

Clockwise from top: Georg Johannes, Rebekah, Johannes, Rebekah, and Albert Vossler

The American troop transport, the MS General Harry Taylor, that carried large numbers of European refugees to America after World War II

Wittenberg, at the time when Nazi officials were taking record of the people and their belongings. In this photo the men and women are segregated for this process.

A view of the church steeple and cityscape of Wittenberg, Bessarabia (located in present-day Ukraine)

