISK REDUCTION

WSU believes that it is not a victim/survivor's decisions that lead to acts of harm or violence. Rather, someone else is making choices to cause harm to another person. Reducing rates of violence on our campus can seem overwhelming, but it becomes a much easier task when we all work together. There are steps everyone can take to promote individual and community safety on campus that are also provided to all incoming students at the Everett campus:

- Plan ahead. Charge your phone before going out and stay in contact with your friends throughout the evening. Ask friends to check in with each other before leaving for the night. If someone doesn't check in, call or text to make sure they're okay.
- Make a back-up plan if things don't go as planned. Bring extra cash if you need to call a cab to get home, or call a trusted friend to walk you home if you feel unsafe walking alone at night.
- Pay attention to your gut instincts. If a situation feels uncomfortable, find someone you trust, or leave. Contact the police if you have concerns for your safety.
- If choosing to drink alcohol, be aware of how your body responds to drinking and plan accordingly. Plan out how many drinks you'll have and stick to that plan. Eat a full meal before going out, or eat snacks throughout the night. Alternate between alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks or beverages.
- Respect everyone's personal boundaries in all situations, including those involving sex. Consent at WSU must be clear, knowing, and voluntary. If you're not certain you've obtained consent, stop and check in with your partner.

EMPLOYEE TRAINING

WSU mandates training for all university employees on the WSU policy prohibiting discrimination and harassment, EXECUTIVE POLICY (Executive Policy #15), which includes information on reporting responsibilities and best practices. In addition, the WSU Compliance and Civil Rights (CCR) regularly provides additional training about sexual violence and trauma-informed response information to local law enforcement, appeals board members, university conduct board members, Administrative Law Judges overseeing full adjudicative hearings, and other staff who work with students. Employees for CCR and the Center for Community Standards receive continuous training throughout the year on topics related to all forms of discrimination, including sexual assault, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking, as well as how to conduct investigations and hearing processes that protect the safety of victims/survivors and promotes accountability.

MANDATORY EDUCATION FOR INCOMING STUDENTS

Every incoming undergraduate student goes through three required education programs on the WSU Everett campus, about bystander intervention, risk reduction, and the definitions and WSU policies in place to respond to sexual assault, sexual exploitation, intimate partner violence and stalking.

- SAFETY ON CAMPUS:
 - This workshop is offered during the Everett Alive! Orientation and includes information about campus policies, resources and reporting options for students. In this workshop, students learn about WSU Everett's safety policies, procedures, emergency protocol and how to handle yourself in an emergency situation.

- BOOZE, SEX, AND REALITY CHECKS:
 - This workshop helps students transition into our university's social experience and culture, and includes education about consent and sexual decision making. Students under the age of 21 as of the first day of the month of the semester in which they are starting are required to complete this program.

- E-CHUG:
 - This online, confidential survey allows students to receive personalized feedback about the impacts of alcohol and other drug use. First year students and incoming transfer students under the age of 21 are required to complete this online survey; however, it is an open access survey, and available to all students. Information on e-CHUG is available at: cougarhealth.wsu.edu/echug. Most students complete these requirements during Alive! Orientation and Week of Welcome. Students cannot register for a second semester without completing these education programs.

Other programs designed to enhance understanding about sexual assault, sexual exploitation, intimate partner violence and stalking are provided throughout the academic year. These interactive programs are open to all students on the WSU Everett campus. Students can sign up for programs at orgsync.com/chapter.

ALLY TRAINING

The Gender Identity/Expression and Sexual Orientation Resource Center \(GIESORC\) is respectful of confidentiality and is knowledgeable about resources for members of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer community. WSU promotes an atmosphere that is safe, inclusive, and affirming for all members of the campus community and does not condone discrimination. Any faculty, staff, student, or community member may participate in Ally training. Starting summer 2021, Ally training will be expanded and offered monthly and on demand for departments and student organizations.

DISCRIMINATION AND SEXUAL HARASSMENT PREVENTION TRAINING

WSU Compliance and Civil Rights (CCR) offers a number of trainings for students, faculty, and staff in person, via video-conferencing software, and via on-demand webinars, including trainings on the WSU Policy Prohibiting Discrimination and Harassment; discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual violence prevention; university investigative processes; grievance and disciplinary processes; available university resources and response; and targeted training on resources and reporting options for victims of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

CULTURAL COMPETENCY TRAINING

The Office of Outreach and Education (OED), formerly the Office of Equity and Diversity, offers a variety of workshops related to equity and inclusion that provide a link between theory and practical application of concepts related to engaging across difference. These workshops help participants build skills through experiential opportunities that are conducive to an inclusive and engaged campus climate and work environment. Faculty, staff, and administrators may register for Equity Education sessions (currently, the Equity 101 Workshop) via HRS Skills or contact the Office of Outreach and Education to schedule additional workshops at 509-335-5078. In addition, student Peer-to-Peer training is available for student groups presented by the WSU Social Justice Peer Educator Project. To learn more about all training and workshops offered through the Office of Outreach and Education, please visit the OED website at diversity.wsu.edu/diversity-education/.

IF YOU OR A FRIEND EXPERIENCES SEXUAL VIOLENCE, INCLUDING SEXUAL ASSAULT, SEXUAL EXPLOITATION, DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, AND STALKING

There are several options in seeking care for an individual impacted by sexual violence, which includes sexual assault, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking. WSU provides access to both confidential and non-confidential resources. Victims/survivors are encouraged to access whichever resource they feel most comfortable with.

A current listing of resources for victims/survivors on the Everett campus can be found here: CCR.wsu.edu/resources-everett. Victims/survivors can choose to seek medical care, even if they are unsure whether they want to make a police report or if they choose not to move forward with a criminal investigation. A healthcare provider can help assess wellbeing and personal safety, provide any necessary medical treatment and refer students to counseling and other resources.

Healthcare providers at Providence Everett Medical Center offer Sexual Assault Forensic Exams to collect physical evidence for use in a law enforcement investigation and possible prosecution. Victims/survivors do not have to speak to the police in order to receive a forensic exam. Healthcare providers will explain the exam process before beginning and can answer any questions about what will happen during the exam. It is important to preserve any evidence that may be necessary to prove a criminal offense.

Preservation includes refraining from showering or bathing and saving articles of clothing worn during the assault. Victims/survivors have the option to be accompanied by a support person, such as a friend or an advocate, during medical appointments.

Within the community, Victim Support Services also provides support to victims/survivors, as well as support for friends and family of victims/survivors. Their services are free and confidential. VSS can be reached on their 24-hour telephone line at 888-288-9221.

IMPORTANCE OF PRESERVING EVIDENCE FOR AN INCIDENT OF SEXUAL ASSAULT, SEXUAL EXPLOITATION, DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, OR STALKING

When an incident of sexual violence occurs, it is important to preserve evidence to aid in a criminal prosecution, university response, and/or in obtaining a protection order. Evidence of physical harm, such as bruising or other visible injuries, should be documented by photographic evidence. Evidence of stalking including communication, such as text messages, voice mail, written notes, social media postings, or any other electronic communication should be saved and not altered in any way. In cases of sexual assault, avoid showering, using a toilet, or changing clothing prior to a medical examination. Any clothing removed should be placed in a bag.

Section 11 | Support and Reporting Options for Survivors of Sexual Violence, including Sexual Assault, Sexual Exploitation, Intimate Partner violence, and Stalking

Return to Table of Contents

WSU has a strong history of providing services and support to victims/survivors of sexual violence, which includes sexual assault, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. WSU regularly provides students and employees written notice about reporting options and existing resource including counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, and student financial aid. WSU has established relationships with confidential advocacy groups in each of the communities where our campuses are located as well as with agencies in other parts of Washington. Within Everett, Victim Support Services provides free and confidential services to victims/survivors of sexual violence. They can be reached on their 24-Hour Hotline at 888-288-9221 or their Snohomish Office number 425-252-6081. The Providence Intervention Center for Assault and Abuse can be reached at 425-252-5774, washington.providence.org/locations-directory/i/intervention-center-for-assault-and-abuse-everett

Additionally, WSU offers access to counseling services on each of our campuses to all WSU students. Sexual assault forensic exams are offered at Providence Medical Center in Everett, Washington. Financial assistance may also be available for medical care after an assault even if the victim/survivor chooses not to undergo a forensic exam. These are all confidential resources. WSU provides support in coordinating services and referrals to partner agencies for all victims/survivors engaged in our process, on each of our campuses. WSU may be able to assist victims/survivors with changes to academic schedules, living arrangements, working arrangements, or take other protective measures to provide support. WSU will assist in obtaining this support when the victim/survivor requests the services and when the services are reasonably available, regardless of whether the victim/survivor chooses to report the incident to WSU or law enforcement for investigation. The Office of the Dean of Students is available to assist in implementing assistance measures to support students impacted by sexual violence.

REPORTING OPTIONS FOR INCIDENTS OF SEXUAL VIOLENCE

There are several reporting options available if a student, employee, or visitor of WSU has experienced an incident of sexual violence, which includes sexual assault, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. In the case of an emergency or ongoing threat, get to a safe location if possible and report the incident by calling 911. If necessary, a victim/survivor should seek medical services as soon as possible for their physical well-being and the purpose of preserving evidence.

WSU encourages victims and other individuals who are aware of sexual violence to report. WSU also believes in providing survivors with autonomy in their reporting choices, as well as multiple reporting options of a confidential and non-confidential nature. Survivors can choose from one or more of the following options:

REPORT TO LAW ENFORCEMENT FOR THE PURPOSES OF:

- Information Only
- Partial Information
- Complete Investigation
- REPORT TO EVCC SECURITY
- REPORT TO THE WSU COMPLIANCE AND CIVIL RIGHTS
- REPORT ANONYMOUSLY
- SEEK CONFIDENTIAL SUPPORT THROUGH NORTHWEST PSYCHOLOGICAL COUNSELING, A LOCAL ADVOCACY AGENCY (E.G VICTIM SUPPORT SERVICES) OR OTHER CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCE.

Even if a survivor does not want to report an experience, survivors are still encouraged to seek support from WSU Compliance and Civil Rights, the Office of the Dean of Students, Northwest Psychological Consulting, WSU Everett's mental health counselor, Chett Hill. A report is not required to request services.

The below sections describe in more detail the various reporting and support options.

CONFIDENTIAL COUNSELING PROTECTED BY LAW

Anyone who has experienced sexual violence may choose to consult with a licensed mental health care provider or health care provider of their choice. By law, such professionals are able to assist victims confidentially and are exempt from legal obligations to report incidents to the university, with some limited exceptions, such as child abuse, elder abuse, or certain threats of harm.

A victim/survivor may decide to disclose the incident to a confidential resource, local law enforcement, and/or may report to Compliance and Civil Rights (CCR) for an investigative response by WSU, or to local law enforcement. A victim/survivor may decline to notify authorities, including CCR and/or law enforcement. CCR can also assist the victim/survivor in notifying law enforcement, if a victim/survivor elects to do so. CCR will not share information regarding reports made to the university with law enforcement, unless required to do so by law or requested to do so by the victim/survivor.

WSU policy prohibits retaliation against anyone who reports or participates in an investigative or disciplinary process by WSU. Please note, WSU employees and student employees may have reporting requirements and be required to provide information to CCR. For more information, please visit CCR.wsu.edu/reporting-requirements-2.

IN MOST INSTANCES, SERVICE PROVIDERS FROM THE FOLLOWING RESOURCES CAN SPEAK WITH VICTIMS/SURVIVORS CONFIDENTIALLY ABOUT THEIR CONCERNS:

REPORTING TO WSU COMPLIANCE AND CIVIL RIGHTS

Incidents of sexual violence, which includes sexual assault, sexual exploitation, intimate partner violence, and stalking, can be reported to WSU Compliance and Civil Rights (CCR), which works closely with Human Resource Services (HRS) for incidents involving employees and the Center for Community Standards (CCS) for incidents involving students. When CCR receives a report of misconduct, CCR will provide the student or employee with written information about their rights, supportive measures, and reporting options (including how to file a Formal Complaint with WSU), as well as information about CCR's Procedural Guidelines and the WSU Policy Prohibiting Discrimination and Harassment. Outreach will also include written information about available counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal services, and other services available on campus and in the community. Additional resources will be identified depending on the student's or employee's particular needs (e.g. an international student may need support from International Programs regarding visa or immigration assistance); a complainant's preferences with regards to supportive measures will be considered. Per CCR's Procedural Guidelines and the WSU Policy Prohibiting Discrimination and Harassment, supportive measures, including academic support services and safety measures such as changes to work/academic schedules, residence hall assignments, or other protective measures, are available, regardless of whether the student or employee chooses to report the crime to campus police or local law enforcement. CCR, the Office of the Dean of Students, Student Affairs, Human Resource Services, campus police, and/or other administrators will help facilitate supportive measures requests.

CCR can document the victim/survivor's concerns, assist the victim/survivor with campus safety options, connect the victim/survivor to local support, medical, and counseling resources, and if the victim/survivor (or the Title IX Coordinator) wishes to file a formal complaint, CCR can start an informal resolution or an investigation.

Informal Resolutions

After receiving a formal complaint, CCR may engage in an informal resolution process. An informal resolution process is not commenced until written notice is provided to both parties disclosing the allegations and the requirements of the informal resolution process, as described in the CCR Procedural Guidelines, and until WSU has received voluntary, written consent to proceed with the informal resolution process from both parties.

WSU does not offer an informal resolution to resolve allegations that an employee sexually harassed a student, as defined by the EP1 5.B Title IX Sexual Harassment section, but may offer it for other circumstances.

Informal resolutions may include, but are not limited to:

1. Conduct management plans or resolution agreements;
2. Verbal or written counseling;
3. Departmental resolutions;
4. Alternative dispute resolutions;
5. Mediation, if available; and/or
6. Additional required training.

Investigations

CCR may conduct an investigation after receiving a formal complaint, which meets the requirements of EP1 5. CCR conducts a neutral and unbiased investigation, with investigators who do not have a conflict of interest or bias towards either party specifically or generally. CCR investigations are conducted pursuant to the Procedural Guidelines and are initiated with a presumption that the respondent is not responsible for the alleged conduct. CCR provides notice of the allegations in writing to both parties. Both parties have the right to present witnesses and evidence. The evidentiary burden is on WSU, not the parties.

During an investigation, WSU does not restrict the ability of either party to discuss the allegations under investigation or to gather and present relevant evidence. Throughout the investigative process, the parties have the right to have an advisor of their choice with them. The parties also have an opportunity to review the evidence collected and provide a written response, prior to the publication of an investigative report.

For more information about the investigative process, see the Procedural Guidelines.

CCR shares information about cases only on a need-to-know basis but cannot guarantee confidentiality. Although CCR does not share reporting information with law enforcement unless required to do so, CCR investigators notify victims/survivors of their option to report to on-campus or local police, to have campus authorities assist them in notifying law enforcement of a sexual violence incident, and decline to notify such authorities.

CCR investigators notify victims/survivors of their option to report of sexual violence can be made to EvCC Security, Everett PD, to have campus authorities assist them in notifying law enforcement of a sexual violence incident, and decline to notify such authorities. A report of sexual violence can be made to the Everett Campus Title IX Coordinator Dr. Mark Beattie by telephone at 425-405-1751, as well as Dr. Jill Creighton at 509-335-5757 or CCR by telephone at 509-335-8288 or by email at CCR@wsu.edu, or by visiting the CCR office located in Room 225 of the French Administration Building on the Pullman campus. Additionally, a report can be filed online at ccr.wsu.edu/file-a-complaint

REPORTING TO LAW ENFORCEMENT

Victims/survivors are encouraged to report to law enforcement. Even if they are not sure if they want to report for criminal investigation, they are encouraged to preserve evidence, which may include seeking a sexual assault forensic exam. Victims/survivors are also encouraged to seek care and support, including advocacy services, medical treatment and/or counseling services. Reporters are urged to preserve any evidence and to also seek medical and counseling services. Law enforcement can assist with filing criminal charges or pursuing a no contact order. To make a report of sexual violence to law enforcement, call 911 for immediate emergency assistance or contact the EvCC Security at 425-388-9998 or the Everett Police Department (Everett PD) 425-257-8400. For information on reporting sexual violence to EvCC Security, visit the following website: everettcc.edu/administration/cwt-security/security/campus-safety-and-security and click on the link to report a crime or incident of concern.

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY AMNESTY STATEMENT

WSU encourages students to report incidents of sexual violence without fear of consequences for having possessed or consumed alcohol and/or drugs at the time of the incident. WSU's primary concern is to ensure the safety of the students involved and gather relevant information, so the University can address the student(s)' concerns. Generally, WSU will refrain from imposing formal discipline for alcohol or drug use and/or possession under the Standards of Conduct for Students for victims and potential witnesses involved in situations of sexual violence in order to facilitate reporting and resolution of sexual violence concerns. This practice will not provide relief from disciplinary action for other alleged violations of the Standards of Conduct (e.g., hazing, theft, drug/alcohol manufacturing or distribution). Moreover, students who distribute alcohol and/or drugs that intentionally, or through negligence, contribute to the sexual violence will not be granted the same consideration. In rare circumstances where the Center for Community Standards has concerns that a student's repeated or severe misuse of alcohol or drugs will result in additional harm if unaddressed, the University may impose care-driven educational sanctions to address those concerns.

PROTECTIVE AND SUPPORT MEASURES

WSU can take individualized and appropriate supportive steps to support and protect the students involved in the matter. Some support measures may be available regardless of whether a victim/survivor wishes to pursue a complaint or notify law enforcement. Supportive measures are non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate and as reasonably available, without fee or charge to a reporting party/complaints or respondent. Supportive measures may be offered before and/or after a formal complaint is filed, or where no formal complaint is filed. WSU provides written notice of these and other available assistance options (such as how to request changes to academic, living, transportation and working situations, and protective measures) to victims/survivors, and, as applicable, to respondents. WSU may deliver a "no-contact" directive that informs parties to refrain from having contact with one another either directly or through third parties. Other supportive measures include but are not limited to, altering academic schedules, WSU dining arrangements, WSU housing, and/or WSU employment arrangements of the parties. When taking such steps, WSU seeks to minimize unnecessary or unreasonable burdens on either party. Violations of such protective measures may lead to disciplinary action. The Office of the Dean of Students and Everett Student Affairs is available to assist in implementing assistance measures to support victims/survivors.

1. Academic

- Request consideration or flexibility to a faculty member regarding assignments, classroom attendance, deadlines, or other academic needs

Section 12 | University Investigative Processes and Procedures for Survivors of Sexual Violence, including Sexual Assault, Sexual Exploitation, Intimate Partner violence, and Stalking

Return to Table of Contents

CONFIDENTIALITY IN UNIVERSITY INVESTIGATIVE PROCESSES

WSU takes confidentiality seriously. During an investigation through WSU Compliance and Civil Rights (CCR), information is shared with others only on a need-to-know basis, which may include investigators, witnesses, the responding party, relevant WSU officials, or as required or permitted by law. Additionally, the investigation file may be subject to requests for public records. WSU redacts identifying or other information when legally permissible. The EvCC Security will not release the names of victims/survivors in its Timely Warning notices, Campus Alerts, Emergency Notifications, or in the Campus Crime Blotter. When a victim/survivor requests confidentiality or requests WSU not proceed with an investigation, WSU respects that request to the extent possible. WSU's legal obligation to provide a safe and nondiscriminatory environment may require that CCR proceed with an investigation, which may require investigators to share limited identifying information about a victim/survivor; however, CCR takes steps to inform a victim/survivor should it become necessary to share information. In all cases, CCR works with the victim/survivor to provide resources and support, including individualized and appropriate interim or safety measures. WSU may also maintain confidentiality for supportive measures, safety measures, or accommodations, or safety measures, to the extent allowable by law and where maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the institution to provide those services. WSU policy prohibits retaliation against anyone who reports or participates in an investigative or disciplinary process by WSU.

A victim/survivor may decline to notify authorities, including CCR and/or law enforcement. Should the victim/survivor report the incident to CCR, the university will not share the victim/survivor's information with law enforcement, unless the victim/survivor requests that it be provided to law enforcement, or unless required to do so by law. Upon written request, CCR provides crime statistic information for purposes of the Annual Security Report to WSU Police Department but protects privacy to the extent possible. WSU may disclose to the alleged victim/survivor of a crime of violence, (as that term is defined in Section 16 of Title 18, United States Code), or a non-forcible sex offense, on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim/survivor for purposes of this paragraph.

EXPLANATION OF WSU INVESTIGATIVE PROCEEDINGS FOR REPORTED INCIDENTS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT, SEXUAL EXPLOITATION, DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, AND STALKING

Upon receiving a report of intimate partner violence, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, or stalking, WSU Compliance and Civil Rights (CCR) typically takes steps to contact the individual who experienced the alleged conduct to provide information regarding resources available at WSU and in the community, including, but not limited to, available counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, student academic/living support, and employee assistance. CCR also provides information regarding the WSU Policy Prohibiting Discrimination and Harassment, Executive Policy #15, CCR Procedural Guidelines, supportive measures and resources, and the process to file a formal complaint for the purpose of requesting an informal resolution or an investigation. CCR also considers supportive measures for all participants involved in a CCR process to protect their safety, prevent further harm, or ensure continued access to educational programs or activities, including, but not limited to, altering the academic, WSU housing, and/or WSU employment arrangements of the parties, imposing no-contact directives, or imposing a trespass or interim suspension. Supportive measures are available regardless of whether or not the victim/survivor chooses to report the crime to campus police or local law enforcement; individualized and appropriate supportive measures are available to all parties in a matter. When taking such steps, WSU seeks to minimize unnecessary or unreasonable burdens on either party. CCR provides information regarding CCR processes, informal resolutions, investigations, and supportive measures to individuals in writing, and provides opportunities for all parties to ask questions about these processes and resources.

Informal Resolution Process

When filing a formal complaint, a complainant may request an informal resolution process. CCR will determine if the matter is appropriate for an informal resolution. Informal resolution processes are not available for allegations of an employee engaging in Title IX sexual harassment of a student as defined in Executive Policy #15. After providing notice of an informal resolution, CCR may proceed with an informal resolution, if appropriate, only after receiving voluntary written consent from both parties. An informal resolution may differ depending on the alleged conduct. Options for informal resolutions are listed in Executive Policy #15. Parties may have an advisor, including an attorney, participate during an informal resolution, but it is not required. CCR may work with the Division of Student Affairs, HRS, the Office of the Provost, or the individual department affected in resolving a matter under the informal resolution process. Informal resolutions may include provisions designed to punish the respondent. Prior to an agreed resolution, either party may withdraw from the informal resolution process at which point CCR will resume an investigation, unless the formal complaint is withdrawn or dismissed for some other reason. Upon entering into an informal resolution agreement, the agreement is binding on the parties and neither party may resume the grievance process. Agreement provisions will be considered with respect to the campus safety, including expulsion, suspension, or termination. CCR will document and maintain records of all informal resolutions.

Investigation Process

CCR investigates matters involving students, employees, and visitors regardless of whether the conduct occurred on or off campus, as appropriate; investigations follow CCR's Procedural Guidelines. CCR provides a prompt, fair, and impartial investigation by officials who receive annual training on discriminatory conduct, including sexual violence, and how to conduct a trauma informed investigation and protect the safety of investigation participants. Where a CCR investigator has a conflict of interest or bias towards an investigation participant, the investigator will be screened from a case, and another investigator will review the matter. Investigations are conducted into allegations implicating Executive Policy #15; violations may be found where a preponderance of the evidence supports that conclusion. Upon initiation of an investigation, a CCR investigator will provide written notice to both parties, and the complainant and the respondent will have opportunities to provide information, responses, evidence, and witnesses. The complainant and the respondent have the right to be accompanied by the advisor of their choice. CCR makes every effort to gather all available relevant evidence and to neutrally and fairly assess the evidence to determine whether or not a violation of university policy exists. Per CCR's Procedural Guidelines, CCR investigations are typically 60 days, with 30 additional days to review evidence and draft an investigative report; extensions are allowed for good cause, with written notice to the parties. After CCR has collected evidence, both parties will be provided with an opportunity to review the evidence and provide an additional written statement for consideration, prior to publication of a written report. When the investigation is complete, CCR will provide a written report to both the complainant and the respondent for review. For matters involving Title IX Sexual Harassment, the written report will include a summary of the investigation; for matters not involving Title IX Sexual Harassment, the written report will include a summary of the investigation and findings of fact under Executive Policy 15. The report will also be provided to the appropriate sanctioning office, which is the Center for Community Standards for students or the relevant supervisor or employee disciplinary committee for employees. For student matters, the Center for Community Standards will provide information to relevant parties regarding the WSU disciplinary processes, including, but not limited to information about conduct officer hearings, conduct board hearings, student rights, and campus and community resources. Where the Center for Community Standards does not initiate the community standards process, the students also have a right to appeal that decision. For employee matters, information about the right to appeal to the President's CCR Appeals Committee is provided to both the complainant and the respondent. Additional rights and responsibilities for the employee sanctioning process can be found in the WSU Faculty Manual, the Administrative Professional Handbook, WAC 357-40 (civil service employees), applicable collective bargaining agreements, or the WSU Standards of Conduct for Students (WAC 504-26). Unless resolved through an Informal Resolution, matters involving Title IX Sexual Harassment, as defined in Executive Policy 15, receive a live hearing for a final determination. The live hearing decision maker will consider relevant evidence, and will only consider witness statements where the witness is subject to cross-examination by an advisor.

Standard of Evidence

WSU determines the facts and whether there is a violation of this policy based on a preponderance of evidence. Preponderance means that the totality of the evidence persuades the fact finder that a fact is more probably true than not true and/or that it is more probable than not that a violation of the policy occurred.

Additional Rights and Process During an Investigation

During an investigation, both students and employees, recognized as Complainants and Respondents are provided the following set of rights:

- Individualized and appropriate supportive or safety measures, determined to be appropriate by CCR, Human Resource Services, the Office of the Dean of Students/Student Affairs, law enforcement, court order (including protection orders), and/or other University administrators
- Confidential and non-confidential resources
- Neutral investigative procedures and a prompt, fair, and impartial process
- Receive information about University policies and procedures, including information that retaliation is prohibited for all investigation participants
- Notification of allegations
- Opportunity to respond to allegations and/or witness statements
- Opportunity to present evidence
- Opportunity to provide relevant witnesses
- Opportunity to present and have considered their preferred resolution path
- Opportunity to have a support person or advisor of their own choosing or retaining legal representation (at personal expenses)
- Opportunity to be informed of the status and the outcome of an investigation
- Opportunity to review investigation materials, including interview notes and documentary evidence

- Opportunity to provide an additional written statement, after reviewing evidence, to be considered by an investigator prior to publication of a final report
- Opportunity to review investigative findings and conclusions in writing, which may be redacted as necessary to protect privacy
- Proof by Preponderance of the Evidence (more likely than not)
- Simultaneous notification of outcomes and of hearing schedule
- Rights to attend hearing(s)
- Right to have out of hearing witness statements subjected to cross-examination by an advisor prior to consideration by the decision-maker, in matters involving Title IX Sexual Harassment, as defined by Executive Policy 15
- Appeal rights

Protective/ Support Measures

WSU can take individualized and appropriate supportive steps to support and protect the students involved in the matter. Some support measures may be available regardless of whether a victim/survivor wishes to pursue a complaint or notify law enforcement. Supportive measures are non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate and as reasonably available, without fee or charge to a reporting party/complaints or respondent. Supportive measures may be offered before and/or after a formal complaint is filed, or where no formal complaint is filed. WSU provides written notice of these and other available assistance options (such as how to request changes to academic, living, transportation and working situations, and protective measures) to victims/survivors, and, as applicable, to respondents. WSU may deliver a “no-contact” directive that informs parties to refrain from having contact with one another either directly or through third parties. Other supportive measures include but are not limited to, altering academic schedules, WSU dining arrangements, WSU housing, and/or WSU employment arrangements of the parties. When taking such steps, WSU seeks to minimize unnecessary or unreasonable burdens on either party. Violations of such protective measures may lead to disciplinary action. The Office of the Dean of Students is available to assist in implementing assistance measures to support victims/survivors.

The following list includes supportive measures that may be available to students or employees. Additional supportive measures may be available, as appropriate.

- Academic

- Request consideration or flexibility to a faculty member regarding assignments, classroom attendance, deadlines, or other academic needs
- Contacting individual faculty members for specific requests
- Independent study
- Additional tutoring
- Withdrawal, withdrawal without penalty, medical withdrawal
- Incompletes on classes
- Transfer assistance
- Classroom management plans
- Remote attendance/recording classes
- Academic schedule changes
- Access Center/reasonable accommodations
- Enrollment in Global Campus

- Referrals to Care Providers

- Local victim advocacy agencies for access to counseling, crisis lines, support groups, shelters, etc.
- Counseling Services – WSU and community referrals, as available.
- Medical Providers, in particular hospitals with Sexual Assault Nurse Examiners (SANEs).
- Referrals to off-campus counselors.
- National/State resources to locate additional advocates/care providers, such as:

1. Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network (RAINN)

2. Washington State Coalition Against Domestic Violence (WSCADV)

3. Washington Coalition of Sexual Assault Programs (WCSAP)

- Services for Employees

- Employee Assistance Program (counseling, financial, legal)
- Workplace management/safety plans
- Work schedule adjustments, as needed, to obtain medical or mental health care, legal assistance, and/or confidential secure shelter.
- Domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking leave (RCW 49.76.010)
- Change reporting lines in consultation with HRS.
- Identify alternate work in consultation with supervisors/HRS.
- Work from home options in consultation with supervisors/HRS.
- Work schedule changes in consultation with supervisors/HRS.
- Work accommodations/reasonable accommodations through HRS Disability Services.

- Safety

- Report to law enforcement
- Police/Security safety assessment of home or campus areas
- Providing information on seeking a Protection Order for:
 - Anti-harassment and stalking
 - Domestic violence
 - Sexual assault
- No-contact directive from the University
- Emergency removal or administrative leave, in consultation with DOS, Center for Community Standards, HRS, and/or CCR.
- Safety planning with a community victim advocate

- Residence hall changes, in consultation with DOS, Housing and Residence Life, and CCR.
- Cadet/police escort, where available
- Cougar Safe Rides (Pullman only)
- Local taxi/bus information
- Local domestic violence shelter information
- Blue phones
- Emergency residence life room on campus (Pullman only)
- Miscellaneous
 - Emergency Funding
 - Support for tuition adjustment petitions (considered in appropriate cases)
 - Campus involvement (student organizations, Women’s Center, Diversity Centers, etc.)
- Legal Resources and Referrals
 - ASWSU Student Legal Services
 - Northwest Justice Project
 - CLEAR Hotline for counties outside King County
 - 211 Legal Referral and Information Hotline (King County)
 - Washington Law Help – self-help resources
 - Local advocacy agencies – legal advocates
 - Moderate Means Program – online application for a referral to an attorney with reduced fees
 - Family Law Matters – limited license legal technician
 - Washington State Bar Attorney Referral
 - Clark County Attorney Referral
 - King County Attorney Referral

- Spokane County Attorney Referral
- Thurston County Attorney Referral
- Snohomish County Attorney Referral

Campus Sanctioning/Disciplinary Procedures: Students

The Center for Community Standards is committed contributing to a community which encourages and educates everyone to make positive choices and share messages of our values. The community standards process is designed to support students, uphold their rights and responsibilities, and hold them accountable for behaviors that conflict with our community standards. Every situation is different, so please contact the Center for Community Standards at 509-335-4532 or online.

After WSU Compliance and Civil Rights (CCR) determines whether the WSU Policy Prohibiting Discrimination and Harassment, Executive Policy #15 (EP 15), is implicated, the Center for Community Standards (CCS) will determine whether or not provisions of the WSU Standards of Conduct for Students (Standards of Conduct) are implicated. The complainant may determine the extent to which they will participate in this process. In limited circumstances, the Title IX Coordinator/CCR Director may determine that it is necessary to proceed with an investigation even where the complainant does not wish to participate, particularly where there is an ongoing safety threat to the campus or local community. In cases where CCR proceeds with an investigation without participation by the complainant, CCR will notify the complainant in advance of issuing notice, and will take great care to address the complainant's concerns, if any.

During an investigation, CCR will interview witnesses and gather any documentary or other evidence, as provided by the individuals involved in the matter. At the conclusion of the investigation, CCR will send an investigative report to CCS and relevant parties. In Title IX Sexual Harassment matters, the investigative report will include a summary of the investigation, but will not constitute the final decision of the university and will not include a final determination regarding responsibility pursuant to federal regulations. For all other matters, the closing document may include findings, conclusions, credibility assessments, which may be relied upon by supervisors or decision makers. In matters involving student conduct, the Center for Community Standards will determine whether disciplinary action under the Standards of Conduct is warranted. If so, the matter may be referred to a one-to-one conduct officer hearing or a University Conduct Board. Both options provide a prompt, fair, and impartial review, pursuant to the guidelines in WAC 504–26, which also establish reasonable timelines for the process, which may be extended for good cause with written notice to the parties. University Conduct Board and University Appeals Board members and conduct officers receive annual training on issues related to dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking, as well as how to provide a hearing process that protects the safety of the parties and promotes accountability. University Conduct Board members, University Appeals Board members, and conduct officers also receive annual training about:

- Cultural competency and implicit bias
- Student development and student conduct philosophies, including the educational component of the student conduct process
- Identifying bias against individuals and against groups;
- Conflict of interest
- Alcohol and drug prevention
- Due process and burden of proof in student conduct matters
- Sanctioning principles and guidelines.

Conduct officers also receive annual training on alternative dispute resolution and restorative justice.

Students in the process have the right to request recusal of a hearing officer and/or board member for demonstrated good cause, including conflict of interest or bias against either party.

In matters that could result in suspension of greater than ten instructional days, revocation of degree, expulsion, or loss of recognition (for student organizations) where disciplinary action is appropriate, and for matters involving Title IX Sexual Harassment, the matter will be referred to a full adjudicatory hearing before the University Conduct Board. The University Conduct Board is presided over by an Administrative Law Judge employed with the Office of Administrative Hearings. All relevant parties are notified of their rights during the hearing, the issues to be determine during the hearing, and any relevant dates, times, and locations; relevant parties also receive timely and equal access to any information that will be used during the disciplinary or sanctioning process. Finally, all relevant parties have the right to be accompanied by an advisor of their choice. For matters involving Title IX Sexual Harassment, the University Conduct Board will consider relevant evidence, and witness statements made outside of the hearing will not be considered unless the witness is subjected to cross-examination by an advisor. When the University Conduct Board concludes their review, relevant parties will be informed of the university's decision at the same time and their right to appeal to the University Appeals Board. The decision becomes final either at the end of the appeals period (21 days) or when the University Appeals Board issues their decision. For more information about the University Conduct Board process, please visit WAC 504-26-403.

In some circumstances, the Center for Community Standards may address the matter through a less formal one-to-one conduct officer hearing. The Conduct Officer will make a decision regarding the responding student's responsibility within ten calendar days of the hearing and will notify all relevant parties of the decision at the same time and inform them about their right to appeal to the University Appeals Board. The decision becomes final either at the end of the appeals period (21 days) or when the University Appeals Board issues their decision. Conduct Officers may issue educational sanctions including those listed in WAC 504-26-425, but not suspension of greater than ten instructional days, expulsion, revocation of degree, or loss of recognition (for student organizations).

Appeals rights are available to students for both matters reviewed by the University Conduct Board or the less formal one-to-one conduct officer hearings. Appeals are reviewed by the University Appeals Board.

In matters where CCR does not find a violation of EP 15, and the Complainant(s) or Respondent(s) object to the findings or outcome reflected in the CCR report, feel there is additional information that should be considered, or feel that student conduct charges are otherwise warranted in the matter, they have the opportunity to provide that information in writing to the Center for Community Standards within ten calendar days of the notification from the Center for Community Standards (please note, this does not apply to matters involving Title IX Sexual Harassment; such matters are always afforded a live hearing, unless resolved through an Informal Resolution process). The Center for Community Standards will consider this information in determining whether to proceed with a conduct process. If the Complainant(s) or Respondent(s) presents information to the Center for Community Standards that is not reflected in the CCR report, the Center for Community Standards may elect to refer the matter back to the CCR to review for a potential revision to CCR report prior to proceeding with the conduct process.

Campus Sanctioning/Disciplinary Procedures: Employees

WSU Compliance and Civil Rights (CCR) will determine whether the Policy Prohibiting Discrimination and Harassment, Executive Policy #15 (EP 15) is implicated. Human Resource Services (HRS) will determine whether any other university policies may be implicated. Internal Audit may also be consulted in some matters. In some situations, WSU may be required to proceed with an investigation regardless of whether the reporting party decides to participate in the investigation or disciplinary process. During an investigation, CCR will interview witnesses and gather any documentary or other evidence, as provided by the individuals involved in the matter. During the investigation, the parties have the right to be accompanied by an advisor of their choice. The parties also have an opportunity to review evidence and submit an additional written statement to be considered by the investigator prior to publication of a final report.

At the conclusion of the investigation, CCR will send a report to HRS, relevant supervisors, and relevant parties. In Title IX Sexual Harassment matters the investigative report will include a summary of the investigation, but will not constitute the final decision of the university and will not include a final determination regarding responsibility. For all other matters, the closing document may include findings, conclusions, credibility assessments, which may be relied upon by supervisors or decision makers.

After CCR issues a final report, the Complainant(s) or Respondent(s) may file for an appeal of the investigation, in writing, with the WSU Office of the President within fifteen (15) calendar days of the date of issuance. The WSU President has a standing CCR Appeals Committee (the Committee), which consists of a committee chair, two regular committee members, and two alternate committee members. Committee members receive appropriate training, as determined by CCR, prior to serving on the committee and at least annually thereafter that is related to the nature of cases that they may review, including discrimination and sexual violence. Committee members are also screened for conflict of interest or bias against the reporting or responding parties.

During the fair and neutral review of an appeal, the chair of the Committee will conduct an initial review of the appeal, determine whether it met the minimum requirements of the appeals process, and if so, the chair will convene the Committee and send notice to the Complainant(s), Respondent(s), and CCR within seven (7) calendar days of receiving the appeal. After reviewing the appeal, the Committee will issue a decision letter to both parties within thirty (30) calendar days, unless good cause for an extension of up to thirty (30) days is necessary. The Committee's decision is final with respect to the CCR investigation, unless the Committee determines that additional investigation by CCR is warranted. If the Committee concludes that additional investigation is warranted, at the conclusion of such additional investigation, no further appeal is available.

After the CCR investigative process and appeals process is completed, employee violations are reviewed by the appropriate supervisor, with the support of Human Resource Services. Supervisors will impose sanctions following the procedures set forth in applicable university policies and handbooks (e.g., the WSU Faculty Manual, the Administrative Professional Handbook, WAC 357-40 (civil service employees), or applicable collective bargaining agreements). For matters involving Title IX Sexual Harassment, the parties are provided with a live hearing, in which a decision maker will consider all relevant evidence. Witness statements made outside of the live hearing can only be considered by the decision maker if the witness submits to cross-examination by an advisor.

Possible Sanctions

WSU vigorously enforces Executive Policy #15 (EP 15), the Policy Prohibiting Discrimination and Harassment. Persons determined to have violated this policy are subject to sanctions imposed using the procedures set forth in applicable university policies and handbooks (e.g., the WSU Faculty Manual, the Administrative Professional Handbook, BPPM 60.50, WAC 357-40 (civil service employees), applicable collective bargaining agreements, or WAC 504-26 containing the WSU Standards of Conduct for Students including any appeal procedures therein). Any imposed sanctions are to be adequately and appropriately severe to prevent future offenses and to protect other students and the University community. The sanctions that are imposed, or other actions taken, must be reported to CCR by the administrator or supervisor who imposed the sanctions.

In a matter involving an employee, possible sanctions may include: (i) verbal counseling; (ii) warning, verbal and/or in writing; (iii) required training; (iv) memorandum of concern; (v) letter of reprimand; (vi) suspension without pay; (vii) demotion; (viii) termination; or (ix) any combination of the previously stated disciplinary sanctions. In addition, inappropriate and unprofessional behavior by WSU personnel that does not rise to the level of a policy violation (e.g., unwelcome sexual comments that are not sufficiently severe or pervasive, and objectively offensive to constitute sexual harassment) may nonetheless be subject to corrective or disciplinary action in some cases.

In a matter involving a student, possible sanctions may include: (i) warning, verbal and/or in writing; (ii) probation; (iii) restitution; (iv) education or training; (v) community services; (vi) loss of student privilege loss of recognition; (viii) hold on transcript and/or registration; (ix) no contact order; (x) trespass from WSU campus; (xi) suspension from residence hall; (xii) removal from residence hall; (xiii) withholding degree; (xiv) revocation of admission and/or degree; (xv) university suspension; (xvi) university expulsion or (xvii) any combination of the previously stated disciplinary sanctions. More information on the student disciplinary process is included in the next section.

STUDENT DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES IN MATTERS INVOLVING DISCRIMINATION AND SEXUAL VIOLENCE

WSU Compliance and Civil Rights (CCR) will determine whether the WSU Policy Prohibiting Discrimination Sexual Harassment, and Sexual Misconduct, Executive Policy #15 (EP 15) is implicated. The Center for Community Standards (CCS) will determine whether or not provisions of the WSU Standards of Conduct for Students (Standards of Conduct) are implicated. The reporting party may determine the extent to which they will participate in this process. In some situations, the University may be required to proceed with an investigation regardless of whether the reporting party decides to participate in the investigation or disciplinary process. During an investigation, CCR will interview witnesses and gather any documentary or other evidence, as provided by the individuals involved in the matter. At the conclusion of the investigation, CCR will send an investigative report to CCS and relevant parties. The report will include a summary of the investigation, findings of fact, and a conclusion as to whether or not EP 15 has been violated. In matters involving student conduct, the Center for Community Standards will determine whether disciplinary action under the Standards of Conduct is warranted. In matters that could result in suspension of greater than ten instructional days, revocation of degree, expulsion, or loss of recognition (for student organizations) and disciplinary action is appropriate, the matter will be referred to a full adjudicatory hearing before the University Conduct Board. The University Conduct Board is presided over by an Administrative Law Judge. All relevant parties are notified of their rights during the hearing, the issues to be determined during the hearing, and any relevant dates, times, and locations. For more information about the University Conduct Board process, please visit apps.leg.wa.gov/WAC.

In some circumstances, the Center for Community Standards may address the matter through a less formal one-to-one conduct officer hearing. The Conduct Officer will make a decision on the matter within ten calendar days of the hearing and will notify all involved parties of the decision and their right to appeal to the University Appeals Board. Conduct Officers may issue educational sanctions including those listed WAC 504-26-425, but not suspension of greater than ten instructional days, expulsion, revocation of degree, or loss of recognition (for student organizations). For additional information on the community standards process, visit communitystandards.wsu.edu or handbook.wsu.edu.

In matters where CCR does not find a violation of EP 15, and the Complainant(s) or Respondent(s) object to the findings or outcome reflected in the CCR memorandum, feel there is additional information that should be considered, or feel that student conduct charges are otherwise warranted in the matter, they have the opportunity to provide that information in writing to the Center for Community Standards within ten calendar days of the notification from the Center for Community Standards. The Center for Community Standards will consider this information in determining whether to proceed with a conduct process. If the Complainant(s) or Respondent(s) presents information to the Center for Community Standards that is not reflected in the CCR memorandum, the Center for Community Standards may elect to refer the matter back to the CCR to review for a potential revision to CCR memorandum prior to proceeding with the conduct process. Additional information on a CCR investigation, procedural guidelines, and the appeal process is available at ccr.wsu.edu. Information on the Standards of Conduct is available at handbook.wsu.edu.

CENTER FOR COMMUNITY STANDARDS

The Center for Community Standards is committed to providing experiences for Cougs which help them succeed. All students are expected to contribute to a safe, healthy and inclusive campus. The Center for Community Standards is here to help guide and correct behaviors which may not align with our community values. The Center for Community Standards challenges students to make better choices with opportunities for educational and personal development, and accountability. Every situation is different, so please contact the Center for Community Standards at 509-335-4532 or visit communitystandards.wsu.edu or handbook.wsu.edu for additional information.

The Committee's decision is final with respect to the CCR investigation, unless the Committee determines that additional investigation by CCR is warranted. If the Committee concludes that additional investigation is warranted, at the conclusion of such additional investigation, no further appeal is available.

Additional information on a CCR investigation, procedural guidelines and the appeal process is available at ccr.wsu.edu.

Section 13 | Definitions of Offenses

Return to Table of Contents

WSU uses the following definitions for the purposes of counting and disclosing criminal offenses, hate crimes, arrests, and disciplinary referral statistics as listed in Section 25.

DEFINITIONS CONTAINED IN THE CLERY ACT

The Clery Act defines sexual assault into four separate categories: rape, fondling, incest and statutory rape.

- Rape: The penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances in which the victim is incapable of giving consent.
- Fondling: The touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental incapacity.
- Incest: Sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.
- Statutory Rape: Sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

The following crimes are defined in the Clery Act, using the definitions from the Summary Reporting System (SRS) User Manual from the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program:

- Arson: Any willful or malicious burning or attempt to burn, with or without intent to defraud, a dwelling house, public building, motor vehicle or aircraft, personal property of another, etc.
- Criminal homicide: Manslaughter by negligence: The killing of another person through gross negligence.
- Criminal homicide: Murder and nonnegligent manslaughter: The willful (nonnegligent) killing of one human being by another.

- Robbery: The taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody, or control of a person or persons by force or threat of force or violence and/or by putting the victim in fear.
- Aggravated assault: An unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm.
- Burglary: The unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or a theft. This includes unlawful entry with intent to commit a larceny or felony; housebreaking; safecracking; and all attempts to commit any of the aforementioned.
- Motor vehicle theft: The theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle.
- Weapons: Carrying, Possessing, Etc.: The violation of laws or ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, possession, concealment, or use of firearms, cutting instruments, explosives, incendiary devices, or other deadly weapons.
- Drug Abuse Violations: The violation of laws prohibiting the production, distribution, and/or use of certain controlled substances and the equipment or devices utilized in their preparation and/or use. The unlawful cultivation, manufacture, distribution, sale, purchase, use, possession, transportation, or importation of any controlled drug or narcotic substance. Arrests for violations of State and local laws, specifically those relating to the unlawful possession, sale, use, growing, manufacturing, and making of narcotic drugs.
- Liquor Law Violations: The violation of State or local laws or ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, possession, or use of alcoholic beverages, not including driving under the influence and drunkenness.

The Clery Act also defines Hate Crimes as any of the above-mentioned offenses, as well as any of the below listed offenses, where the offense was motivated by bias:

- Larceny-Theft (Except for Motor Vehicle Theft): The unlawful taking, carrying, leading, or riding away of property from the possession or constructive possession of another. Attempted larcenies are included. Embezzlement, confidence games, forgery, worthless checks, etc., are excluded.

- Simple Assault: An unlawful physical attack by one person upon another where neither the offender displays a weapon, nor the victim suffers obvious severe or aggravated bodily injury involving apparent broken bones, loss of teeth, possible internal injury, severe laceration, or loss of consciousness.
- Intimidation: To unlawfully place another person in reasonable fear of bodily harm through the use of threatening words and/or other conduct, but without displaying a weapon or subjecting the victim to actual physical attack.
- Destruction/Damage/Vandalism of Property: To willfully or maliciously destroy, damage, deface, or otherwise injure real or personal property without the consent of the owner or the person having custody or control of it.

DEFINITIONS CONTAINED IN THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT

Sexual Assault

The term ‘sexual assault’ means any nonconsensual sexual act proscribed by Federal, tribal, or State law, including when the victim lacks capacity to consent.

Domestic violence (34 U.S.C. 12291(a))

The term “domestic violence” includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction

Dating violence (34 U.S.C. 12291(a))

The term “dating violence” means violence committed by a person

- a) who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and
- b) where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
 - i) The length of the relationship.
 - ii) The type of relationship.

iii) The frequency of interact

Stalking (34 U.S.C. 12291(a))

The term “stalking” means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to—

- a) fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or
- b) suffer substantial emotional distress.

Washington state law definitions of these crimes differ and are incorporated into the Revised Code of Washington.

WSU Policy

WSU prohibits the crimes of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. These crimes are defined in WSU Policy in Executive Policy 15 and in the WSU Standards of Conduct for Students. WSU community members are also subject to Washington State laws prohibiting these crimes. The various definitions are listed in the below sections.

WSU Policy Definitions

- Quid Pro Quo: a school employee conditioning an educational benefit or service upon a person’s participation in unwelcome sexual conduct.
- Sexual Assault: a forcible or nonforcible sex offense under the uniform crime reporting system of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. NOTE: If the following sexual assault definitions are updated in the NIBRS User Manual (available online at FBI UCR Technical Specifications), the updated definitions are applied.
 - Sex Offense: Any sexual act directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent.
 - Rape (except Statutory Rape): The carnal knowledge of a person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

- Sodomy: Oral or anal sexual intercourse with another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
- Sexual assault with an object: To use an object or instrument to unlawfully penetrate, however, slightly, the genital or anal opening of the body of another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
- Fondling: The touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
- Incest: Sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.
- Statutory Rape: Sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.
- Domestic Violence: A felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed:
 - By a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim.
 - By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common
 - By a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner.
 - By a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.
 - By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

- Dating violence: violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship is to be determined based on length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.
 - The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the reporting party's statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.
 - For the purposes of this definition, dating violence includes but is not limited to sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse and does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.
- Stalking: Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to:
 - Fear for the person's safety or the safety of others; or
 - Suffer substantial emotional distress.
 - For the purpose of this definition:
 - Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person's property.
 - Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.
 - Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

- WSU prohibits additional forms of sexual harassment listed in the numbered sections below. These definitions apply to all students, faculty, staff, and others having an association with the University if the incident meets any one of the following conditions:
 - Occurs on WSU owned or controlled property;
 - Occurs in connection with WSU activities, programs, or events;
 - Has the effect of, or the potential to, unreasonably interfere with or limit an individual's work, academic performance, living environment, personal security, or participation in any activity at WSU;
 - Includes unlawful acts that directly affect WSU programs, community members, or property insofar as such acts materially and substantially interfere with the missions, functions, processes, and goals of the WSU community; or
 - Includes unlawful acts that result in a guilty plea to or conviction of a felony.
- Title VII Sexual Harassment. Amongst employees, harassment on the basis of sex is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when any of the following conditions is met:
 - Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment;
 - Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decision affecting such individual, or
 - Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.
- Other Sexual Harassment is defined as:

- Unwelcome, intentional conduct, on the basis of sex and/or gender, which is so severe or pervasive, and objectively offensive, that it substantially and unreasonably:
 - Interferes with, or has the potential to interfere with, an individual's ability to participate in WSU employment, education, programs, or activities;
 - Adversely alters the condition of an individual's WSU employment, education, or participation status;
 - Creates an objectively abusive employment, program, or educational environment; or
 - Results in a material or substantial disruption of WSU's operations or the rights of students, staff, faculty, visitors, or program participants.
- Sex and/or gender-based violence. Sex and/or gender-based violence is an egregious form of sexual harassment and is defined as sexual assault, stalking, dating violence and domestic violence as defined in the Title IX Sexual Harassment Definitions, and sexual exploitation as defined below.
- Sexual Exploitation occurs when a person takes nonconsensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for their own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the one being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of the other sexual misconduct offenses explained above. Examples of sexual exploitation may include, but are not limited to:
 - Causing or attempting to cause the incapacitation of another person to gain sexual advantage over such other person;
 - Invading another person's sexual privacy;
 - Prostituting another person;

- Engaging in voyeurism. A person commits voyeurism if, for the purpose of arousing or gratifying the sexual desire of any person, he or she knowingly views, photographs, records, or films another person, without that person's knowledge and consent, while the person being viewed, photographed, recorded, or filmed is in a place where he or she has a reasonable expectation of privacy;
- Knowingly or recklessly exposing another person to a significant risk of sexually transmitted disease or infection;
- Exposing one's intimate parts in nonconsensual circumstances;
- Sexually-based stalking and/or bullying.
- Retaliation. Intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privileged secured by this policy, or because the individual has made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this policy. First amendment activities do not constitute retaliation.
- Interference includes actions that intentionally:
 - Dissuade or attempt to dissuade reporting parties, responding parties, or witnesses from reporting or participating in an investigation;
 - Attempt to influence a complainant, respondent, or witness to make an inaccurate statement in the investigation;
 - Delay or disrupt, or attempt to delay or disrupt, any University processes related to this policy; and/or
 - Alter or attempt to alter the evidence provided to or received by investigative or disciplinary processes.
- False Statements. Making a materially false statement in bad faith during any proceeding or process under this policy. No complaint is considered false solely because it cannot be corroborated.

Washington state law definitions of these crimes differ and are incorporated into the Revised Code of Washington available online at apps.leg.wa.gov/rcw.

WSU POLICY PROHIBITING DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT, EXECUTIVE POLICY #15 (EP 15)

Executive Policy #15 (EP 15), the WSU Policy Prohibiting Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, prohibits sexual harassment including sexual misconduct and other forms of sex and gender based violence as defined below. WSU will address student allegations of sex and gender based violence regardless of where the conduct occurred.

WSU is subject to multiple federal and state laws and regulations regarding sexual harassment and sex and gender-based violence, each with differing requirements. WSU Executive Policy 15 prohibits sexual harassment as defined under Title IX Sexual Harassment, pursuant to Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972. WSU Executive Policy 15 also prohibits conduct that does not meet the Title IX definition of sexual harassment yet is contrary to WSU's mission and values, including conduct occurring in the workplace implicating Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 or the Washington Law Against Discrimination. Such conduct is defined under Other Sexual Harassment Violations.

Title IX Sexual Harassment Definitions

For the purposes of Title IX sexual harassment, sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the university's education program or activity. The Title IX Sexual Harassment section of Executive Policy #15 applies to all students, faculty, staff, and others having an association with the University where the alleged incidents: May constitute Title IX Sexual Harassment; Occurs within WSU's educational program or activity, which includes, locations, events, or circumstances over which WSU exercises substantial control over both the respondent and the context in which the sexual harassment occurs, and any building owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized; Occurs against a person in the United states; and Occurs against a person who is participating in or attempting to participate in WSU's educational program or activity. This includes, but is not limited to:

1. Quid Pro Quo – a school employee conditioning an educational benefit or service upon a person's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct.
2. Sexual Assault – a forcible or nonforcible sex offense under the uniform crime reporting system of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. NOTE: If the following sexual assault definitions are updated in the NIBRS User Manual (available online at FBI UCR Technical Specifications), the updated definitions are applied.
 - Sex Offense: Any sexual act directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent.
 - Rape (except Statutory Rape): The carnal knowledge of a person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
 - Sodomy: Oral or anal sexual intercourse with another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
 - Sexual assault with an object: To use an object or instrument to unlawfully penetrate, however, slightly, the genital or anal opening of the body of another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
 - Fondling: The touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
 - Incest: Sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.

- Statutory Rape: Sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.
3. Dating Violence – violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship is to be determined based on length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.
4. Domestic Violence – a felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed:
- By a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;
 - By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common;
 - By a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
 - By a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of Washington, or
 - By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s act under the domestic or family violence laws of Washington.
5. Stalking – engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to:
- Fear for the person’s safety or the safety of others; or
 - Suffer substantial emotional distress.
 - For the purposes of this definition:
 - Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person’s property.
 - Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.

- Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

Other Sexual Harassment Definitions

1. WSU prohibits additional forms of sexual harassment listed in the numbered sections below. These definitions apply to all students, faculty, staff, and others having an association with the University if the incident meets any one of the following conditions:
 - Occurs on WSU owned or controlled property;
 - Occurs in connection with WSU activities, programs, or events;
 - Has the effect of, or the potential to, unreasonably interfere with or limit an individual's work, academic performance, living environment, personal security, or participation in any activity at WSU;
 - Includes unlawful acts that directly affect WSU programs, community members, or property insofar as such acts materially and substantially interfere with the missions, functions, processes, and goals of the WSU community; or
 - Includes unlawful acts that result in a guilty plea to or conviction of a felony.
2. Title VII Sexual Harassment. Amongst employees, harassment on the basis of sex is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when any of the following conditions is met:
 - Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment;
 - Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decision affecting such individual, or
 - Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

3. Other Sexual Harassment is defined as:

- Unwelcome, intentional conduct, on the basis of sex and/or gender, which is so severe or pervasive, and objectively offensive, that it substantially and unreasonably:
 - Interferes with, or has the potential to interfere with, an individual's ability to participate in WSU employment, education, programs, or activities;
 - Adversely alters the condition of an individual's WSU employment, education, or participation status;
 - Creates an objectively abusive employment, program, or educational environment; or
 - Results in a material or substantial disruption of WSU's operations or the rights of students, staff, faculty, visitors, or program participants.
- Sex and/or gender-based violence. Sex and/or gender-based violence is an egregious form of sexual harassment and is defined as sexual assault, stalking, dating violence and domestic violence as defined in the Title IX Sexual Harassment Definitions, and sexual exploitation as defined below.

4. Sexual Exploitation occurs when a person takes nonconsensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for their own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the one being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of the other sexual misconduct offenses explained above. Examples of sexual exploitation may include, but are not limited to:

- Causing or attempting to cause the incapacitation of another person to gain sexual advantage over such other person;
- Invading another person's sexual privacy;
- Prostituting another person;
- Engaging in voyeurism. A person commits voyeurism if, for the purpose of arousing or gratifying the sexual desire of any person, he or she knowingly views, photographs, records, or films another person, without that person's knowledge and consent, while the person being viewed, photographed, recorded, or filmed is in a place where he or she has a reasonable expectation of privacy;

- Knowingly or recklessly exposing another person to a significant risk of sexually transmitted disease or infection;
- Exposing one's intimate parts in nonconsensual circumstances;
- Sexually-based stalking and/or bullying.

5. Retaliation. Intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privileged secured by this policy, or because the individual has made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this policy. First amendment activities do not constitute retaliation.

6. Interference includes actions that intentionally:

- Dissuade or attempt to dissuade reporting parties, responding parties, or witnesses from reporting or participating in an investigation;
- Attempt to influence a complainant, respondent, or witness to make an inaccurate statement in the investigation;
- Delay or disrupt, or attempt to delay or disrupt, any University processes related to this policy; and/or
- Alter or attempt to alter the evidence provided to or received by investigative or disciplinary processes.

7. False Statements. Making a materially false statement in bad faith during any proceeding or process under this policy. No complaint is considered false solely because it cannot be corroborated.

Consent

Consent to any sexual activity must be clear, knowing, and voluntary. Anything less is equivalent to a "no." Clear, knowing, and voluntary consent to sexual activity requires that, at the time of the act, and throughout the sexual contact, all parties actively express words or conduct that a reasonable person would conclude demonstrates clear permission regarding willingness to engage in sexual activity and the conditions of such activity. Consent is active; silence or passivity is not consent. Even if words or conduct alone seem to imply consent, sexual activity is nonconsensual when:

1. Force or coercion is threatened or used to procure compliance with the sexual activity.
 - Force is the use of physical violence, physical force, threat, or intimidation to overcome resistance or gain consent to sexual activity.
 - Coercion is unreasonable pressure for sexual activity. When an individual makes it clear through words or actions that the individual does not want to engage in sexual contact, wants to stop, or does not want to go past a certain point of sexual interaction, continued pressure beyond that point may be coercive. Other examples of coercion may include using blackmail or extortion to overcome resistance or gain consent to sexual activity.
2. The person is asleep, unconscious, or physically unable to communicate his or her unwillingness to engage in sexual activity; or
 - A reasonable person would or should know that the other person lacks the mental capacity at the time of the sexual activity to be able to understand the nature or consequences of the act, whether that incapacity is produced by illness, defect, the influence of alcohol or another substance, or some other cause. When alcohol or drugs are involved, a person is considered incapacitated or unable to give valid consent if the individual cannot fully understand the details of the sexual interaction (i.e., who, what, when, where, why, and how), and/or the individual lacks the capacity to reasonably understand the situation and to make rational, reasonable decisions

Protection Orders and No-Contact Orders

Victims/survivors have the right to seek legal protections such as orders of protection, no contact orders, restraining orders, or other lawful orders of criminal, civil, or tribal courts. WSU will comply with the lawful orders issued by such a court and will make modifications to educational and/or workplace environments to comply with the terms of such lawful orders. WSU may also implement a no contact order on any party as an interim measure, or as a sanction after a determination of responsibility, consistent with the WSU Code of Conduct for Students WAC-504-26-050, WSU BPPM 50.30 –

Workplace Violence, and WA Governor's Executive Order 96-05 - Domestic Violence in the workplace.

SEX OFFENDER REGISTRATION – CAMPUS SEX CRIMES PREVENTION ACT

The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act of 2000 requires colleges and universities to inform students and employees how to learn the identity of registered sex offenders on campus. This law also requires that sex offenders provide notice to any institution of higher education at which the person is employed or is a student. You can obtain information regarding registered sexual offenders by contacting the Snohomish County Sheriff's Office – Records Department at 425-388-5004.

WASHINGTON CRIME VICTIM'S COMPENSATION ACT

The Washington State Crime Victim's Compensation Program provides financial compensation to crime victims for expenses including medical bills and loss of financial support. Washington state law (RCW 7.68.170) requires the Crime Victims Compensation Program to pay the costs of sexual assault examinations when they are performed to gather evidence for possible prosecution. The victim is not required to pay for the exam, use their own insurance, file a police report, or crime victim's application to have the exam covered.

WASHINGTON ADMINISTRATIVE CODE: STANDARDS OF CONDUCT FOR STUDENTS

All students are expected to follow the behavior expectations for our community as outlined in WAC 504-26. If a potential violation of the community expectations is reported, the Center for Community Standards (CCS) is responsible for investigating the alleged violation except in matters where the reported conduct implicated Executive Policy #15 in which case WSU Compliance and Civil Rights (CCR) is responsible for investigating the alleged violation prior to referring the matter to CCS. At the conclusion of an investigation, the appropriate office, either CCR or CCS, will make a finding of responsibility, and assign restorative and educational sanctions as appropriate.

WEAPONS POLICY

The WSU Standards of Conduct for Students, WAC 504-26-213, prohibits students from carrying, possessing or using any firearm, explosive (including fireworks), dangerous chemicals, or any dangerous weapon on university property or in university approved housing. Additionally, airsoft guns and any other item that appears to be a firearm, or any item that shoots projectiles are prohibited in WSU housing. Information on the student housing contracts may be found here.

MISSING STUDENT NOTIFICATION POLICY AND PROCEDURES

WSU takes the well-being of students seriously and the university has processes in place when a student is missing. If anyone has reason to believe that a WSU student is missing, they should immediately call 911 and report the concern. Callers outside the Everett area should call EvCC Security at 425-388-9998, or the Everett Police at 425-257-8400, or the Snohomish County Sheriff at 425-388-3393.

The contact person(s) will be contacted by the university not later than 24 hours after the time that the student is determined missing by EvCC Security. Students are encouraged to provide contact information on their MyWSU account at incoming mandatory orientation. Students can update the contact(s) by accessing their MyWSU account. The information provided will only be accessible to authorized campus offices and to law enforcement in in case of emergency, which may include a missing person investigation.

EvCC Security makes the determination as to whether the student is considered to be missing. Consistent with the Clery Act, within 24 hours of a determination that a student is missing, EvCC Security will transmit a report for inclusion within the Washington Crime Information Center (WACIC) and the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) databases. The information is also relayed to other local and surrounding law enforcement agencies. Additionally, if the missing student is under the age of 18 and not emancipated, WSU will notify the student's parent or legal guardian and any other contact person(s) designated by the student within 24 hours after EvCC Security has determined the student is missing.

For campuses that provide on-campus housing: all students residing in on-campus housing, regardless of age, may identify one or more individuals to be a contact strictly for missing person's purposes.

Sexual or Violent Offenders List

The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act of 2000 requires colleges and universities to inform students and employees how to learn the identity of registered sex offenders on campus. This law also requires that sex offenders provide notice to any institution of higher education at which the person is employed or is a student. You can obtain information regarding registered sexual offenders by contacting the Snohomish County Sheriff's Office – Records Department at 425-388-5004.

Section 15 | Drug and Alcohol Policies

Return to Table of Contents

WSU POLICIES GOVERNING ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUGS WSU

Executive Policy #20 aims to eliminate alcohol and drug abuse and to educate the University community on relevant laws and consequences. This policy provides consistency and clarity on the permitted use and enforcement of alcohol laws and statutes on all WSU properties statewide. WSU's policy prohibits the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs or alcohol on University-controlled property.

Executive Policy #20 can be found at public.wsu.edu/~forms/EP20_Alcohol_and_Drug_Policy.

Additionally, Washington state law, RCW Chapter 70.160, prohibits smoking in any WSU owned, leased, rented public place or place of employment. The WSU Pullman, WSU Everett, WSU Spokane, WSU Tri-Cities, and WSU Vancouver campuses each restrict tobacco and nicotine use on campus, with the exception to tobacco cessation programs or approved research.

Refer to Safety Policies and Procedures Manual (SPPM) 6.10 and resources at hrs.wsu.edu/tobacco-nicotine-free.

Employees who violate Executive Policy #20 or SPPM 6.10 may be subject to corrective or disciplinary actions.

POLICIES SPECIFIC TO WSU EMPLOYEES

WSU complies with the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988. This program provides educational and training programs and prohibits the use of controlled substances in the workplace. In addition, WSU has developed programs to prevent the unlawful possession, use, and/or distribution of illegal drugs and alcohol by employees and students. Any employee who violates the WSU Alcohol and Drug Policy, Executive Policy #20, may be subject to corrective action by the university, in addition to any penalties resulting from violating local, state and/or federal law. Sanctions for illegal use of drugs and/or alcohol in the workplace may include, but are not limited to, recommendations for completion of an appropriate rehabilitation program, written or verbal warning, censure, dismissal, and, in emergency situations, immediate suspension. Additional information on the policy can be found at public.wsu.edu/~forms/EP20_Alcohol_and_Drug_Policy Additionally, Washington state law (RCW Chapter 70.160) prohibits smoking in any University owned, leased, or rented public place or place of employment.

POLICIES SPECIFIC TO WSU STUDENTS

The local police enforce all Washington state laws pertaining to drugs and alcohol, and students may also be subject to sanctions through the Center for Community Standards (CCS). CCS will follow procedures outlined in the Standards of Conduct for Students (Standards of Conduct), WAC 504-26, if an alleged violation is reported.

UNIVERSITY'S EXPECTATION FOR USE OF ALCOHOL

The legal age for individuals to consume alcohol in the state of Washington is 21. Those not of legal age who consume alcohol will be in violation of the Standards of Conduct and WSU's Alcohol and Drug Policy. Students of legal age who choose to drink alcoholic beverages are expected to do so responsibly.

Students may not:

- Distribute and/or sell alcohol to anyone under the age of 21.
- Drink or possess alcohol if under the age of 21.
- Drink or possess alcohol regardless of age if alcohol is prohibited at the location. Possess, use, manufacture, distribute and/or sell drugs (marijuana, narcotics, or other controlled substance) and drug paraphernalia (pipes, bongs, scales, cigarette papers, etc.).
- Drink alcohol at a sponsored event on any University property without an alcohol license or banquet permit.
- Overconsume alcohol or be intoxicated in public.

If students are under the age of 21 or are in a location that prohibits all alcohol or drugs (including residence hall rooms, shared areas in residence halls, fraternity and sorority chapter-owned facilities that are alcohol-free), leave the area immediately. Any person who is in the room while alcohol and/or drugs are present may be in violation of the Standards of Conduct and/or the law. Even if you just walked in the room, the alcohol and/or drugs isn't yours, you did not drink any alcohol or use any drugs and/or you are completely sober, you may still be responsible for violating University Policy. Students must comply with “no alcohol” policies if established for floors within residence halls, living groups, and/or designated residence halls.

Students are accountable to the Standards of Conduct from the time of application for admission through the actual awarding of a degree. The Standards of Conduct apply to on campus and online behavior and some o-campus behavior. For more information about jurisdiction, please visit apps.leg.wa.gov/WAC For additional information regarding WSU’s alcohol and drug policy, please visit communitystandards.wsu.edu.

MEDICAL AND RECREATIONAL CANNABIS

In accordance with the federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989, WSU strictly prohibits the use, possession, manufacture, or distribution and/or sale of cannabis and other controlled substances anywhere on campus it is a violation of the Standards of Conduct, as well as University Housing Policy, for students to use, possess, manufacture, distribute and/or sell cannabis while on University property, even if the student is over the age of 21 and/or procured the cannabis through legal means.

Additionally, WSU prohibits the use of medical cannabis on campus, including all residence halls and WSU apartments. Cannabis obtained for medicinal purposes cannot be stored or used in the residence halls or WSU apartments. The use and/or storage of all drug paraphernalia is also prohibited in the residence halls and WSU apartments. All questions regarding the reasonable accommodation of medical conditions, including conditions treated with medical cannabis, should be directed to the WSU Access Center by calling 509-335-3417.

Drug and Alcohol Education Programs

Cougar Health Services including Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS), Health Promotion, and the Medical Clinic Services

Cougar Health Services (CHS) offers a range of online and in-person services related to substance use including 1:1 counseling, assessment, therapy groups, workshops and outreach programs, online confidential and personalized feedback, text messaging, and consultation to WSU students. These services support personal efforts to maintain health and the reduction of health harms—including substance use/disorder—so students can achieve academic, career, and personal success. The foundation of CHS programs is built on best practice recommended for substance abuse in a university setting in the College Alcohol Intervention Matrix (College AIM, 2015).

Additionally, CHS substance abuse programs are in compliance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act (DFSCA). DFSCA report available upon request. Select programs and targeted services are described below.

Harm Reduction Outreach

Booze, Sex, and Reality Checks (BSRC): BSRC is a program available for incoming first year and transfer students to address transition from home to campus life and focuses on academic success, substance use, sexual decision making, and consent.

E-CHUG: e-CHUG is an online and confidential survey that allows students to receive personalized feedback about the impacts of alcohol and other drug use. It is an open access survey available to all students.

IMPACT

IMPACT is an education service provided to students, who are referred by the Center for Community Standards (CCS) for substance use violations. The purpose of this intervention is to administer a substance abuse education program that is focused on harm reduction strategies, motivational interviewing, and brief intervention. The IMPACT classes and 1:1 sessions have been developed to provide an empirically-based intervention to meet the specific needs of students who exhibit high risk substance use behaviors. The IMPACT program is unique in that it is not a 'one size fits all' intervention; rather, IMPACT is structured to route students, via confidential assessment with personalized feedback, to the intervention that best meets their needs in terms of behavior change, psycho-education, and clinical concerns.

Students receive direction for their routed participation (group or 1:1 sessions and assessment type) in multiple ways: from the Center for Community Standards (CCS), in the IMPACT workshop, and the Health Promotions website. A detailed procedural flow chart and routing logic for 1:1 vs. group the 4 sanction types (alcohol, cannabis, poly-substance, and other drug) as well as the sanction/violation number (1, 2, 3) is available upon request.

Section 16 | Counseling Services and Outreach Education

COUNSELING AND PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES

Northwest Psychological Consulting (NPC) is located in downtown Everett at 2722 Colby Ave., Suite 720, Everett, WA 98290 | 206-650-5910

WSU Everett will be offering students three, one-on-one counseling sessions with NPC at no charge. Students must be currently enrolled at the time of seeking counseling services. After these three sessions, students will have to assume all costs for subsequent sessions.

PSYCHOLOGICAL EDUCATION AND HARM REDUCTION OUTREACH

Booze, Sex, and Reality Checks (BSRC): BSRC is a mandatory program for all incoming first year and transfer students to address transition from home to campus life and focuses on academic success, substance use, sexual decision making, and consent. There are two mandatory requirements needed to complete the BSRC program: the in-person workshop and the online survey with personalized feedback (e-CHUG). e-CHUG is an online, confidential survey that allows students to receive personalized feedback about the impacts of alcohol and other drug use. First year and incoming transfer students under the age of 21 are required to complete this online survey; however, it is an open access survey available to all students. Information on e-CHUG is available at: cougarhealth.wsu.edu/echug.

REGISTERED STUDENT ORGANIZATION (RSO) EVENT TRAINING:

As per WSU policy on the approval to serve alcoholic beverages and referral by Student Involvement, Health Promotions provides mandatory harm reduction training for RSOs that wish to serve alcohol at events on campus. The discussion and training include a review of the event structure and alcohol service, liability concerns, a pouring demo, and review of standard drink, as well as harm reduction tips for hosts.

IMPACT

IMPACT is an education service provided to students who are referred by the Center for Community Standards (CCS) for substance use violations. The purpose of this intervention is to administer a substance abuse education program that is focused on harm reduction strategies, motivational interviewing, and brief intervention. The IMPACT classes and 1:1 sessions have been developed to provide an empirically-based intervention to meet the specific needs of students who exhibit high risk substance abuse behaviors. The IMPACT program is unique in that it is not a 'one size fits all' intervention; rather, IMPACT is structured to route students, via confidential assessment with personalized feedback, to the intervention that best meets their needs in terms of psycho-education and clinical concerns.

IMPACT Workshops – The Impact II session 1 workshop provides an opportunity for challenging positive and negative expectations of substance use, a corrective standard drink demo or a discussion of intoxication thresholds for cannabis use, harm reduction and protective strategies and skill, and information on the impacts of substance use on sleep and academics.

After the completion of the first class participants are directed to online assessment surveys for alcohol, cannabis, poly-substance, and other drug use that assess for substance abuse, genetic and family history addiction criteria, high risk health behaviors (eCHECKUP TO GO). The assessment gives immediate personalized feedback about their alcohol and/or drug use. After completing the assessment, students are directed to go to the Impact II session 2 class (small group intervention, lower to moderate risk indicator) or to a 1:1 session with Counseling and Psychological Services staff/faculty, if high-risk indicators for substance abuse/addiction criteria are endorsed.

The Impact 2nd session workshop employs a series of teaching and learning components with motivational interviewing that includes norms clarification, risk reduction and moderation discussion, the role of family history within the process of abuse and addiction, as well as information on blackout, high blood alcohol levels, and cognitive/academic impact of high risk use.

IMPACT 1:1 sessions – Interventions are delivered by Cougar Health Services, Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) faculty, doctoral interns, and other trainees under supervision. All 1:1 sessions (Alcohol, Cannabis, Other Drug, and Polysubstance) are based on motivational interviewing and are focused on evoking students' intrinsic motivation to change their alcohol or drug use. Prior to the 1:

meeting, students complete a series of standardized assessments that, along with the students' personalized eCHECKUP TO GO feedback, facilitates harm reduction discussion and intervention.

WSU students access the IMPACT program as outlined above. Students receive direction for their routed participation (group or 1:1 sessions and assessment type) in multiple ways: from the Center for Community Standards (CCS), in the IMPACT workshop, and the Health Promotions website. A detailed procedural flow chart and routing logic for 1:1 vs. group the 4 sanction types (alcohol, cannabis, poly-substance, and other drug) as well as the sanction/violation number (1, 2, 3) is available upon request.

Section 17 | Campus Security Policies and Safety Awareness Programs

Return to Table of Contents

WSU Everett, in partnership with EvCC Security strives to cultivate an atmosphere which supports the educational process and promotes academic and personal achievement and community prosperity. Although WSU Everett and EvCC Security takes many steps to educate and maintain safety on campus, each individual within the campus community plays a role and it is important to be aware of surroundings and use reasonable judgement when living, working or visiting campus. Please report suspicious or criminal activities to EvCC Security at 425-388-9998 or 911.

STUDENT CARE (AWARE) NETWORK

The Student Care (AWARE) Network is an online resource that includes a Student Care Reporting Form that allows individual to share concerns about a student's emotional or psychological well-being, physical health, or academic performance with university administrators who can help. Anyone can submit a Student Care report including students, faculty, staff, family members, and community members. Information submitted through the AWARE network will be reviewed by the Office of the Dean of Students team for appropriate follow up. The AWARE Network can be accessed at aware.wsu.edu.

STUDENT CARE TEAM

The Student Care Team responds to reports about students who are exhibiting behavior of concern and/or have received a Student Care or other report of a concern for a student. The multi-disciplinary Student Care team intervenes with care and support to protect the safety and wellbeing of the involved student, as was of the WSU community, by working directly with the student, and /or connecting students with others with appropriate resources and services.

DAILY CRIME LOG

The EvCC Security produces and posts a Campus Crime Blotter of all crimes reported to EvCC Security. The log is available 24 hours per day to anyone wishing to access it. The log identifies the type of report, location, and time of each incident reported to EvCC Security. The Campus Crime Blotter is available online at everettcc.edu/administration/cwt-security/security/campus-safety-and-security/campus-crime-blotter.

Section 18 | Housing and Fire Safety Report

Return to Table of Contents

In August 2008, the Higher Education Opportunity Act (Public Law 110315) became law. This act requires all U.S. academic institutions to produce an annual fire safety report outlining fire safety practices, standards, and all fire-related on campus statistics pertaining to on campus residential buildings.

The Everett Campus does not have on-campus housing. There are not statistics to report for Housing and Fire Safety for the WSU Everett campus.

Section 19 | University Fire Safety

Guidelines

Return to Table of Contents

Individuals found in violation of safety regulations will be cited and given the opportunity to correct the problem. Failure to comply with safety regulations will result in disciplinary action and/or a fine.

SMOKING

No smoking is permitted on the WSU Everett. WSU Everett's campus policy in Washington Administrative Code (WAC) Chapter 504-38 prohibits all forms of tobacco and any nicotine-delivery devices, including electronic cigarettes, in or on WSU Everett campus grounds and state owned vehicles and equipment.

WSU employees, students and visitors are responsible for complying with Washington state law (RCW Chapter 70.160, Clean Indoor Air Act) and any applicable campus tobacco and nicotine use policy, referenced above. Reporting Options and Response to Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, and Stalking

FIRE INSPECTIONS

The WSU Everett campus public areas (hallways, corridors, offices, classrooms, meeting rooms, etc.) are inspected periodically based on hazard classification and time availability. WSU Everett has an active safety committee that also conducts general safety inspections and report perceived fire safety problems to the Facilities Administrator for resolution.

Property damage and personal injury resulting from a person's noncompliance with fire and safety standards may result in personal liability for damages and injuries. Removal of batteries from smoke detectors is prohibited

FIRE SAFETY TRAINING

WSU Everett conducts fire extinguisher training in conjunction with EvCC Safety and Security with hands-on extinguishment of fires for university employees. These trainings are conducted outside in non-freezing weather.

EMERGENCY FIRE RESPONSE

The Everett Fire Department is a combination department comprised of 177 full-time professional and reserve firefighters engaging in the performance of fire suppression and emergency medical services. Fire suppression is provided to over 110,000 residents of the City of Everett across 45 square miles, including WSU Everett.

PLANS FOR FUTURE IMPROVEMENT IN FIRE SAFETY

WSU Everett will continue to maintain our facility in a manner consistent with the International Fire Code, International Building Code, National Fire Protection Association, as well as state and federal laws. All new construction shall be compliant with the appropriate fire, building, and life safety code requirements.

The WSU Safety Committee work closely with the Everett Fire Marshal and FM Global to address and correct deficiencies in an ongoing effort to improve fire safety on campus.

Reporting in Case of a Fire

If there is a fire emergency dial 911

Reports that a fire occurred should be made to the WSU Everett Facilities Manager and Campus Safety Officer by calling 425-314-9514. Reports made to the WSU Everett Campus Safety Officer are included in the statistics in the annual fire safety report. WSU employees should follow the Fire Safety Procedures, Section 8.20 in the Safety Policies and Procedures Manual.

Section 20 | Annual Disclosure of Crime Statistics

Return to Table of Contents

In accordance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security and Crime Statistics Act, the statistics contained in this report are limited to specific crimes occurring within a designated geographic area for the previous three calendar years (2019–2021) concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus and in certain off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by WSU.

A map of the designated geographic area, buildings, and property can be viewed in Section 23 of this report. The map provides the geographic area typically included for the purpose of the report, current as of October 1, 2021. In some circumstances, crimes occurring in an area not identified on this map may be included for purposes of inclusion in the annual disclosure of crime statistics. Additionally, the statistics this report may vary from statistics maintained within other WSU offices authorized to receive reports of incidents implicating University policies, such as WSU Compliance and Civil Rights and the Center for Community Standards.

Criminal offenses included in this report include the following, as defined by the Revised Code of Washington, the Clery Act, and the Violence Against Women Act:

- Criminal homicide (includes murder, non-negligent manslaughter, and negligent manslaughter)
- Rape, Fondling, Incest and Statutory Rape
- Domestic Violence and Dating Violence Stalking • Robbery
- Aggravated assault
- Burglary
- Motor vehicle theft
- Arson
- Arrests and referrals for disciplinary action for liquor violations, drug violations, and weapons violation Hate crimes, including the following listed below, if such crime manifests evidence that the victim was intentionally selected because of the victim's

- Any crime listed above, as defined by the Clery Act,
- Crimes of larceny/theft, simple assault, intimidation, and destruction/damage/vandalism of property, or
- Any other crime involving bodily injury

Individuals can report incidents of discriminatory harassment to:

- EvCC Security – 425-388-9998
- WSU Everett Title IX Coordinator Dr. Mark Beattie – 425-405-1751
- Compliance and Civil Rights– 509-335-8288

Preparation of Crime Statistics

Washington State University (WSU) prepares this report in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act), as well as the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA) amendments to the Clery Act, using information obtained by the WSU Clery Compliance Committee comprised of representatives from various WSU offices including, but not limited to, the WSU Police Department (WSU PD), WSU Compliance and Civil Rights (CCR), the Center for Community Standards (CCS), and the Office of Emergency Management.

Additionally, information is gathered from Campus Security Authorities, local law enforcement agencies including the Everett Police Department (Everett PD) and the Snohomish County Sheriff's Office, and information provided by other surrounding law enforcement agencies.

The report is prepared by WSU Everett's Campus Safety Officer and also includes statistics for the previous three calendar years (2019–2021) concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus, and in certain off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by WSU. In accordance with the Clery Act, the statistics contained in this report are limited to specific crimes occurring within a designated geographic area.

The statistics in this report may vary from statistics maintained within other WSU offices authorized to receive reports of incidents implicating laws and WSU policies, such as the Everett Police Department, EvCC Safety and Security Office, WSU Compliance and Civil Rights, and the Center for Community Standards.

The Clery Act promotes campus safety by providing information to students, parents, employees, and the WSU community about public safety, crime prevention, and response efforts by WSU. It also promotes transparency about crimes that occur on campus and other threats to health and safety. To further those efforts, this report provides information on education, prevention, and awareness efforts by WSU to empower the WSU community to take a more active role in their personal safety and security.

 - The feeling of fear must be one that a reasonable person in the same situation would experience under all the circumstances; and

- The stalker either:
 - Intends to frighten, intimidate, or harass the person; or
 - Knows or reasonably should know that the person is afraid, intimidated, or harassed even if the stalker did not intend to place the person in fear or intimidate or harass the person.

Section 23 | Reporting Coverage Map

Return to Table of Contents

CRIME STATISTICS GEOGRAPHIC AREA:

The locations for which Clery crimes are reported in the tables below includes the following areas:

1. Buildings and property that are part of the institution's campus;
2. The institution's non-campus buildings and property;
3. WSU Everett/University Center; Parking Lot K
4. Public property within or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus

Campus is defined as:

1. Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area and used by the institution in direct support of, or in a manner related to, the institution's educational purposes, including residence halls; and
2. Any building or property that is within or reasonably contiguous to the area identified in paragraph (i) of this definition, that is owned by the institution but controlled by another person, is frequently used by students, and supports institutional purposes (such as a food or other retail vendor).

Clery crimes are also reported when they occur at non-campus student housing facilities.

For 2019–2021 there were no hate crimes reported.

It should be noted that this report provides the definition of Domestic Violence as defined by Washington State law (RCW). However, for the purpose of reporting statistics, some relationships, falling under the Washington State definition of domestic violence, may be counted as dating violence, not domestic violence, pursuant to the definitions provided by the Clery Act. The Clery Act definition generally provide s that an intimate, or romantic, relationship must exist to be considered dating violence, whereas, domestic violence requires that the individuals be cohabitating as current or former spouses, or have an intimate relationship, thus, the relationship must be more than just two people living together as roommates. The complete definition can be found in The Handbook for Campus Safety and Security Reporting. (See Chapter 3, U.S. Department of Education, Office of Postsecondary Education, The Handbook for Campus Safety and Security Reporting, 2016 Edition, Washington, D.C., 2016.) The report is available on the Department of Education's website at www.ed.gov
