Through grant funding from the Indian Health Service’s Indians Into Medicine Program (INMED) and the Empire Health Foundation, the WSU Elson S. Floyd College of Medicine has opportunities for American Indian and Alaska Native (AIAN), namely those who are enrolled members of federally recognized tribes or descendants, to participate in pathway programs.

The RISE Summer Academy, a 6-week program, will be open to 15 American Indian Alaskan Native (AIAN) enrolled members of federally recognized tribes or descendants.

FOCUS OF THE RISE SUMMER ACADEMY:
• MCAT Prep
• Supplemental Basic Science Refresher
• Cultural Engagement and Community Building
• Medical Student Mentors
