

Wardwell Alumni Scholarship

About John Wardwell: Dr. Wardwell was a professor in the Departments of Sociology and Community and Rural Sociology from 1973 to 1998. During that time he conducted research and taught courses in demography and population studies for both graduate and undergraduate students. He also conducted important research on the dynamics of rural/urban migration. This scholarship is provided by his colleagues, friends, and students in honor of his life's work.

Award: Cash award of at least $500.

Purpose: To recognize graduate students with preference given to students with an interest in demography.

Eligibility: Graduate students in good academic standing with a demonstrated interest in demography.

Application: Submission of a completed application form. Application may include a scholarly paper or other work on demographic issues. Preference will be given to applications that include a scholarly paper.

Criteria: Applicants must demonstrate strong academic performance and an interest in studying demography or pursuing a career in population studies.

Selection Procedures: The Awards Committee will review all applications and select the winning applicant.

Name:

E-mail address:

CV URL:

	YES	NO
Have you submitted a program of study?
Have you successfully completed an MA?
Have you passed prelims?
Number of semesters enrolled in program
Name of three references
Reference 1 (main advisor)
Reference 2:

Reference 3:

Major areas of research interest:

Essay (500 words or less). Describe your interest in studying demography or pursuing a career in demography or population studies.

Relevant coursework/independent study