

WSU Honors College

Information on

Distinguished Scholarships

Scholarships described in this notebook are competitive prestigious national and international scholarships. There is a substantial amount of information presented here, including the application deadlines for academic year 2017-2018. Every attempt has been made to provide this information accurately. We encourage readers to verify the details presented here for any scholarships for which they hope to apply.

For more information on any of these scholarships and/or the application process, you may contact Dr. Robin Bond in the Honors College (rsbond@wsu.edu) and April Seehafer, the Director of Distinguished Scholarships (seehafer@wsu.edu).

Scholarships 2017-2018 (listed alphabetically)

American Association of University Women (AAUW) International Fellowships

Deadline: 12/1/2017 (expected for 2018-19 fellowships)

Supports full-time graduate study or research for women who are not U.S. citizens or permanent residents, are completing or have completed an undergraduate degree, plan to pursue a U.S. graduate program, and intend to return to their home countries to pursue a professional career. English proficiency is required. Applicants must have demonstrated a commitment to the advancement of women and girls in the home country. SENIORS and GRADUATES may apply.

<http://www.aauw.org/what-we-do/educational-funding-and-awards/international-fellowships/>

American-Scandinavian Foundation Fellowships and Grants

Deadline: 11/1/2017 (expected for 2018-19 fellowships/grants)

Fellowships of up to $23,000 and grants of up to $5,000 to pursue research, study, or creative work in one or more of the Scandinavian countries. SENIORS, GRADUATES, and GRADUATE STUDENTS may apply. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents and must have an undergraduate degree in hand by the beginning of the award period. Some projects may require proficiency in the language of the host country; for other projects, proficiency may not be necessary but some ability in the language is desirable. Graduate students planning dissertation research are given priority for the fellowships, whereas the grants are considered especially suitable to graduating seniors and college graduates. There is an application fee. www.amscan.org/grants_americans.html

Amgen Scholars U.S. Program

Deadline: 2/1/2018 (expected for summer 2018)

Provides undergraduate students with a paid summer research experience in the STEM fields at one of 10 US universities: CalTech, Columbia/Barnard, Harvard, MIT, NIH, Stanford, UC, Berkeley, UCLA, UCSF, and Washington University in St. Louis. Applicants must be US citizens or permanent residents, SOPHOMORES, JUNIORS, or SENIORS who are planning a fifth year of study, must be interested in pursuing a Ph.D. or M.D.-Ph.D., and must have min. gpa of 3.2. Compensation packages vary depending upon the host institution. Approximately 250 scholars are chosen.

<http://www.amgenscholars.com/us-program>

Boren National Security Education Program Scholarships

Deadline: 12/1/2017 (expected WSU deadline for 2018-19 scholarships)

Supports a term or year of study abroad, for the purpose of equipping Americans with an understanding of less commonly studied languages and cultures in regions critical to U.S. interests. NSEP emphasizes the importance of language study as a major component of the study abroad program. Study of a foreign language appropriate to the identified country must be an integral part of the proposal. Applicants must be U.S. citizens with strong academic records, language and international interests. FRESHMAN through SENIORS may apply for the undergraduate scholarships. (Boren Fellowships are also offered for GRADUATE STUDENTS.) The scholarship carries a one-year service requirement. Approximately 150 are awarded nationwide. An institutional review and interview process is conducted on campus for undergraduate applicants. www.borenawards.org

Carnegie Endowment for Peace Junior Fellows Program

Deadline: 10/1/2017 (expected WSU deadline for 2018-19 fellowships)

Supports one year of service at the Endowment in Washington D.C. Junior Fellows provide research assistance to senior associates on international policy issues, participate in meetings with high-level officials, contribute to congressional testimony, and organize briefings attended by scholars, activists, journalists and government officials. Applicants must be SENIORS or have GRADUATED within the past year; must not have begun graduate study. Applicants must have strong academic records with substantial coursework in such areas as international affairs, political science, economics, or history. May be U.S. citizen or foreign national eligible to work in the U.S. for the award period. 8-10 awards nationwide. WSU may endorse up to two candidates. Campus contact: Foley Institute).

<http://carnegieendowment.org/about/jr-fellows/>

Churchill Scholarships (note: WSU is not a participating Institution)

For one year of graduate study in engineering, math, or science at Churchill College, Cambridge University. SENIORS, RECENT GRADUATES, and GRADUATE STUDENTS may apply. Applicants must be U.S. citizens, must be age 19-26, must hold a bachelor's degree by the beginning of the award, and must have outstanding academic record (typical GPA of 3.9 or higher) and research experience. At least 14 scholarships are awarded nationwide to candidates from select institutions. Award includes generous living allowance, tuition and fees, and travel grant (approximate value is $45,000).

<http://winstonchurchillfoundation.org>

Commonwealth Scholarships

Deadline varies by country

Provides opportunities for citizens of Commonwealth countries to pursue graduate study in other Commonwealth countries, including the United Kingdom. Qualifications and application procedures vary by country. In most cases, applicants should be SENIORS or recent GRADUATES.

<http://cscuk.dfid.gov.uk/>

Congress-Bundestag Youth Exchange for Young Professionals

Deadline: 12/1/2017 (expected for 2018-19 awards)

Year-long work-study program beginning in July provides opportunities for young adults to gain cultural understanding, education, and professional experience in Germany. Applicant must be U.S. citizen or permanent resident, age 18-24 at the start of the program, and HIGH SCHOOL, COLLEGE (FRESHMAN through SENIOR), or GRADUATE STUDENT. Applicant must have coursework and some practical experience relevant to the intended internship field. Exchange Program includes classroom instruction and an internship experience and covers international and in-country travel, university tuition, a living stipend, and accommodations with a host family or in a student residence. Preferred fields include business, technology, engineering, and agriculture. All fields may apply. German language proficiency is preferred but not required.

<http://www.usagermanyscholarship.org/postsecondaryprograms/>.

Critical Language Scholarships

Deadline: 11/2017 (expected for summer 2018 scholarships)

U.S. government-sponsored scholarships support intensive summer language study in the critical need languages: Azerbaijani, Arabic, Bengali, Chinese, Hindi, Indonesian, Korean, Japanese, Persian, Punjabi, Russian, Turkish, or Urdu, at approved language institutes abroad. Applicants must be U.S. citizens and may be FRESHMAN, SOPHOMORES, JUNIORS, SENIORS, or GRADUATE STUDENTS. All fields of study are eligible. Some institutes have language prerequisites, but many are open to beginners. All program costs are covered, including travel, room and board, instruction, visa fees, and entrance fees for program activities. <http://clscholarship.org>

DAAD EMGIP Bundestag Internships

Deadline: 9/15/2017 (for 2018-19 internships)

Offers two-month-long internship opportunities in the German parliament. Applicants should be advanced undergraduates (JUNIOR or SENIOR) or GRADUATE STUDENTS (excluding PhD students) in fields such as political science, international relations, law, history, economics, or German. Applicants must have strong German language skills, some knowledge of the German legislative process, outstanding academic record and personal integrity, and must be U.S. or Canadian citizens or permanent residents, or international students enrolled full time in the U.S. or Canada. Compensation is approximately 1,100 euros per month to cover living expenses. Most placements are during the fall. <https://www.daad.org/en/find-funding/graduate-opportunities/emgip-bundestag-internship/>

DAAD Summer Research Internships in Science and Engineering (RISE)

Deadline: 1/15/2018 (expected for summer 2018)

Supports 6-12-week summer internships working on scientific research projects at top research institutions in Germany. Applicants must be SOPHOMORES or JUNIORS studying biology, chemistry, physics, earth sciences, or engineering. German language skills are helpful but not required; most projects may be carried out in English. The program provides a monthly stipend of EUR 650, health insurance, and assistance arranging housing. Approximately 300 awards are made annually; awardees may choose from among 500+ research projects. <https://www.daad.de/rise/en/>

DAAD Undergraduate Scholarships

Deadline: 1/31/2017 (for 2017-18 scholarships)

For 4-10 months of undergraduate study, senior thesis research, and/or internship in Germany. Applicants must be SOPHOMORES or JUNIORS in any field of study at any North American university, must have outstanding academic record and personal integrity, must demonstrate an interest in contemporary German and European affairs, and have well-defined plans for their time in Germany. Citizenship is open. Preference is given to students whose projects or programs are based at and organized by a German university. German language proficiency is not required but applicants must have language skills commensurate with their study and research needs. Approximately 50 are awarded per year. The scholarship includes monthly stipend of EUR 650, travel/research funds, and health insurance. <https://www.daad.org/en/find-funding/undergraduate-opportunities/undergraduate-scholarship/>

DAAD University Summer Course Grants

Deadline: 12/1/2017 (expected for summer 2018 grants)

For 3-4 week summer courses at German universities, which focus mainly on literary, cultural, political, or economic aspects of modern and contemporary Germany. Applicants must be SOPHOMORES, JUNIORS, SENIORS, or GRADUATE STUDENTS with outstanding academic records; U.S. or Canadian citizens or foreign nationals who have been full-time students at North American universities for at least one year are eligible. Applicants must have completed at least 4 semesters of German or equivalent. www.daad.org/summercourse

Davis-Putter Scholarship

Deadline: 4/1/2018 (expected for 2018-19 scholarships)

The Davis-Putter Scholarship Fund provides scholarships of up to $10,000 to students actively working for peace and justice. These need-based scholarships are awarded to those able to do academic work at the university level (UNDERGRADUATE and GRADUATE) and who are part of the progressive movement on the campus and in the community. Early recipients worked for civil rights, against McCarthyism, and for peace in Vietnam. Recent grantees have been active in the struggle against racism, sexism, homophobia, and other forms of oppression, building the movement for economic justice, and creating peace through international anti-imperialist solidarity. www.davisputter.org.

De Karman Fellowships

Deadline: 1/31/2018 (expected for 2018-19 fellowships)

Supports one year of undergraduate study or graduate study in the United States in any field, with special consideration to candidates in the Humanities. Applicants may be JUNIORS or PH.D. CANDIDATES who are U.S citizens or foreign students already enrolled in U.S. institutions. Undergraduate applicants should have exceptional recommendations and grades plus a compelling record of original research or scholarship. Approximately ten awards are granted nationwide (undergraduate awards are $14,000; graduate awards are $22,000). www.dekarman.org.

Department of Energy Office of Science Graduate Fellowships

Deadline 1/2018 (expected for 2018-19)

The Department of Energy Office of Science has announced a new scholarship program, funded in part by the Recovery Act of 2009. The Office of Science Graduate Fellowships will support outstanding students to pursue graduate study in areas of physics, biology, chemistry, mathematics, engineering, computational sciences, and environmental sciences relevant to the Office of Science. The awards provide partial tuition support, an annual living stipend, and a research stipend for full-time graduate study and thesis/dissertation research at a U.S. academic institution for up to three years. Applicants must be U.S. citizens, full-time students at the time of application, seniors majoring in one of the eligible fields (or first-year or second-year graduate students), and must have a GPA of 3.3 or higher. 80 fellowships are awarded nationwide. <http://energy.gov/scholarships-and-fellowships>.

Department of Energy Graduate Fellowships

Deadline: 1/2018 (expected for 2018-19)

Offered in the areas of computational science and nuclear security stewardship science. Both provide generous support for up to four years towards a Ph.D in an appropriate program. Applicants must be exceptional SENIORS, GRADUATES, or GRADUATE STUDENTS in their first year of study and must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Fellows are required to participate in a 3-month research practicum at a participating laboratory. <http://krellinst.org/fellowships>.

Emigre Memorial German Internship Program (EMGIP)

Deadlines vary by term: 10/1/2017 (expected for Spring 2018); 12/1/2017 (expected for Summer 2018); 3/31/2018 (expected for Fall 2018)

Supports one- to three-month internships in the German State Parliaments, in fall, spring, or early summer. Applicants must be U.S. or Canadian citizens age 30 or younger, and must be JUNIORS, SENIORS, or GRADUATE STUDENTS, with at least two years of study in international relations, public administration, political science, law, economics, or European studies. Eligibility requires high-intermediate German language skills and some relevant practical experience. U.S. participants receive a stipend of up to EUR 670 per month. <http://culturalvistas.org/programs/abroad/emigre-memorial-german-internship-program/>

English Program in Korea (EPIK)

Deadline 4/2018 (expected deadline for 2018-19)

Supports one year (52 weeks) as an English teacher in a Korean public school. Applicant must be a citizen of one of six designated English-speaking countries (including the U.S.), must hold at least a bachelor's degree, must have excellent English language skills and the ability and willingness to adapt to Korean culture and living. The program includes benefits and a salary, which varies by level of experience and location. www.epik.go.kr/.

Ford Foundation Predoctoral Fellowships

Deadline: 12/14/2017 (for fellowships beginning fall 2018)

For U.S. citizens who will pursue (or are pursuing) graduate study in research-based PhD or ScD programs in many disciplines, as preparation for careers as college professors. The fellowship provides $24,000 per year for up to three years. SENIORS, GRADUATES, and GRADUATE STUDENTS may apply. Positive factors for selection include membership in one of several underrepresented racial and ethnic groups, superior academic achievement, and commitment to diversity. Approximately 60 awards are made nationwide. <http://sites.nationalacademies.org/PGA/FordFellowships>.

Freeman Fellowships for Advanced Asian Language Study

Deadline: 12/30/2017 (for 2018-19)

The Blakemore Foundation awards 15 fellowships for 1 year of Asian language study at an institution located in Asia. Grants cover a year of advanced language study of modern Chinese, Japanese, Korean, or Southeast Asian languages at specific universities. Stipend provides tuition, related educational expenses, a basic living costs and transportation. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents, must have an undergraduate degree at the start of the program, and must be at or near an advanced level in the chosen Asian language. www.blakemorefoundation.org/language.html

Fulbright Grants

Deadline: 8/22/2017 (WSU deadline for 2018-2019 Fulbright)

Supports one year of study, research, creative work, or English teaching in one of approximately 130 foreign countries. Applicants must be U.S. citizens with the majority of their undergraduate education in the U.S., must meet country-specific language proficiency requirements, and must hold a bachelor's degree by the beginning of the award. SENIORS, RECENT GRADUATES, and GRADUATE STUDENTS may apply. At least 1,300 awards are granted nationwide. An institutional review and interview process is conducted on campus for currently enrolled WSU students.

<http://us.fulbrightonline.org/home.html>.

Fulbright-Royal Veterinary College, University of London Award

Deadline 10/06/2017 (for 2018-19)

The new award will support a one-year Master's degree or higher research programme (or the first year of a longer Master's or higher research degree program) in any discipline at the Royal Veterinary College. In this award category, the grantee will receive a full tuition fee waiver from the Royal Veterinary College and a stipend of £14,300, which is intended as a contribution towards general maintenance costs (accommodation, travel, subsistence, etc.) while in the UK. Applicants must be US citizens not living in the UK and earn a bachelor's degree in a relevant area before departure to the UK. Fulbright seeks students with demonstrable ambassadorial skills with evidence of cultural sensitivity and a genuine desire to learn more about the UK and share with British citizens aspects of American culture.

<http://www.fulbright.org.uk/fulbright-awards/exchanges-to-the-uk/postgraduates/royal-veterinary-college-university-of-london>

Fulbright UK Summer Institutes

Deadline: 2/2018 (deadline varies depending on program for summer 2018)

Three-six week summer programs at world-class UK universities for FRESHMAN and SOPHOMORES who are US citizens with strong academic records. Leadership, initiative, character, adaptability, and ambassadorial qualities are highly valued, along with an interest in the UK and its culture; a minimum GPA of 3.7 is required to apply. Participant costs including academic program fees, travel, housing, subsistence, and cultural activities are covered. www.fulbright.org.uk/fulbright-awards/exchanges-to-the-uk/undergraduates.

Fund for Education Abroad Scholarships

Deadline: 1/10/2018 (for scholarships in 2018-2019)

Supports UNDERGRADUATE students planning to participate in rigorous education abroad programs during the 2015-2016 academic year or summer 2015. FEA will award $5,000 scholarships to students who study abroad for one semester and up to $10,000 for two semesters of study abroad; students who study abroad for other lengths of time (minimum of four weeks) will receive a proportionate amount. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents and be committed to supporting education abroad in their campus community through work with the FEA and their campus education abroad staff upon return. Up to 15 grants will be awarded. www.fundforeducationabroad.org.

Fund for Education Abroad Rainbow Scholarship

Deadline: 1/11/2018 (expected for scholarships in 2018-2019)

Supports undergraduate LGBTQI student who aims to participate in a high-quality, rigorous education abroad program. FEA will award $5,000 scholarships to students who study abroad for one semester and up to $10,000 for two semesters of study abroad; students who study abroad for other lengths of time (minimum of four weeks) will receive a proportionate amount. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents and be committed to supporting education abroad in their campus community through work with the FEA and their campus education abroad staff upon return. Students interested in being considered for the Rainbow Scholarship should indicate this through their FEA application forms. <http://www.rainbowsig.org/us-students-abroad/rainbow-scholarship/>.

Gates Cambridge Scholarships

Deadline: 3/11/2017 (WSU deadline for scholarships beginning fall 2018)

For one or more years of study at Cambridge University toward a graduate or second undergraduate degree. SENIORS and GRADUATES who are citizens of any country except the U.K. may apply. Applicants must have exceptional academic achievement and must hold a bachelor's degree by the beginning of the award period. Scholarship includes tuition and fees, generous living allowance, and some travel. Approximately 100 new scholars are named each year; many scholars have been Americans. www.gatesscholar.org.

German Universities of Applied Sciences Study & Internship Program

Deadline: 2/15/2018 (expected for 2018-19 scholarships)

Supports one semester of study abroad at one of Germany's applied sciences universities, followed by a six month paid professional internship. Applicants must be SOPHOMORES or JUNIORS in engineering, science, life sciences, business, management, economics, architecture, art, design, journalism, or social work, and must be U.S. or Canadian citizens or permanent residents, or foreign nationals meeting certain conditions. Applicants must have a well-defined study proposal and an interest in contemporary German and European affairs and must be age 32 or younger at the start of the grant period. German language proficiency is helpful but not required. Program includes a one-semester scholarship, monthly internship stipend of EUR 650, and travel grant. <http://www.uas7.org/scholarships/study-a-internship-program.html>.

Gilman International Scholarships

Deadline: 10/3/2017 (for spring 2018 and summer 2018 Early Application); 3/6/2018 (for summer 2018 and fall 2018)

For a semester, summer, or academic year of study abroad worldwide, for undergraduates with financial need. FRESHMAN through SENIORS may apply. Awards are for up to $5,000, with the amount varying depending on the length of study and student need. Gilman Scholars studying certain languages may also apply for an additional Critical Need Language Supplement of up to $3,000. Applicants must be U.S. citizens, must be Pell Grant recipients, and must be applying to or accepted by a study abroad program of at least 4 weeks in length for which the University will award academic credit. The scholarship carries a small service commitment. Over 2,300 Gilman Scholarships are awarded nationwide. <https://www.gilmanscholarship.org/>.

Glamour Magazine's Top Ten College Women

Deadline: 10/1/2017 (application deadline for 2018 awards)

Recognizes academic excellence, leadership experience, and involvement in campus and community affairs of female college students. Applicants must be full-time students in 2017-2018 academic year with outstanding accomplishments in leadership and community involvement; citizenship is open. Winners receive a $3000 prize, a trip to New York, a meeting with top female professionals, and recognition in the magazine. <https://www.glamour.com/story/college-women-of-the-year-application>

Goldwater Scholarships

Deadline: 12/1/2017 (WSU deadline for 2018 scholarships)

For undergraduates who plan to pursue graduate degrees and research-based careers in mathematics, the natural sciences, or engineering. Applicants must be U.S. citizens, nationals, or resident aliens and must be SOPHOMORES or JUNIORS (or SENIORS planning an additional year) in the upper quarter of their class. Selection criteria include outstanding academic performance and demonstrated potential for and commitment to a career in mathematics, the natural sciences, or engineering. Undergraduate research experience is highly valued. The scholarship pays up to $7,500 per year for up to two years. Approximately 270 scholarships are awarded nationwide. Campus nomination is required; WSU may nominate up to four candidates. <https://goldwater.scholarsapply.org/>

Google Anita Borg Scholarships

Deadline: 1/15/2018 (expected deadline for 2018-19 scholarships)

Supports graduate study by women in computer science, computer engineering, and related technical fields. SENIORS and GRADUATE STUDENTS in relevant fields may apply. U.S. citizens, as well as non-U.S. citizens who are currently studying in the U.S., are eligible. Criteria include academic excellence (GPA of 3.5 or higher) and demonstrated leadership. Approximately 20 scholarships of $10,000 are awarded nationwide. <http://www.google.com/anitaborg/us/>.

Hertz Foundation Graduate Fellowships

Deadline 10/27/2017 (deadline for fellowships beginning fall 2018)

For graduate study leading to a Ph.D. in the applied physical, biological, and engineering sciences. Provides up to five years of support. Applicants must be outstanding SENIORS or GRADUATE STUDENTS who are U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Must submit GRE scores. Approximately 10 awards nationwide. <http://www.hertzfoundation.org/dx/fellowships/fellowshipaward.aspx>

Hispanic Scholarship Fund

Deadline: Deadlines vary depending on scholarship

For undergraduate or graduate study in any field. Applicants must be of Hispanic heritage as defined by the Scholarship Fund, and U.S. Citizens or legal permanent residents, with GPA of 3.0 or higher. FRESHMAN through SENIORS and GRADUATE STUDENTS may apply. Applicants must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Scholarships range from $1,000 to $5,000. <https://www.hsf.net/scholarship>

Homeland Security STEM Summer Internships

Deadline: 12/9/2017 (expected for summer 2018)

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security Science and Technology Directorate Office of University Programs sponsors a 10-week summer internship program for students majoring in homeland security related science, technology, engineering and mathematics (HS-STEM) disciplines. The program provides stipends of $600 per week for undergraduates and $700 per week for graduate students along with quality research experiences at federal research facilities located across the country. It is open to SOPHOMORE AND JUNIOR UNDERGRADUATE and GRADUATE students in a broad spectrum of HS-STEM Disciplines and DHS mission-relevant Research Areas. Students must be U.S. citizens at least 18 years of age, must have a GPA of 3.3 or higher, and majoring in a STEM field with interest in homeland security research. <http://www.orau.gov/dhseducation/internships/>

Humanity in Action Fellowship

Deadline: 1/4/2017 (expected for summer 2018)

Supports participation in a Humanity in Action summer program in one of five cities: Amsterdam, Berlin, Copenhagen, Paris or Warsaw. The Programs bring together international groups of students to study human rights and to produce original research exploring how and why individuals and societies resist intolerance and stand up for democratic values. Applicants must be currently enrolled SOPHOMORES, JUNIORS, SENIORS or recent GRADUATES. U.S. citizens and non-citizens enrolled at accredited, four-year undergraduate colleges or universities in the U.S. are eligible. The fellowship covers the costs of participation and accommodation during the program, as well as a modest stipend for meals. Fellows are responsible for financing the cost of airfare. All majors and academic disciplines are encouraged to apply. Selections are made on the basis of demonstrated commitment to minority rights and social justice, evidence of leadership potential, significant academic achievement, entrepreneurship and social maturity. <http://www.humanityinaction.org/pages/91-call-for-applications>

Huntington Public Service Awards

Deadline: 1/18/2018

Provides a stipend of $15,000 for a graduating SENIOR to pursue one year of public service anywhere in the world. Citizenship is open. One to two awards are made nationwide.

www.nationalgridus.com/commitment/d4-1_award.asp

James "Rhio" O'Connor Memorial Scholarship Essay Contest

Every month (from October 2016 to July 2017) $1,000.00 will be awarded to the best essay submitted for that month. Submissions must be made by the last day of each month to be considered for that month. The essay contest is open to current UNDERGRADUATE and GRADUATE students enrolled in a college or university located in the United States The essay must be no fewer than 700 and no more than 1,500 words in length and should address some or all of the following questions: Should cancer patients and doctors be able to use whatever treatments they like in treating cancer? Why? What are some examples of "alternative therapies" and why do cancer patients use them when they are not FDA approved? Should medicinal medicine and folk medicine have any relevancy in cancer? It is estimated that it costs over $400 million to bring a new cancer drug to market. Does that establish roadblocks for the testing and approval of alternative therapies? What changes or improvements should be made in our healthcare system and the way we treat cancer in this country so that cancer is no longer the leading cause of death in Americans under age 85? For more information on the contest visit <http://www.cancermonthly.com/scholarship.asp>

Japanese Exchange & Teaching Programme (JET)

Deadline: 11/13/2017 (expected for 2018-19 positions)

Supports one year of work in Japan as either an Assistant English Language Teacher or a Coordinator of international exchanges. Applicants must be SENIORS or GRADUATES, U.S. citizens, with a strong interest in Japan and a functional command of the Japanese language. Also, applicants must not have lived in Japan for six or more years since 2004. Applicants must have a bachelor's degree in hand by the beginning of the position. <https://jetprogramusa.org/>

Killam Fellowships to Canada

Deadline: 1/31/2018 (expected for 2018-19 fellowships)

For a semester or year of undergraduate study in Canada. The program encourages exchange between Canada and the U.S. Applicants must be U.S. citizens, full-time undergraduates (in most cases SOPHOMORE or JUNIOR) with outstanding academic records. Fellowships are $10,000 US for a year or $5,000 US for a semester. Fellows also participate in two exchange events, for which expenses are covered. Approximately 20 fellowships are awarded nationwide. www.killamfellowships.com.

Knowles Science Teaching Foundation Fellowships

Deadline: 11/1/2017 (expected for fellowships beginning fall 2018)

Supports beginning high school science and math teachers as they earn a teaching credential and through the early years of their career (up to five years of financial and professional support). Up to $10,000 of tuition assistance and stipends are available for full-time graduate school, as well as summer stipends and funding for summer professional development. Obligations include successfully completing a teacher credential program, obtaining a full-time teaching position within the area of certification, participating in fellows' meetings, and submitting reports and portfolios. Applicants must be SENIORS or recent GRADUATES who will earn a degree in physical or biological science, mathematical science or engineering by summer 2011, plan to teach science or mathematics in a U.S. high school, and are enrolled in, or plan to enroll in, an approved teaching credential program. Citizenship is open. Fellowships are awarded based on content knowledge, commitment to teaching, ability to teach, and leadership. Approximately 30 are awarded nationwide. www.kstf.org.

Leonard M. Rieser Fellowship

Deadline: 3/15/2018 (expected for 2018 fellowships)

Provides up to two successful applicants with a one-time award of up to $5,000 to pursue projects that explore issues at the intersection of science, global security, and public policy, focusing on a significant aspect of nuclear security, climate stabilization or biotechnology. Applicants must be FRESHMEN, SOPHOMORES, JUNIORS, or SENIORS studying at a U.S. college or university. <http://thebulletin.org/leonard-m-rieser-fellowship>.

Lewis – John Lewis Fellowship

Deadline 1/4/2018 (expected for summer 2018)

Funded through Humanity in Action and The National Center for Civil and Human Rights, Inc., the John Lewis Fellowship funds a summer program in Atlanta, Georgia, exploring histories and contemporary issues of diversity and minority rights in the United States. Fellows attend discussion with renowned scholars and activists, visit historical sites and engage in discussions on a range of political and social issues. Currently enrolled SOPHOMORES, JUNIORS, AND SENIORS and recent GRADUATES are eligible to apply. US citizens and non-citizens studying at a university in the United States are eligible to apply. Humanity in Action covers the costs of participation and accommodation during the John Lewis Fellowship (7/5-8/1/2015); students must cover travel expenses to and from the program. You can read more at the following website: <http://apply.humanityinaction.org/login>

Madison Fellowships

Deadline: 3/1/2018 (for fellowships beginning fall 2018)

For two years of study in the U.S. in a master's program leading to a career in secondary school teaching of American history, government, or social studies. The proposed graduate program must include coursework in Constitutional history. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or nationals. SENIORS and recent GRADUATES may apply for the Junior Fellowships; employed teachers who wish to pursue a graduate degree part-time may apply for Senior Fellowships. www.jamesmadison.com.

Malmberg Scholarship for Study in Sweden

Deadline: 11/15/2017 (for 2018-19 scholarships)

Administered by the American Swedish Institute in Minneapolis, this scholarship provides up to $10,000 for up to a year of study or research in Sweden, with some attention to Swedish America or relations between the U.S. and Sweden. FRESHMAN through SENIORS and GRADUATE STUDENTS may apply. Applicants must have a working knowledge of Swedish language. The scholarship will not be awarded for language study alone, although language study may be part of the proposal. Applicants must establish an institutional contact in Sweden that can provide a letter of affiliation or invitation.

www.asimn.org/programs-education/scholarships

Marshall Scholarships

Deadline: 3/11/18 (expected WSU deadline for scholarship support beginning fall 2019)

For one to two years of study at any British university, leading to a graduate degree or two one-year graduate degrees in any field. Extension for a third year is possible. Applicants must be U.S. citizens. Selection criteria include exceptionally strong academics, leadership, and the potential to be an outstanding citizen ambassador to the UK. Applicants must have an undergraduate degree in hand by the beginning of the award period, may not be more than two years beyond graduation, and may have begun graduate study. Scholarship includes tuition and fees plus allowances for living, books, and travel to and from the UK (approximate value: 23,000 GBP per year). 33 scholarships are granted nationwide.

Institutional endorsement is required. www.marshallscholarship.org.

Math for America Fellowships

Deadline: 3/2018 (deadlines vary by program for fellowships beginning fall 2018)

Provides generous support for graduate education plus additional financial incentives and mentoring to prepare for a career as a mathematics teacher in the nation's public schools. Fellows receive full scholarships for teacher preparation programs at specific universities in Berkeley, Boston, Los Angeles, New York City, or Washington DC. SENIORS and college GRADUATES may apply. Applicants have completed substantial coursework in mathematics; math major or minor is not required. Fellows must take specific standardized math tests, and the award includes a teaching obligation in the city's public schools. Approximately 40 awards are granted per year. www.mathforamerica.org

Mitchell Scholarships

Deadline: 3/11/2018 (expected WSU deadline for 2019-20 scholarships)

For one year of study in Ireland or Northern Ireland, usually to complete a one-year graduate degree in any field. Applicants must be U.S. citizens, age 18-29 on October 1 in the year of application, must hold a bachelor's degree by the beginning of the award, and may have begun graduate study. Selection criteria include superior record of academic excellence, leadership, and public service. 12 awards are granted nationwide. Institutional endorsement is required for currently enrolled students. www.us-irelandalliance.org.

Mount Vernon Leadership Fellows program

Deadline: 2/5/2018 (expected for summer 2018)

The Mount Vernon Leadership Fellows program invites undergraduate leaders from diverse academic disciplines to immerse themselves in a 5 ½-week leadership development program inspired by the life and legacy of George Washington and today's leaders. Students will engage in dynamic academic workshops, experiential activities, and a capstone project that fully utilizes the rich resources of Washington, D.C., the nation's newest presidential library, and the famous estate of America's first president. Applicants must be currently enrolled sophomores in good standing with a demonstrated leadership ability and interest and a GPA of 3.4 or higher. The dates of the program are June 6-July 13, 2016. <http://www.mountvernon.org/site/leadershipfellows/>

NanoJapan International Research Experience for Undergraduates (IREU)

Deadline: 1/22/2018 (expected, for summer 2018)

Provides 12-week summer research experience in nanotechnology for FRESHMAN or SOPHOMORE student in Japan; no prior Japanese language or culture study is required. Participants earn 1 credit through Rice University. Applicant must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident and have a demonstrated interest in the field of nanotechnology as it relates to THz dynamics of nanostructures. No prior research experience is required. Women and students underrepresented in STEM disciplines are strongly encouraged to apply. Award includes stipend, international airfare, 3-week language and culture orientation. Up to 12 awards are granted per year.

http://nanojapan.rice.edu/educationOutreach_nanojapan_ireu.shtml

National Defense Science and Engineering Graduate Fellowship

Deadline: 12/11/2017 (expected for awards beginning fall 2018; must send GRE scores by an earlier date)

Awarded to applicants who will pursue a doctoral degree in, or closely related to, an area of Department of Defense interest in science or engineering. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or nationals. SENIORS, GRADUATES, or first- or second-year GRADUATE STUDENTS may apply. Applicants must have outstanding academic ability and must have an undergraduate degree in hand by the beginning of the award period. Fellowships are tenable only at U.S. institutions of higher education. Approximately 200 three-year fellowships are awarded nationally. The award covers tuition, fees, and a stipend of over $30,000 per year. <http://ndseg.asee.org>.

National Institutes of Health Oxford-Cambridge Biomedical Research Scholars Program

Deadline: 12/1/2017 (for support beginning fall 2018)

Supports graduate study leading to a PhD in the biomedical sciences through a partnership between NIH and the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge. Students spend approximately half their time at the NIH in Bethesda, MD and the other half at Oxford or Cambridge. Scholars may also pursue a combined MD/PhD through one of NIH's American medical school partners. SENIORS and GRADUATES may apply. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents with outstanding academic records and exceptional promise for a career in biomedical research, must have prior coursework in biology, chemistry, physics, and mathematics, must have previous laboratory research experience, and must complete an undergraduate degree prior to the start of the program. The award includes a stipend of approximately $25,000 per year, health benefits, and other academic support. Approximately 14 are awarded nationwide. <http://oxcam.gpp.nih.gov/index.asp>

National Institutes of Health Postbaccalaureate Intramural Research Training Award Fellowships

Deadline: Applications accepted on a rolling basis.

Provides opportunities for recent college graduates to spend one or two years engaged in full-time biomedical research at the National Institutes of Health (NIH) in Bethesda, MD and selected off-campus sites. Applicants may be SENIORS or recent GRADUATES and must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. It is expected that Fellows will apply to medical school or graduate school during their tenure in the program. Fellows receive a stipend of approximately $27,000, health insurance and other benefits. www.training.nih.gov/programs/postbac_irta

National Institutes of Health Undergraduate Scholarships

Deadline: 3/2018 (expected, for scholarships beginning fall 2018)

Supports outstanding undergraduates from economically disadvantaged backgrounds who are committed to careers in biomedical, behavioral, and social science health-related research. Applicants may be full-time FRESHMAN, SOPHOMORES, or JUNIORS. Must have a GPA of 3.5 or higher and be certified by the Office of Student Finance as having exceptional financial need. In general, applicants must be U.S. citizens or nationals, but foreign nationals may apply under certain conditions. Approximately 15 scholarships of up to $20,000 are awarded per year; scholarship may be renewed for up to four years. The scholarship includes paid research training at NIH during the summer and carries a commitment to take up paid employment and training at NIH for one or more years after graduation. <https://www.training.nih.gov/programs/ugsp>.

National Science Foundation (NSF) Graduate Research Fellowships (GRFP)

Deadline: 10/2017 and 11/2017 (deadline dates vary by field)

For up to three years of graduate study at a U.S. institution leading to a research-based master's or doctoral degree in mathematics, science, engineering, social science, or history/philosophy of science. Includes $30,000 annual stipend, cost of education allowance, and one-time travel allowance. Applicant must be a U.S. citizen, national, or permanent resident. SENIORS, recent GRADUATES, and first-year GRADUATE STUDENTS may apply. Approximately 2,000 are awarded nationally. www.nsfgrfp.org.

North American Language and Culture Assistants in Spain

Deadline: 3/31/2018 (expected for 2018)

Supports an academic-year English teaching assistantship at a primary or secondary school in Spain. Applicants must be SOPHOMORES, JUNIORS, SENIORS or GRADUATES and must be U.S. or Canadian citizens, with intermediate or advanced proficiency in Spanish. Stipend is approximately EUR 700 per month; medical insurance and a teacher orientation course are included. Approximately 1500 awards are made per year. www.mecd.gob.es/eeuu/convocatorias-programas/convocatorias-eeuu/auxiliares-conversacion-eeuu.

Payne International Development Graduate Fellowship

Deadline: 1/18/2018 (expected for 2018-19)

Provides benefits valued at up to $90,000 over two years toward a two-year master's program in a U.S. institution to study an area of relevance to the USAID Foreign Service, including international development, international relations, public policy, business administration, foreign languages, economics, agriculture, environmental sciences, health, or urban planning at a graduate or professional school approved by the Payne Program. Fellows who successfully complete the program become USAID Foreign Service Officers. Applicants must be SENIORS or GRADUATES planning to start graduate school in the fall of the year they apply, have GPAs of at least 3.2 and be U.S. citizens. The program welcomes applications from those with any undergraduate major and encourages applications from members of minority groups historically underrepresented in the USAID Foreign Service and those with financial need. www.paynefellows.org

Phi Beta Kappa (WSU Gamma Chapter) Scholarships

Deadline: 2/2018 (expected for 2018-19)

Recognizes and fosters excellence in liberal learning at the undergraduate level and provides support towards tuition for senior year at WSU. Applicants must be current JUNIORS or SENIORS planning to register as seniors for the fall of 2014, must be majors in the College of Arts and Sciences, or in the School of Economic Sciences, the Department of Human Development, the Program in Neuroscience, the College of Communication or the School of Molecular Biosciences, and must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.6. Finalists will be interviewed by the WSU Phi Beta Kappa Scholarship Committee. Campus contact: Kim Holapa (holapa@wsu.edu).

Pickering Foreign Affairs Fellowships and Graduate Foreign Affairs Fellowships

Deadline: 2/6/2018 (expected, senior, graduate); 1/22/2018 (expected, junior)

Provides generous support at the undergraduate and/or graduate level for students representing all ethnic and social backgrounds who are interested in becoming Foreign Service Officers. Applicants must be U.S. citizens with GPA of 3.2 or higher. Consideration is given to financial need and to significant leadership and service activities. Applicants for the Foreign Affairs Fellowships must be current JUNIORS; applicants for the Graduate Foreign Affairs Fellowships must be SENIORS or GRADUATES seeking admission to an appropriate graduate program for the following fall. The Fellowships carry a service obligation. http://woodrow.org/higher-education-fellowships/foreign_affairs/index.php

Public Policy & International Affairs Fellowship Program (PPIA)

Deadline: 11/1/2017 (expected for summer 2018)

Provides training, mentoring, and financial support to encourage students, particularly those from underrepresented groups, to pursue graduate study and careers serving the public good. Applicants must be JUNIORS, U.S. citizens or permanent residents, with a demonstrated interest in public service, and able to contribute to diversity of perspectives. Consideration is given to financial need. Fellows participate in a seven-week Junior Summer Institute (tuition, books, housing, meals, and a $1500 minimum stipend are included) and receive a minimum $5000 scholarship for graduate study in public policy or international affairs at a PPIA-affiliated institution (most top public affairs schools in the U.S. are PPIA affiliates). Most PPIA Fellows receive additional financial assistance for graduate study. www.ppiaprogram.org/ppia/what-we-do/junior-summer-institutes/.

Rangel International Affairs Program Graduate Fellowships

Deadline: 9/18/2017 (expected for fellowships beginning fall 2018)

The Fellowship program seeks to promote diversity in the U.S. diplomatic corps. Supports two years of graduate study in an approved two-year master's degree program as preparation for a career in the Foreign Service. Applicants must be U.S. citizens, must be SENIORS or recent GRADUATES with outstanding academic achievement, leadership skills, and financial need, and must be seeking admission to an appropriate graduate program. 20 awards are made per year of up to $34,000. www.howard.edu/rjb/rangelprogram.htm

Rhodes Scholarships

Deadline: 3/11/2018 (expected WSU deadline for scholarship support beginning fall 2019)

For one to three years of study at Oxford University leading to a graduate or, in certain cases, a second undergraduate degree in any field. American Rhodes applicants must be U.S. citizens, age 18-23 on October 1 in the year of application, must hold a bachelor's degree by the beginning of the award, and may have begun graduate work. (For a list of other Rhodes-eligible countries of citizenship, see the non-U.S. citizens' page at www.rhodesscholar.org.) Selection criteria include proven intellectual and academic achievement, integrity of character, interest in and respect for one's fellow human beings, the ability to lead, and the energy to use one's talents to the fullest. GPA of 3.8 or higher is generally expected. Up to 32 scholarships are awarded to Americans annually. Institutional endorsement is required. www.rhodesscholar.org.

Rotary Peace Fellowship

Deadline: 5/31/2018 (expected for 2019 fellowships)

Each year, Rotary funds some of the world's most dedicated and brightest professionals to study at Rotary Peace Centers. These fellowships cover tuition and fees, room and board, and roundtrip transportation. Two types of fellowships are available: 15-24 month master's degree fellowships at premier universities in fields related to peace and conflict prevention and resolution; and 3-month fellowships for experienced professionals working in peace-related fields at Chulalongkorn University in Thailand. <https://www.rotary.org/myrotary/en/get-involved/exchange-ideas/peace-fellowships>

Schwarzman Scholarship

Deadline: 6/15/2018 (expected for 2019 scholarships)

Schwarzman Scholars is a highly selective, one-year master's program at Tsinghua University in Beijing, China. Students will live and study together on the campus of Schwarzman College, a newly-built, state-of-the-art facility, where all classes will be taught in English. Students can pursue a degree in Public Policy, Economics and Business, or International Studies. Schwarzman Scholars receive tuition and a stipend, room and board, RT travel, and an in-country study tour. SENIORS and GRADUATES may apply; applicants must have completed bachelor's degree and be at least 18 but not yet 29 years of age as of August 1, 2019. <http://schwarzmanscholars.org/program/>

Science to Achieve Results (STAR) Fellowships for Graduate Environmental Study

Deadline: 11/2017 (expected, for support beginning in fall 2018)

For graduate study focusing on the environment in any discipline relevant to the mission of the Environmental Protection Agency, including ecology, economics, engineering, modeling, health sciences, physical sciences, earth sciences, social sciences, information sciences, mathematical sciences, computer sciences, and environmental sciences. SENIORS, GRADUATES, and GRADUATE STUDENTS in the first year of Masters study or first four years of PhD study may apply. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents with outstanding academic records in appropriate fields of study, who have the potential to broaden the academic frontiers of protecting human health and the environment. The fellowship provides up to $42,000 per year of support. More than 100 fellowships are awarded per year. http://epa.gov/ncer/rfa/2013/2013_star_gradfellow.html#fon.

Scoville Peace Fellowships

Deadline: 10/2/2017 (for spring 2018 fellowships); 1/4/2018 (expected for fall 2018 fellowships)

Supports six to nine months at a participating non-profit organization in Washington D.C. addressing peace and security issues. Fellows receive a stipend of $3,000 per month and health insurance, plus travel expenses to Washington D.C. Applicants must hold an undergraduate degree by the beginning of the fellowship and may have begun graduate study. SENIORS, GRADUATES, and GRADUATE STUDENTS may apply. Preference is given to U.S. citizens, but foreign nationals residing and eligible to work in the U.S. may also apply. Selection criteria include academic excellence, prior study relevant to peace and security issues, and public-interest activism or advocacy. Several awards are made annually. <http://scoville.org>.

Soros Fellowships for New Americans

Deadline: 11/1/2017 (expected for support beginning fall 2018)

Provides up to two years of support for graduate or professional school in the United States in any field (up to $45,000 per year). Applicant must be a permanent resident, a naturalized U.S. citizen, or the child of parents who are naturalized citizens, under 31 years old at the time of application, and must hold bachelor's degree by the beginning of the award. Selection criteria include strong academics and character traits such as creativity, originality, initiative, a capacity for accomplishment, and a commitment to the values expressed in the U.S. Constitution and Bill of Rights. SENIORS, GRADUATES, and first- or second-year GRADUATE STUDENTS may apply. Applicants must submit scores from appropriate graduate aptitude test (GRE, GMAT, MCAT, or LSAT). 30 awards are made nationwide. www.pdsoros.org.

Summer Research - Early Identification Program (SR-EIP)

Deadline: 2/1/2018 (for summer 2018)

Funded by the Leadership Alliance, SR-EIP provides training and mentoring to undergraduates interested in pursuing research careers in a wide range of fields, including the social sciences and humanities at over 20 research institutions throughout the United States. Participants spend 8-10 weeks at a Leadership Alliance institution (<http://www.theleadershipalliance.org/programs/summer-research/sites>), receive a stipend and travel and housing expenses, work under the guidance of a faculty or research mentor, make oral or poster presentations at the Leadership Alliance National Symposium (<http://www.theleadershipalliance.org/programs/national-symposium>), and gain access to ongoing resources, mentoring and professional networks to support their chosen career path.

Applicants must:

- Be currently enrolled full-time in an accredited public or private college or university in the United States or its territories, as recognized by the U.S. Department of Education.
- Be in good academic standing with a GPA of 3.0 or better.
- Demonstrate a committed interest to pursue graduate study toward a PhD or MD-PhD.
- Have completed at least two semesters and have at least one semester remaining of their undergraduate education by the start of the summer program.
- Be a documented U.S. citizen or non-citizen national, or permanent resident in possession of an alien registration receipt card (I-551) or other legal document of such status at the time of application. International citizens studying in the United States with an F-1 Visa are not eligible for the SR-EIP. Individuals seeking asylum or refugees are not eligible.

<http://www.theleadershipalliance.org/programs/summer-research>

For undergraduates interested in pursuing doctoral study in the Humanities and Social Sciences, discover the Leadership Alliance Mellon Initiative (LAMI)

<http://www.theleadershipalliance.org/programs/summer-research/mellon-initiative>

Teaching Assistantship Program in France

Deadline: 1/15/2018 (expected for 2018-2019 assistantships)

Supports a 6-9-month teaching assistantship in France at a primary or secondary school or teacher's college. Applicants must be JUNIORS, SENIORS, or GRADUATES, age 20-29. U.S. citizens and U.S. permanent residents who are not French citizens are eligible. Proficiency in French is required. Stipend is EUR 965 per month. Approximately 1500 awards are made per year.

<http://highereducation.frencheducation.org/teach-in-france>.

ThinkSwiss Research Scholarship

Deadline: 1/31/2018 (expected, for 2018-19 scholarships)

Supports two-three months of research at a Swiss university. Applicants must be currently enrolled SOPHOMORES, JUNIORS, SENIORS, or GRADUATE STUDENTS and must provide written confirmation from a professor at a Swiss university that she/he will accept you for a research stay in his/her group. Knowledge of German, French, or Italian is helpful but not required. The scholarship provides approximately $1,100 per month, of which half is paid upon completion of the research stay. Participants are expected to participate in limited outreach activities as student ambassadors. 15 awards are granted nationwide. (<http://thinkswiss.tumblr.com/About>)

Tillman Military Scholarship

Deadline: 2/15/2018 (expected for 2018)

Provides financial support for undergraduate and graduate students who are veterans or active duty military service members in any branch of the U.S. Armed Forces and for spouses or surviving spouses of veterans and active service members. Amount of award is determined case-by-case on the basis of need. Recipients are expected to participate in Tillman-sponsored community service and leadership activities. Additional selection criteria include strong educational and career ambitions, community service, leadership potential, and excellent application essays. 60 Scholars will be selected nationwide. www.patillmanfoundation.org.

Truman Scholarships

Deadline: 12/1/2017 (WSU deadline for 2018 scholarships)

Awarded to undergraduates for graduate study leading to a career in government or elsewhere in public service. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or nationals, must be currently enrolled JUNIORS in the upper quarter of their class, and should have a strong record of service or activism and leadership, as well as excellent communication skills. Truman Scholars receive up to $30,000 for graduate or professional school and participate in a Truman Scholars Leadership Week in the summer after their junior year. An optional Summer Institute in Washington D.C. is offered in the summer after graduation. The scholarship carries a service obligation. 60-65 scholarships are awarded nationwide. Institutional nomination is required; WSU may endorse up to four candidates. Campus contact: Cornell Clayton (cwclayton@wsu.edu). www.truman.gov.

Udall Native American Congressional Internships

Deadline: 1/31/2018 (expected for summer 2018 internships)

Supports a ten-week summer internship in a congressional office or federal agency in Washington, D.C., for Native American and Alaska Native students with a demonstrated interest in areas related to tribal public policy, including tribal governance, law, health, education, justice, natural resource protection, or economic development. JUNIORS, SENIORS, GRADUATES, and GRADUATE STUDENTS may apply. Applicants must meet the Udall Foundation's definition of Native American or Alaska Native, have a GPA of 3.0 or higher, and be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident. Program includes community-style living accommodations, round-trip airfare to D.C., a daily allowance for meals and other expenses, and a $1,200 education stipend. 12 internships are awarded nationwide. www.udall.gov/ourprograms/nacinternship/nacinternship.aspx.

Udall Scholarships (Environment)

Deadline: 12/1/2017 (expected WSU deadline for 2018 scholarships)

For undergraduates who are preparing for careers related to the environment and who have demonstrated a commitment to environmental issues. Applicants must be U.S. citizens, nationals, or permanent residents, currently enrolled SOPHOMORES or JUNIORS with GPA of 3.0 or higher, and of any ethnicity. The scholarship provides up to $5000 towards undergraduate education. Scholars participate in a Udall Scholars Orientation in Tucson, AZ in August. Approximately 50 Udall Scholarships (including Environment, Tribal Public Policy and Native Health Care) are awarded nationwide. Institutional nomination is required; WSU may nominate up to six candidates. Campus contact: Mary Sanchez Lanier (sanchez@wsu.edu). www.udall.gov.

Udall Scholarships (Tribal Public Policy/Native Health Care)

Deadline: 12/1/2017 (expected WSU deadline for 2018 scholarships)

For Native American or Alaska Native undergraduates who are committed to pursuing careers related to tribal public policy or native health care. Applicants must be U.S. citizens, nationals, or permanent residents, currently enrolled SOPHOMORES or JUNIORS with GPA of 3.0 or higher, and must meet the Udall Foundation's definition of Native American or Alaska Native. Approximately 50 Udall Scholarships (including Environment, Tribal Public Policy and Native Health Care) are awarded nationwide. Institutional nomination is required; WSU may nominate up to six Udall Scholarship candidates. Campus contact: Mary Sanchez Lanier (sanchez@wsu.edu). www.udall.gov.

USA TODAY's All-USA College Academic Awards

Deadline: Unknown at this time

Recognizes full-time JUNIORS and SENIORS who not only excel academically but extend their reach beyond the classroom to benefit society. Selection criteria include grades, academic rigor, leadership, activities, and the student's essay describing his or her most outstanding intellectual endeavor. Winners are featured in USA Today in March and receive an award of $2,500. 20 winners are selected nationwide. Students begin the application process via the online nomination form and ask a faculty member or advisor to nominate them.

http://usatoday30.usatoday.com/marketing/academic_teams/index.html.

Villers Fellowship for Health Care Justice

Deadline: 1/2018 (expected, for 2018-19 fellowships)

Supports one year of work as a policy analyst in the Washington D.C. office of Families U.S.A., a national organization for health care consumers, beginning in August. The fellowship aims to develop a network of young leaders who share a passion for social and health care justice. The Villers Fellow works to improve health care coverage for all Americans, especially for low-income or other vulnerable communities, conducts research on health care policy issues, and contributes to publications that are relevant to current health policy debates. Preference is for an individual who has completed a college degree in any field by the beginning of the award year (i.e. SENIORS, GRADUATES, GRADUATE STUDENTS). The stipend of $38,000 plus health benefits carries a service requirement.

<http://familiesusa.org/about-us/careers/villers-fellowship>.

Wellstone Fellowship for Social Justice

Deadline: 1/2018 (expected, for 2018-19 fellowships)

Supports one year of work in the Washington D.C. office of Families U.S.A., a national organization for health care consumers, beginning in August. The fellowship aims to expand the pool of talented social justice advocates from underrepresented racial and ethnic minority groups. The Wellstone Fellow plays a key role in the organization's outreach to communities of color, and in efforts to overcome health disparities. The fellowship offers the opportunity to learn about health care policy issues, grassroots organizing and advocacy. Preference is for an individual who has completed a college degree in any field by the beginning of the award year (i.e. SENIORS, GRADUATES, and GRADUATE STUDENTS). Selection criteria include experience with, or demonstrated interest in, working with communities of color. The stipend of $38,000 plus health benefits carries a service commitment.

www.familiesusa.org/about/wellstone-fellowship.html.

Whitaker International Fellows Program

Deadline: 1/18/2018 (expected for 2018-2019)

Provides funding to emerging U.S.-based leaders in biomedical engineering/bioengineering to conduct a study and/or research project abroad, with the underlying objective of increasing international collaboration in the field of Biomedical Engineering (BME). Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents and must hold a Bachelor's degree by the beginning date of the grant. SENIORS or GRADUATES (through PhD students) may apply. Fellows receive a stipend for one year, and are eligible for tuition reimbursement. Awards vary depending upon the recipient's experience and expected expenses in the host country. www.whitaker.org/grants/fellows-scholars.

Whitaker International Program Undergraduate Grants

Funding not available at this time. www.whitaker.org/grants/undergraduate-grants.

Wiesel Prize in Ethics

Deadline: 12/11/2017 (expected for 2018 Prize)

Annual essay contest challenges college students to analyze urgent ethical issues confronting them in today's complex world. Contestants must be full-time JUNIORS or SENIORS at U.S. institutions. Citizenship is open. First prize $5000; second and third prize, and two honorable mentions, are also awarded. www.eliewieselfoundation.org.

Woodrow Wilson Leonore Annenberg Teaching Fellowship – Not currently being funded www.woodrow.org/teaching-fellowships/annenberg/index.php.

Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowships – STEM Teaching

Deadlines: First round, 10/17/2017; second round, 11/30/2017; third round, 1/31/2018 (for 2018)

National fellowship program to encourage exceptional candidates to seek long-term careers as high school math and science teachers in high-need schools in Michigan, Georgia, Indiana, New Jersey, and Ohio. Fellows receive a $30,000 stipend to complete a year-long master's program at a participating university in Michigan, Georgia, Indiana, New Jersey, or Ohio. Applicants must be college SENIORS or GRADUATES of any accredited US university with GPA of 3.0 or higher and major or a strong professional background in math, science, technology, or engineering. Includes a service commitment.

<http://woodrow.org/fellowships/ww-teaching-fellowships/>