

Syllabus Subcommittee

4/4/2022

In order to make term lengths for members consistent with those for other Faculty Senate committees, the Syllabus Subcommittee voted to change term lengths for committee members from two years to three years. This change requires a vote of the Senate.

Proposed Change (with Track Changes)

Composition and tenure

Individual members

- Four faculty, all of whom are actively involved in teaching courses, selected with representation from the various areas of the University in mind, and with at least three geographic regions (and Global) represented. Faculty will serve for ~~threetwo~~ years and can renew for another ~~threetwo~~ years.(F)

Proposed Change (Clean)

Composition and tenure

Individual members

- Four faculty, all of whom are actively involved in teaching courses, selected with representation from the various areas of the University in mind, and with at least three geographic regions (and Global) represented. Faculty will serve for three years and can renew for another three years.(F)