Introduction

What is the Employee Assistance Program?

- No-cost, confidential support to help with work and life challenges for employees and their adult family members
- Referral services for counseling, legal consultation, financial help, and more
- Resource center to promote employee health, safety, and wellbeing

Visit the EAP WSU Website at https://hrs.wsu.edu/resources/employee-assistance-program/ From here you can access the EAP Website, as well as the EAP Work-Life Resources Web Portal, which provides additional resources in association with WSU’s contracted services with EAP. (Organization Code: WSU)
Referral Services

3. Financial Consultation
Getting Started with EAP Counseling

1. Please review and understand your eligibility for services. (see above eligibility section). We get many requests from people not covered by this EAP.

2. Submit a Client Intake Form.

3. Within 1 business day of receipt of your intake form, we will send you a link to the EAP Intake Calendar to schedule an intake appointment.

4. Schedule your intake appointment and receive an automated appointment confirmation and Teams link for the appointment via email.

5. You will attend the intake appointment through Teams and meet with a Masters-level, licensed EAP Intake Counselor.

6. At the intake appointment, you and the EAP Intake Counselor may:
   - Spend 5 to 10 minutes discussing what brings you to the EAP and what you hope the EAP can provide
   - Discuss the concern's current impact on your wellbeing
   - Discuss resources and referrals
   - Identify next steps to support you in your efforts to improve your wellbeing

You can also call EAP Monday through Friday, 8am – 4:30pm at 877-313-4455. They prefer the online intake form, but if you don’t have access to a computer or mobile device, someone can assist with this via the above number.

For immediate crisis situation, please call and press “2” vs. completing the Client Intake form. Counselors are available in an emergency 24/7. If it is a life-threatening emergency, please call 911.
Counseling

Personalized Solutions
Financial worries. Aging parents. Job stress. Health issues. Everyone faces challenges from time to time — but you don’t have to face them alone. This includes issues like:

- Workplace concerns
- Grief and loss
- Interpersonal conflicts
- Addiction and recovery
- Legal or financial issues
- Stress management
- Mental wellness
- Anxiety, depression, or trauma
- Parenting or eldercare support

How It Works
EAP is easy to access. Contact us and we’ll match you with a local professional counselor in-person or by phone. You’ll receive FREE confidential support, guidance on a plan of action, and helpful resources. EAP support is short-term and solution-focused.

Your benefit includes up to three sessions, and covers all household adults. And, you can use EAP again in the future if new problems arise.
Hiring an Attorney

You may be nervous or anxious about dealing with an attorney, particularly if it is your first experience with the legal profession. It may help you to make a list of points that you think are important and include important questions to ask your attorney candidates.

State Human Resources: Business Resource Groups

Statewide business resource groups (BRGs) bring together groups of employees and their allies who have a common interest or characteristic. All BRGs have a charter, mission, goals and bylaws and contribute to an overall statewide business strategy. BRG members bring their unique knowledge and perspectives, making them an asset to state business needs, such as recruitment and retention.

Groups include:

- Blacks United in Leadership and Diversity (BUILD)
- LGBTQ+ -- Rainbow Alliance and Inclusion Network (RAIN)
- Latino Leadership Network (LLN)
- Washington Immigrant Network (WIN)
- Disability Inclusion Network (DIN)
- Veterans Employee Resource Group (VERG)
