AmSt 600 Special Projects or Independent Study Contract

American Studies 600

The purpose of independent study or special problems credit is to enable students to work on their own in an area of inquiry unique to their interest and not readily available through conventional course offerings.

Requirements prior to enrollment

Prior to enrollment, the student must:

- a) Crystallize their study or work plan
- b) Negotiate a proposal with the instructor
- c) Fill out a contract form and have it signed appropriately

The original copy of the contract will be filed with the department office and a photo copy will be made for the student and the instructor after the department receives the original contract.

NO ENROLLMENT WILL BE HONORED unless a contract is on file and enrollment completed during the first two weeks of classes. Students must sign up in advance of experience. Grading will be on an S, F basis.

Credit

It is expected that the student will spend an equivalent of three hours per week per credit. May be taken for 1-4 credits.
