

WASHINGTON STATE NEEDS SKILLED CYBERSECURITY SPECIALISTS TO PROTECT INFORMATION AND ASSETS.

Cyberattacks continue to increase. Organizations need more cybersecurity professionals to improve information security.

61%

of all SMBs reported at least one cyber attack in the past year.

57%

of U.S. companies report having a cybersecurity skills shortage.

46%

of cyber pros are contacted by recruiters weekly, whether or not they are seeking employment growth in cybersecurity jobs is projected over the next ten years.

35%

60%

of cybersecurity jobs listed online require a bachelor's degree.

$73,893 – $88,556

Salary range for an entry level cybersecurity analyst in Everett, WA

WSU Everett's Bachelor of Science in Cybersecurity provides a foundation in information technology (IT), computing, and information security theory and strategies. As more businesses and organizations require professionals to protect their digital assets and information, jobs in cybersecurity are increasing 12 times faster than the supply of professionals to fill open positions.

Ready to take your next step in this exciting and lucrative career?
Connect with an admissions counselor today!

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
EVERETT