Psych Students,

We hope that you all enjoyed your spring break. You made it to week 11! Here are this week’s highlights:

- This Thursday, 3/23, your Psych Peer Mentors will be hosting an informational presentation about advising, graduation, classes, grad school, getting involved and much more (page 3)
- Dr. Posey is looking for undergraduate teaching assistants for Psych 311 and Psych 328. See page 2 for more info.
- Any student’s experiencing housing issues should reach out to their academic advisor so they can submit a referral on your behalf to the Dean of Students
- Your fall enrollment date (when you can begin to enroll in fall courses) and shopping cart are available in myWSU
- Now is a good time to check your myWSU account for holds and take care of them before your enrollment date (See page 4 for common holds and who to contact for assistance)
- If you have an advising hold and have not scheduled your advising appointment you should do that soon.
- See page 6 for several job/volunteer opportunities

Happy reading!
