

Malea Loukides is double majoring in Philosophy and Political Science on a pre-law route. Some activities she is involved in is working with all the incoming students this summer as an Orientation Counselor, and worked with Young Democrats of WSU (YDWSU) group to encourage students to vote. She loves being part of the Honors College at WSU because it has opened her eyes to different cultures, opinions and backgrounds and overall helps her to become a more well-rounded person.