Included in the program of study below are 30 credits of courses in communication, social sciences and humanities, economics and business that are valuable preparation for	8-22

study of the law. In addition to these requirements, students are urged to elect, in consultation with their advisor, courses that complement the curriculum's broad based liberal arts education.

To be admitted to the History Pre-Law option, a student must make their intention known to the department and have earned at least a 2.5 cumulative GPA.

A grade of C or better is required in all History courses used to fulfill the requirements for this major.

It is assumed that prior to the junior year that students will have completed courses meeting UCORE and College of Arts and Sciences requirements for graduation.
