

Developing Cannabis Research at WSU

Friday, September 30, 2016 | 8:00 am – 3:30 p.m.

Smith Center for Undergraduate Education (CUE) 518 | WSU Pullman

The WSU Office of Research and the Thomas S. Foley Institute for Public Policy & Public Service welcomes you to a day focused on the opportunities and constraints of cannabis research at Washington State University.

Our keynote speaker is Prof. Robert MacCoun, who is the James and Patricia Kowel Professor of Law at Stanford Law School. Professor MacCoun is a social psychologist and public policy analyst who has published numerous studies on a variety of topics, including illicit drug use, drug policy, judgment and decision-making, social influence processes, and bias in the use and interpretation of research evidence by scientists, journalists and citizens. A preeminent scholar working at the border of law and psychology, his scholarship involves a mix of experimental and non-experimental empirical research as well as computational modeling and simulation.
