Undergraduate Student Awards Application

The Sociology Department at Washington State University awards various scholarships to recognize and foster outstanding undergraduate student excellence in academics and community service. For a complete description of available scholarships along with specific criteria please visit the department scholarship website at:

<http://libarts.wsu.edu/soc/scholarships/departmental.html>. Awardees are recognized at the annual Spring Banquet.

If you are selected to receive a scholarship a representative from the Sociology department will notify you either by email and/or mail.

Instructions: Applications for all scholarships (except the Exceptional Senior Award which will be awarded on GPA only) are due by the first Monday of March. To submit an application and supporting documents please complete and then save the following form, compile any additional supporting documents requested and send the electronic materials to: byersbro@wsu.edu. Make sure to write "Sociology scholarship application" in the subject line. Please fill out a separate application form for each award.
