

The Steering Committee of the Faculty Senate request an exception to composition for the Graduate Studies Committee to include an additional member from the College of Arts and Sciences as well as the addition of a Library faculty member. Library representation on this committee will be included in a future Graduate Studies Committee composition update request. Current committee composition is listed on the faculty senate website.

If approved, the Steering Committee of the Faculty Senate moves that the Faculty Senate approve the membership of Faculty Senate committees.

