RE: Changes to Faculty Manual Section I.B.4 regarding the Faculty Status Committee

DATE: January 26, 2023

The Faculty Status Committee is an independent investigative faculty committee that reports and makes recommendations directly to the president. In response to the changes in faculty structure overall, the Faculty Status Committee has added three career-track members to its composition. The new committee structure consists of nine tenured faculty and three career-track members. The proposed changes to Section I.B.4 update the Faculty Manual to be consistent with the current committee structure.
