GRADUATE SEMINAR SERIES

Ask Us Anything About Graduate School!

Presented by

Dr. Jacob Leachman, Dr. Lei Li, Dr. John McCloy, and
Dr. John Swensen

Abstract

Ask us anything about graduate school! Because we have been there too, just in different ways. It really is true that there are many ways to be very successful in graduate school. It is also true that everybody's situation is different. Join a panel of MME faculty as they discuss stories from their graduate school experiences—what it was like at other schools, managing relationships with advisors/mentors/lab mates, use of university resources, and much more. Along the way, we will probably see some common themes emerge and will identify opportunities to make the experience as a graduate student in MME a little bit better. Bring plenty of questions!
