

HGSA Meeting: October 3, 2019

MA Rep, Matthew Hitchen:

Scholarship emails just went out

- No recommendation letter is required this time around
- Contact Matt if you have questions.

HGSA Rep, Samantha Edgerton:

Matthew Sutherland was allocated money to lobby in Olympia for GPSA

-Sutherland's "focus on sexual assault" was a result of Sam E asking why it wasn't in his proposed agenda already

There are many service/professionalism opportunities through the Community Affairs Committee

- Contact Sam for more information

RCI Rep, Aaron Jesch:

Student Cap Policy is being discussion

- Sounds like there are a lot of positives to this proposal
- talk to Aaron or RCI faculty if you have questions.

Faculty Rep, Kevin Kipers:

Try using Zoom!

Talk of adding a button on the department page about what you can do with a history degree

Looking to emphasize public history

-There was discussion of the problems associated with the current Public History track, namely the insufficient/incompetent leadership of the program.

The ancient studies major will be eliminated and there will only be a minor.

President, Elisha Madison:

Proposal for Trip to the Hide-Out Bar in Colfax next Friday (celebrate Chris' birthday)

- Agreed!

Secretary, Delaney Piper:

Remember the Colloquium "Digital Humanities" is next Friday, October 11th
