Psych Students,

Welcome to week 9 of spring 2022! We have already started advising students for summer and fall 2022. Schedule your advising appointment before priority registration begins on April 11 so you are prepared to enroll for classes on time. In this week’s newsletter you will find out how to meet with our Psych Peer Mentors. They will be available starting today to answer commonly asked questions about registration so be sure to take advantage of this excellent resource. You should also check out their presentation this week on graduate school and careers!

Happy reading!

University Writing Portfolio

- If you have earned at least 60 credits your university writing portfolio is due before you can register for fall 2022 courses
- Students with at least 60 credits that have not completed their writing portfolio will have a registration hold on their account that blocks fall enrollment
- Submit your university writing portfolio before your fall enrollment date to ensure that you can register for classes on time
- Submit your writing portfolio here:
  https://writingprogram.wsu.edu/jwpsubmission/

Note: Your academic advisor cannot remove your writing portfolio hold. Contact The Writing Program, writing.program@wsu.edu, if you have questions.

Apply for Admission to Psych

- Students currently enrolled in Psych 311 should complete the Admission to the Major form prior to the end of the semester:
  https://psychology.wsu.edu/psychology-major-certification-request/

Admission to the Major Requirements:

- Psych 311 Completed with a C- or better
  - 2.5 CUM WSU GPA
  - 30 Completed Credit Hours

Admission to the major forms may be submitted at any time during the year, however they will only be processed after grades post at the end of each term.
Research Lab Opportunity Fall 2022

- The Criminal Justice department is looking for approximately 25 undergraduates to participate in a fall 2022 research project conducting content analysis of police community interactions ... and analyzing bodycam footages of law enforcement officers.
- COVID protocols will be in place, and participants will be fingerprinted and must pass a background check.
- Students who are selected will be enrolled in CRM J 499.
- Consideration will be given to students who have completed a research methods course (i.e., CRM J 311, HD 310, SOC 320, SOC 317 or PSYCH 312) and with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.
- Priority will be given to juniors and seniors.
- Contact CRM J Advisor, Sisouvanh Keopanapay, siskeo@wsu.edu, for more information or to receive a form to be filled out.

The WSU Emeritus Society is pleased to announce the 2022 Excellence in Undergraduate Research Awards. Undergraduate students who submitted an abstract for SURCA (Showcase for Undergraduate Research and Creative Activities) are eligible to apply for an Emeritus Society Undergraduate Research Award. This year, the WSU Emeritus Society will grant five awards of $500 for undergraduate achievement, one each in the following areas:

1. Arts, Humanities and Creative Activities
2. Physical Sciences and Mathematics
3. Biosciences
4. Social, Economic and Behavioral Sciences
5. Engineering and Applied Sciences

The awards will recognize significant contributions to research and outstanding creative and scholarly achievements by individual WSU undergraduate students. The application form can be found here.

Note: It is a requirement to submit a project to the 2022 Showcase for Undergraduate Research and Creative Activities (SURCA) in order to qualify for the Undergraduate Research Award. Also, the awards are meant to recognize significant individual contributions to research and outstanding creative and scholarly achievements by WSU undergraduate students. For group-based projects, only the team member who has contributed most significantly to the research project should apply.
